

Subject Index

A

Accelerated reader scores, 83
Acrostic poetry, 58
Adams, Helen R., 338
Advanced readers, transitional books for, 201
Adventure and survival-related stories, middle school years and, 266
Adventurers, biographies and autobiographies about, 239–240, 273
Aesthetic reading, 6, 7–9 African American literature changing literary scene and, 126 children and, 133–136
 folklore, 52–53
African American writers, 37–38
Alphabet books
 characteristics of, 49
 infants and, 154–155
 preschool years and, 175–176
American experience, historical fiction about, 269
American Girl, 34
Americas Award, 409
Animal fantasy
 as genre, 56
 intermediate school years and, 228
 middle school years and, 260
 preschool years and, 181–182
Anthropomorphism. See Animal fantasy
Anxieties, early elementary school years and, 193–196
Aristotle, 22
Aronson, Marc, 87–89
Art of Teaching Reading, The, 83
Artistic development stages, 110–111
Asian American children and literature, 136–138
Audio Bookshelf, 21
Audiobooks, 21
Author/illustrator integration, 115–117 Autobiography
 early elementary school years and, 209
 as genre, 63–64
 interacting with, 242
 intermediate school years and, 237–242
 middle school years and, 272–274
 young adults and, 303
Awards. See Literary awards

B

Ballads, 59
Bandura, Albert, 5, 14, 209, 272, 284
Banned books, 344. See also Censorship
Beast tales, 51
Beginning readers, literature for, 198–201
Best Books for Young Adults, 82
Bibliographies, Internet use and, 351
Binet, Alfred, 25
Biographical Sketch of an Infant, 25
Biography about adventurers, 239–240 about historical figures, 240 about scientists, 330–331 about sports figures, 241
 early elementary school years and, 209
 as genre, 63–64
 interaction with, 242
 intermediate school years and, 237–242
 middle school years and, 272–274
 young adults and, 303
Biopsychosocial characteristics
 early elementary school years and, 196
 high school years and, 284
 infants and, 152
 intermediate school years and, 223
 middle school years and, 255
 preschool years and, 172
Biopsychosocial interactions, importance of, 13–15
Bloom, Lois, 174
Board books, 48, 149
Bodily-kinesthetic intelligence, informational books and, 244, 276–277, 305
Book bowls, 92
Book clubs, 91
Book review sources, 81–82
 American Library Association committees, 82 journals, 81–82 student written, 92
Book selection, developmental framework in, 9–13
Booklist, 82
Books, organization of, 82–84
Books to plays, 359–363
 beginning, 359–363
 determining the problem and, 363–364 evaluating solutions and, 370–371 four-stage model, 363–371 planning solutions and, 367–370
 the play itself, 371–376 strategy use, 361–362
 understanding the problem and, 364–366
Bookworm bafflers, 92
Boston Globe-Horn Book Awards, 390–398
Boys Life, 34
Boys' Reading, 252–253
Boys' series, 29–30
Brain development, preschool years and, 168

Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books, The, 82
Bullying, middle school students and, 254–255

C

Caldecott Medal. See Randolph Caldecott Medal
Calkins, Lucy, 83
Career World, 34
Carle, Eric, 151
Celebrity-written books, 211
Censorship, 338–345 banned books, 344 constancy of issue, 341 defining, 339–341
 folktales and, 340
 historical context of, 339–341 international, 340
 most frequently challenged books, 344–345 offensive language and, 343 parents and significant adults and, 341–344 protecting children's privacy and, 338–339 sex and sexuality and, 342–343 violence and, 343–344
Chapbooks, 23
Characters, as literary element, 75–76
Chess, Stella, 9
Chick lit, 296
Childhood, changing viewpoints on, 24
Children as critics, 93
Children's Book Council, 33
Children's Book Week, 35
Civil rights movement, 37
Clarification of terms or ideas, 129
Classic picture books, 169–172. See also Picture books
Classics into movies, 32
Classification systems, 82–84
Classroom discussions, 103
Classroom libraries, 84
Cobblestone Magazine, 34
Cognitive development
 intermediate school years and, 220–223
 play and, 161
 stages of, 12–13
Cognitive strategies, 129
Collaboration, literacy and, 351
Color printing process, 27–28
Communication disorders, 123
Concept books
 as genre, 49
 infants and, 155–156
 preschool years and, 177–178
Concrete poetry, 58
Conflict, as literary element, 78

- Contemporary problems, literature and, 255
- Contemporary realistic fiction
 definition of, 60
 diverse cultures and, 62.
 early elementary school years and, 207–208
 family stories and, 231
 genome project and, 331
 as genre, 60–62
 interaction with, 207
 intermediate school years and, 231–235
 middle school years and, 264–267
 mysteries and, 234–235
 school-related stories and, 231–233 science literature and, 328–329
 series books and, 61
 short stories and, 62 sports-related stories and, 233–234 themes of, 60–61
 young adults and, 294–300
- Controversial subjects, realistic fiction and, 264–265
- Copied text, plagiarism and, 350
- Coretta Scott King Awards, 88, 125, 403–409
- Council on Interracial Books for Children (CIBC), 124
- Counting books
 as genre, 49
 infants and, 155
 preschool years and, 176–177
- Creativity, science literature and, 314–317
- Crime, young adults and, 286
- Criticas*, 126
- Crossover novels, young adults and, 296–297
- Cultural climate, impact of, 122–123
- Cultural processes, 130
- Cumulative tales, 51
- Curtis, Christopher, 269
- D
- Darwin, Charles, 25
- Death fears, early elementary school years and, 194–196
- DeCasper, Anthony, 148
- Deleting Online Predators Act (DOPA), 347
- Delinquency, young adults and, 286
- Design stage of artistic development, 110
- Development, defined, 9–10
- Developmental framework, in book selection, 9–13
- Dewey, Melville, 82
- Dewey Decimal Classification System, 82–84
- Dialogic reading, 173
- Dime novels, 29–30
- Diverse cultures, tales from, 52. See also Multiculturalism
- Diversity, recognition of, 37–38
- Dodson, Shireen, 91
- Drama
 interacting with, 293
 middle school years and, 262–263
 poetry and, 59
 preschool years and, 183
 young adult readers and, 293
- Dramatic activities, 92
- Drawings, children and, 109–111
- Dropouts, educational, 286
- E
- Early elementary school years (ages 5–7) biography and autobiography and, 209
 biopsychosocial characteristics and, 196 celebrity-written books and, 211
 children's characteristics and, 192–198
 contemporary realistic fiction and, 207–208
 death fears and, 194–196 easy readers and, 199–200 emotional and social issues and, 193–197 entering school and, 194
 fantasy and, 204–205
 fears and anxieties and, 193
 historical fiction and, 208–210
 informational books and, 210–212
 initiative and, 196
 language accomplishment and, 199 modeling and self-efficacy and, 209–210 picture storybooks and, 202
 poetry and, 205–206
 reading aloud and, 198
 symbolic functional substage and, 192–193
 traditional literature and, 202–203
 transitional books and, 200–201
- Early tradition of children's literature, 20
- Early years (ages birth–2)
 alphabet books and, 154–155
 biopsychological characteristics and, 152 book types for infants, 153–157 children's characteristics during, 148–152 concept books and, 155–156
 counting books and, 155 distinctive book features and, 150 emergent literacy and, 161
 fantasy and, 158–159
 hearing and, 150–151
 informational books and, 160
 interacting with books and, 165 lap time story hour and, 162 memory and, 148
 nursery rhymes and, 158 object permanence and, 149 pattern vision and, 152
 perceptual development of infants, 148–149
 perennially popular books and, 149–150 picture books and, 154, 156–157
 play and, 161
 poetry and, 159–160
 reading complexity and development and, 150–153 sensory capacities and, 150 touch and feel and, 149–150
 traditional literature and, 157–158
 vision and, 151–152 wordless books and, 154
- Easy readers, 199–200
- Edison, Thomas, 317
- Efferent reading, 6, 7–9
- Egocentricity, 12
- Eighteenth century literature, 23–25
- Eisenberg, Nancy, 50
- Elderly, middle school students and, 253–254
- Elements of Drawing*, 110
- Emergent literacy, 161, 353
- Emotional and behavioral disorders, 123
- Emotional issues, early elementary school years and, 193–197
- Emotions books about, 328
 language development and, 100
- Endangered species, books about, 319
- Enrichment strategies, 90–93
 book bowls, 92
 book clubs, 91
 book readings, 92–93 book reviews, 92
 bookworm bafflers, 92
 children as critics, 93 competitions, 92–93
 dramatic activities, 92
 grand conversations, 91 group discussions, 90–91
 literary lunch bunch, 91
 literary teas, 91
 meet the authors, 91–92
 readers theater, 92
 reading aloud, 90
 reviews, 92–93 school read, 92–93
 special events, 91–92
 television book commercials, 92
- Entering school, fears regarding, 194
- Environment child development and, 14
 language development and, 99
- Environmentalists, biographies of, 321
- Episodic plots, 78
- Eric Carle Museum of Art, 151
- Erikson, Erik, 10–12, 196, 218, 288–289
- Esteem needs, 313
- Evans, Edmund, 27
- Exceptional children, policies towards, 122–123
- F
- Fables, 54
- Fairy tales, 51, 179, 258
- Familiar objects, grouping by children, 107
- Family adjustments, children and, 219–220

- Family literacy, 353–354
 Family-related stories, 231, 265
 Family strengths, diversity and, 135–136
 Family ties, middle school years and, 253, 254
 Family values, 35–36
 Fantasy literature. See also Modern fantasy animal fantasy, 181–182, 228, 260
 early elementary school years and, 204–205
 infants and, 158–159
 interactions with, 228
 intermediate school years and, 227–228
 literary elements in, 80
 middle school years and, 259–261
 modern, 227
 in nineteenth century, 30–31
 preschool years and, 180–181
 reading aloud and, 227
 science fiction-related, 260–261
 young adult readers and, 291–292
 Fantz, Robert, 151–152
 Fears, early elementary school years and, 193–196
 Feminine characters, appeal of, 29
 First person narrator, 76
 Fischer, Kurt, 168
 Folklore, intermediate school years and, 225–226
 Folktales
 African American, 52–53
 beast tales, 51
 censorship and, 340
 cumulative tales, 51
 from diverse cultures, 52
 fairy tales, 51 favorite, 53
 humorous tales, 51
 Native American, 51
 pourquoi tales, 51
 preschool years and, 179–180
 settings of, 51
 transformational tales, 51
 types of, 51
 Fountas, Irene, 83
Frames of Mind: The Theory of Multiple Intelligences, 8
 Free verse poetic novels, 294–295
 Freud, Sigmund, 33
 Frightening children, 116
- G
 Gardner, Howard, 8, 14, 218, 274
 Gardner's multiple intelligences, 275
 Gender, as part of children's literature, 252–253
 Gender differences, recognition of, 29–30 Genres
 biography, autobiography, memoir, 63–64 contemporary realistic fiction, 60–62 genres and their meaning, 46
 historical fiction, 62–63
 informational books, 64–65
 modern fantasy, 55–57
 picture books, 47–50
 poetry, 57–60
 thinking skills and, 47
 traditional literature, 50–55
 Giff, Patricia, 232
 Gifted children. See Exceptional children
 Goodness-of-fit, 9, 39, 70
 Goodrich, Samuel, 25
 Grand conversation, 91
 Graphic novels
 as genre, 50
 Greek myths as, 258
 literary quality of, 301–302
 young adults and, 301–302
Great Books for Boys, 91
 Great Depression, 270
 Greek tales, 22–23
 Group discussions, 90–91
 Gutenberg, Johannes, 23
- H
 Haiku, 58
 Hall, G. Stanley, 25, 284
 Hamilton, Virginia, 89
 Hand clapping, 159
 Hans Christian Andersen Award, 412
 Hearing, infants and, 150–151
 Hierarchy of needs (Maslow), 312–314
 High school years (ages 14–18) biography, autobiography, memoirs and, 303
 biopsychosocial characteristics and, 284
 characteristics of, 284–287
 chick lit and, 296
 contemporary realistic fiction and, 294–300 crossover novels and, 296–297 delinquency, crime, violence and, 286
 drama and, 293
 Erikson and identity and, 288–289
 fantasy books and, 291–292
 free verse poetic novels and, 294–295 graphic novels and, 301–302
 historical fiction and, 302–303
 informational books and, 303–306
 literary devices of young adult novelists, 297 new realism and, 300
 poetry and, 292–293
 reluctant adolescent readers, 289–290 school underachievement, failure, dropouts and, 286
 science literature and, 329–331 search for identity and, 288–289 sexual behavior and, 286 sexuality concerns and, 287 substance abuse and, 285–286
 traditional literature and, 290 trends in young adult books, 295–300 young adult literature awards, 299
 young adult relationships and, 284–285
Highlights for Children, 34
 Highlights in multicultural literature, 127–128
 Hispanic literature, 38
- Historical fiction
 across the curriculum, 63
 American experience and, 269 curriculum connections and, 236
 definition of, 62–63
 early elementary school years and, 208–210
 exploring history and, 63
 as genre, 62–63
 Great Depression and, 270 holocaust and, 271
 interaction with, 209, 271
 intermediate school years and, 235–237
 medieval times and, 268
 middle school years and, 268–272
 post-war America and, 272
 in a series, 237 war and, 270
 young adults and, 302–303
 Historical figures, biographies on, 240
 History of children's literature color printing process and, 27–28 dawn of childhood, 23–25 dealing with reality, 37–38 early tradition and, 20 eighteenth century, 23–25
 epic tales of Greek and Roman days, 22–23 family values, 35–36
 golden age, 34–37
 humor, 35–36
 impact of illustrators and, 35 important dates in, 23
 informational books, 38
 literature in the new world, 25–30 nineteenth century, 25–31
 now and future, 37–39 picture books for older readers, 39 popularity of series, 36–37 recognizing diversity, 37–38 recognizing gender differences, 29–30 search for quality, 38–39 twentieth century, 31–37
 universality and, 31–33
 war as topic, 36
 Holocaust, 271
Horn Book, The, 35, 82, 86, 89
 Human genome project, literature about, 328–331
 Human need theory, 14
 Humor, 35–36, 221–223
 Humorous tales, 51
 Humorous verse, 59
- I
 Identity, young adult search for, 288–289
 Identity crisis, 289
 Illustrating for children, 111–115 Illustrations development and, 112–115
 perception and, 113–115
 Illustrator/author integration, 115–117
 Illustrators, impact of, 35
 Inclusion, 123

- Independent publishers, role in multicultural books, 125
- Individuals with Disabilities Act (IDEA), 122–123
- Infants. See Early years
- Information literacy, 352–353
- Informational books
- about emotions, 328
 - about endangered species, 319–320
 - about human genome project, 330
 - about language of space, 325
 - about memory, 327–328
 - about pollution, 320
 - about problem solving, 328
 - about recycling, 320–321
 - about the planets, 324–325
 - about women in space, 324
 - early elementary school years and, 210–212
 - as genre, 38, 64–65
 - for infants, 160
 - interactions with, 212, 244, 276
 - intermediate school years and, 242–246
 - literary elements in, 81
 - middle school years and, 274–278
 - preschool years and, 184–185
 - young adults and, 303–307
- Inhibited children, 194
- Initiative, early elementary school years and, 196
- Interactive books, 48
- Intermediate grades, science literature and, 322–326
- Intermediate school years (ages 8–10)
- animal fantasy and, 228
 - biography and autobiography and, 237–242
 - biopsychological characteristics and, 223
 - bodily-kinesthetic intelligence and, 244
 - changing sense of self and, 223
 - children's characteristics and, 218–223
 - cognitive changes and, 220–223
 - contemporary realistic fiction and, 231–235
 - family adjustments and, 219–220
 - family-oriented fiction and, 231
 - fantasy and, 227–228
 - folklore and, 225–226
 - historical fiction and, 235–237
 - humor and, 221–223
 - informational books and, 242–246
 - interpersonal intelligence and, 245
 - intrapersonal intelligence and, 245
 - linguistic intelligence and, 243
 - logical/mathematical intelligence and, 244
 - modern fantasy and, 227
 - musical intelligence and, 243
 - mysteries and, 234–235
 - myths and legends and, 225
 - naturalistic intelligence and, 245–246
 - obesity and, 220
 - picture books and, 223–224
 - poetry and, 228–231
 - poverty and, 218–219
 - school-oriented fiction and, 231–233
 - spatial-visual intelligence and, 244
 - sports-related fiction and, 233–234
 - traditional literature and, 224–226
- International censorship, 340
- Internet
- challenges and, 346
 - Children's Internet Protection Act, 345–347
 - Deleting Online Predators Act, 347
 - evaluating worth of Internet resources, 347–348
 - plagiarism and, 350–351
 - positive aspects of, 347
 - search engines and, 349
 - searching strategies and, 349–350
 - subject directories and, 348–349
 - using for research, 347–351
 - Web papers and, 350
 - works cited/bibliographies and, 351
- Interpersonal intelligence, informational books and, 245, 277, 305–306
- Interracial Books for Children*, 124
- Intrapersonal intelligence-related books, 245, 278
- Intuitive thought stage, 192
- J
- Jackson, Linda, 347
- John Newbery Medal, 35, 86–87, 377–383
- Jump rope songs, 59
- Junior Book of the Month Club, The*, 35
- Junior Literary Guild*, 35
- K
- Kagan, Jerome, 194
- Kamishibai, 21
- Knowledge and creativity, 314–315
- Kohlberg, Lawrence, 14
- L
- Landmark series, 63
- Language accomplishment, early elementary school years and, 199
- Language arts curriculum, picture book in, 256
- Language development
- being a good observer and, 100
 - being an interested listener and, 100–101
 - child's environment and, 99
 - emotions and, 100
 - path of, 98–101
 - stimulation type and child's age, 100
- Language familiarity, 102
- Language networks, preschool years and, 172–174
- Language of space, books about, 325
- Lap time story hour, 162
- Latino children and literature, 131–133
- Latino children's books, 126
- Learning disabilities, 123
- Lee Bennett Hopkins Poetry Award, 398–399
- Legends
- as genre, 54
 - intermediate school years and, 225
 - middle school years and, 257–258
- L'Engle, Madeline, 93
- Leveling, school library organization and, 83
- Librarian, informational literacy and, 353
- Library Bill of Rights, 338
- Linguistic intelligence, informational books and, 243, 274–275, 303–304
- Listening, language development and, 100–101
- Literacy
- collaboration and, 351
 - different forms of, 352–354
 - future of, 354
- Literacy centers, organization of, 354
- Literary awards, 86–89
- Americas Award, 409
 - Boston Globe-Horn Book Awards, 390–398
 - Coretta Scott King Awards, 88, 403–409
 - criticisms of, 89
 - Hans Christian Andersen Award, 412
 - John Newberry Medal, 86–87, 377–383
 - Lee Bennett Hopkins Poetry Award, 398–399
 - Margaret A. Edwards Award, 299
 - Michael L. Printz Award, 299, 402–403
 - Mildred L. Batchelder Award, 410–412
 - Orbis Pictus Award, 399–401
 - Pura Belpré Award, 88–89
 - Randolph Caldecott Medal, 87–88, 383–390
 - Robert F. Sibert Award, 401–402
 - young adult books, 299
- Literary devices, of young adult novelists, 297
- Literary elements, 72–81
- characters, 75–76
 - conflict, 78
 - in fantasy books, 80
 - in informational books, 81
 - interaction of, 81
 - Kate DiCamillo example, 73–74
 - in picture books, 79–80
 - plots, 77–78
 - point of view, 76–77
 - Ruth White example, 72–73
 - setting, 74–75
 - style, 78–79
 - theme, 79
 - in traditional literature, 80–81
- Literary lunch bunch, 91
- Literary teas, 91
- Literature as Exploration*, 5
- Literature selection, 81–86

- book organization and, 82–84
 - book reviews and, 81–82
 - classroom library and, 84
 - selector's qualifications and, 82
 - steps in, 82
 - Wonderful Wizard of Oz* controversy, 84–86
 - Locke, John, 24
 - Logical-mathematical intelligence, information books and, 244, 276, 304–305
 - Love and belongingness needs, 313
 - Lullabies, 59
 - Lyric poetry, 58
- M
- Mainstreaming, 123
 - Making Meaning in the Response-Based Classroom*, 93
 - Manga, 301
 - Margaret A. Edwards Award, 299
 - Maslow, Abraham, 14, 312–314
 - McCabe, Ron, 346–347
 - McGhee, Paul, 221
 - Meaning, search for, 106–109
 - Medieval times, 268
 - Meet the authors, 91–92
 - Meltzer, Milton, 87
 - Memoirs, 63–64, 303
 - Memory
 - books about, 327–328
 - infants and, 148
 - Mental retardation, 123
 - Michael L. Printz Award, 299, 402–403
 - Middle school years (ages 11–14)
 - adventure and survival and, 266
 - animal fantasy and, 260
 - biography and autobiography and, 272–274
 - biopsychological characteristics and, 255
 - bodily-kinesthetic intelligence and, 276–277
 - boys' reading and, 252–253
 - bullying and, 254–255
 - children's characteristics and, 252–255
 - contemporary problems and, 255
 - contemporary realistic fiction and, 264–267
 - controversial subjects and, 264–265
 - drama and, 262–263
 - elderly and, 253–254
 - family ties and, 253
 - fantasy and, 259–261
 - gender and, 252–253
 - historical fiction and, 268–272
 - informational books and, 272–278
 - interpersonal intelligence and, 277
 - intrapersonal intelligence and, 278
 - linguistic intelligence and, 274–275
 - literary fairy tales and, 258
 - logical-mathematical intelligence and, 276
 - musical intelligence and, 275
 - mystery and, 266–267
 - myths and legends and, 257–258
 - naturalistic intelligence and, 278
 - poetry and, 261–264
 - school and family and, 265
 - science fiction and, 260–261
 - science literature and, 326–329
 - Shakespeare and, 263–264
 - spatial intelligence and, 276
 - sports and, 266
 - themes across the curriculum, 256
 - traditional literature and, 257–259
 - Migrant workers, 267
 - Mildred L. Batchelder Award, 410–412
 - Mind of the Child, The*, 25
 - Minority authors, search for, 124
 - Minority books, widening scope of, 125
 - Modeling, 5, 14, 209–210
 - Modern fantasy books, 55–57
 - animal fantasy, 56
 - authors of, 56
 - definition of, 55
 - imagination and, 56
 - reluctant reader and, 57
 - science fiction and time travel, 57
 - subgenres of, 57
 - Moral development, (Kohlberg) 14
 - Mother-Daughter Book Club, The*, 91
 - Mother Goose rhymes, 59, 158
 - Movies, turning book classics into, 32
 - Multicultural awards. See Literary awards
 - Multiculturalism, 123–124
 - African American children and literature, 133–136
 - Asian American children and literature, 136–138
 - changing literary scene and, 126
 - highlights in literature development and, 127–128
 - independent publishers and, 125
 - Latino children and literature, 131–133
 - Native American children and literature, 138–141
 - realistic fiction and, 62
 - role of independent publishers and, 125
 - search for minority authors and, 124
 - steady advance to, 126–127
 - understanding culture and, 131
 - Vygotsky's contributions and, 128–130
 - widening scope of minority books, 125
 - zone of proximal development and, 130
 - Multiple intelligences theory, 14, 40, 275
 - Musical intelligence, informational books and, 243, 275, 304
 - Mysteries
 - intermediate school years and, 234–235
 - middle school years and, 266–267
 - Myths
 - as genre, 53–54
 - intermediate school years and, 225
 - middle school years and, 257–258
- N
- Narrative poetry, 58, 59
 - National awards. See Literary awards
 - National Defense Education Act, 37
 - National Geographic Kids*, 34
 - Native American children and literature, 138–141
 - Native American children's literature, inroads and, 127
 - Native American folktales, 51
 - Naturalistic intelligence, informational books and, 245–246, 278, 306
 - Neumeyer, Peter, 88
 - New realism, in young adult novels, 300
 - New York Times Upfront*, 34
 - Newbery, John, 25, 86
 - Newbery Medal. See John Newberry Medal
 - Nineteenth century literature, 25–31
 - Non-English speaking children, 174
 - North Central Regional Educational Laboratory (NCREL), 352
 - Notable Children's Books, 82
 - Nursery rhymes, for infants, 158
- O
- Obesity, 220
 - Object permanence, infants and, 149
 - Observation, language development and, 100
 - Observational learning, 5
 - Odean, Kathleen, 91
 - Offensive language, censorship and, 343
 - Older readers, picture books for, 49
 - Oral tradition, storytelling and, 20–21
 - Orbis Pictus Award, 399–401
 - Organization, book, 82–84
 - Outstanding International Booklist, 33
- P
- Parables, 55
 - Parallel cultures, books about, 38
 - Paraphrasing, plagiarism and, 350
 - Parents, censorship and, 341–344
 - Path of language development, 98–101
 - Pattern vision, infants and, 152
 - Penny dreadfuls, 29–30
 - Perception, children and, 107–108
 - Perceptual principles, using, 107–108
 - Periodicals
 - nineteenth century, 28
 - twentieth century, 34
 - Perpetual development, of infants, 148–149
 - Personality, in picture books, 171–172
 - Physiological needs, 313
 - Piaget, Jean, 12–13, 56, 168–169, 192–193, 220
 - Pickpockets, book circulation and, 84
 - Pictorial stage of artistic development, 110
 - Picture books, 47–50
 - across the curriculum, 224
 - alphabet books, 49, 154, 175
 - board books, 48, 149
 - classic, 169–172

(continued)

- concept books, 49, 155, 177
 - counting books, 49, 155, 176
 - definition of, 47
 - early elementary school years and, 202
 - format of, 48–49
 - graphic novels, 50
 - for infants, 154–157
 - interactive books, 48
 - intermediate school years and, 223–224
 - language arts curriculum and, 256
 - literary elements in, 79–80
 - for older readers, 39, 49
 - personality in, 171–172
 - picture storybooks, 49, 155, 178
 - pop-up books, 48
 - postmodernism and, 47–48
 - precursors of, 28
 - preschool years and, 169–172, 175–179
 - reissues, 170
 - subgenres of, 50
 - toy books, 48
 - wordless books, 48–49
 - Pinkney, Andrea Davis, 89
 - Pinnell, Gay Su, 83
 - Placement stage of artistic development, 110
 - Plagiarism, Internet and, 350–351
 - Planets, books about, 325
 - Plato, 22
 - Play, cognitive development and, 161
 - Play rhymes, 159
 - Plays, converting books to. See Books to plays
 - Plots, 77–78
 - conflict and, 78
 - episodic plots, 78
 - progressive plots, 77
 - Poetry, 57–60
 - anthologies, 229
 - concrete poetry, 58
 - early elementary school years and, 205–206
 - environment and, 322
 - forms of, 58
 - free verse poems, 58
 - haiku, 58
 - humorous verse, 59
 - individual poets, 230
 - for infants, 159–160
 - interaction with, 206, 262
 - intermediate school years and, 228–239
 - jump rope songs, 59
 - language of, 59–60
 - link to science, 315
 - lullabies and ballads, 59
 - lyric poetry, 58
 - middle school years and, 261–264
 - mother good rhymes, 59
 - narrative poetry, 58–59
 - preschool years and, 183
 - for reading aloud, 229
 - science and, 331
 - sonnets, 58
 - through the years, 33
 - young adult readers and, 292–293
 - Point of view, 76–77
 - Pollution, books about, 320
 - Pop-up books, 48
 - Post-war America, 272
 - Postmodernism, picture books and, 47–48
 - Pourquoi tales, 51, 326
 - Poverty, children of, 218–219
 - Predicting where story will go, 129
 - Preoperational period, information retention and, 168–169
 - Preschool years (ages 2-4)
 - alphabet books and, 175–176
 - animal fantasy and, 181–182
 - becoming acquainted and, 185
 - biopsychosocial characteristics and, 172
 - brain development and, 168
 - building language network and, 172–174
 - children's characteristics and, 168–172
 - classic picture books and, 169–172
 - concept books and, 177–178
 - counting books and, 176–177
 - dialogic reading and, 173
 - fairy tales and, 179
 - fantasy and, 180–181
 - folk tales and, 179–180
 - informational books and, 184–185
 - motivating reluctant readers and, 174–175
 - non-English speaking children and, 174
 - picture books and, 175–179
 - picture story books and, 178–179
 - poetry and drama and, 183
 - preoperational period and, 168–169
 - traditional literature and, 179–180
 - word spurt and, 172–174
 - Presidents, biographies and autobiographies about, 273
 - Preyer, William, 25
 - Primary grades, scientific literature and, 317–322
 - Principal's support, information literacy and, 353
 - Printing press, invention of, 23
 - Privacy, protecting, 338–339
 - Problem solving
 - books about, 328
 - value of, 322–324
 - Progressive plots, 77
 - Proximal development, 130
 - Psychological stages (Erikson), 10–12
 - autonomy versus shame and doubt, 10
 - basic trust versus mistrust, 10
 - identity versus identity confusion, 11
 - industry versus inferiority, 11
 - initiative versus guilt, 10
 - Psychosocial theory of development, 10–12
 - Public library, as literacy center, 354
 - Pura Belpré Award, 88–89, 126
- Q
- Quality, search for, 38–39
 - Questioning, 129
 - Quotations, plagiarism and, 350
- R
- Randolph Caldecott Medal, 87–88, 383–390
 - Reader, the Text, and the Poem, The*, 6, 90
 - Readers theater, 92
 - Reading aloud, 90, 198
 - Reading complexity, infants and, 150–153
 - Realistic fiction, contemporary. See Reality, dealing with, 37–38
 - Recordings of books, 174
 - Recycling, books about, 320–321
 - Rehnquist, William H., 346
 - Reluctant readers
 - adolescent readers and, 289–290
 - fantasy books and, 57
 - interactions and, 290
 - motivation of, 174–175
 - science fiction for, 326
 - Research, using Internet for, 347–351
 - Researching stories, 102
 - Response theory, 6–9
 - Responses to reading, enriching. See Enrichment strategies
 - Riverside Magazine for Young People, The*, 28
 - Robert F. Sibert Award, 401–402
 - Roman tales, 22–23
 - Rosenblatt, Louise, 5–8, 90
 - Rousseau, Jean Jacques, 24
 - Ruskin, John, 110
- S
- Safety needs, 313
 - Scaffolding, 129 (Vygotsky), 14
 - School failure, young adults and, 286
 - School library, as literacy center, 354
 - School Library Journal*, 81
 - School phobia, 193
 - School reads, 92–93
 - School-related stories, 231–233, 265
 - School underachievement, young adults and, 286
 - Science fiction
 - as genre, 57
 - high school years and, 330
 - intermediate grades and, 325–326
 - middle school years and, 260–261, 329
 - Science literacy center (K-3), 319
 - Science literature
 - biographies and, 330–331
 - books about emotions, 328
 - books about endangered species, 319
 - books about human genome project, 330
 - books about language of space, 325
 - books about memory, 327–328
 - books about planets, 324–325
 - books about pollution, 320

- books about problem solving, 328
 - books about recycling, 320–321
 - books about women in space, 324
 - contemporary realistic fiction and, 328–329, 331
 - creativity and, 314–317
 - high school and, 329–331
 - intermediate grades and, 322–326
 - knowledge and creativity, 314–316
 - Maslow's hierarchy of needs and, 312–314
 - middle school and, 326–329
 - motivating children to read and, 312–314
 - poetry and, 315, 331–332
 - Pourquoi tales, 326
 - primary grades and, 317–322
 - science fiction, 325–326, 329, 330
 - science literacy center (K-3), 319
 - visualization and creativity, 316–317
 - well-known writers, 318–319
 - Search engines, Internet, 349
 - Search for identity, young adults and, 288–289
 - Search for meaning, 106–109
 - Searching strategies, Internet, 349–350
 - Selection, literature. See Literature selection
 - Self-actualization needs, 314
 - Self-efficacy, 209–210
 - Sense of self, intermediate school years and, 223
 - Sensory and physical disorders, 123
 - Sensory capacities, infants and, 150
 - Series books
 - easy readers in, 200
 - as genre, 61
 - historical fiction in, 237
 - popularity of, 36–37
 - sports biographies in, 241
 - Settings, as literary element, 74–75
 - Sexuality
 - censorship and, 342–343
 - young adults and, 286, 287
 - Shakespeare, 263–264
 - Shape stage of artistic development, 110
 - Short story collections, 62
 - Similar objects, natural groups and, 108
 - Singing, 163
 - Social cognitive learning theory (Bandura), 14
 - Social issues, early elementary school years and, 193–197
 - Some Thoughts Concerning Education*, 24
 - Sonnets, 58
 - Space, interacting with books about, 327
 - Spatial intelligence, informational books and, 244, 276, 305
 - Sports figures, biographies and autobiographies about, 241, 273–274
 - Sports-related stories, 233–234, 266
 - St. Nicholas Magazine*, 28
 - Stimulation, language development and, 100
 - Storytelling, as oral tradition, 20–21
 - Storytelling festivals, 21
 - Stranger anxiety, 193
 - Stratemeyer, Edward, 36
 - Style, 78–79
 - Subject directories, Internet, 348–349
 - Substance abuse, 285–286
 - Summarizing substance of reading, 129
 - Supreme Court, 345–346
 - Sustained silent reading, 9
 - Symbolic function substage, 12–13, 56, 168–169, 192–193
- T
- Tall tales, 52
 - Technology issues. See Internet
 - Teen Voices*, 34
 - Television book commercials, 92
 - TESOL (Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages), 174
 - Theme, as literary element, 79
 - Themes across the curriculum, 256
 - Thinking skills, genres and, 47
 - Third person narration, 76
 - Thomas, Alexander, 9
 - Time pressures, information literacy and, 353
 - Time travel, 57
 - Touch and feel, infants and, 149–150
 - Toy books, 48
 - Traditional literature
 - definition of, 50
 - early elementary school years and, 202–204
 - fables, 54
 - folktales, 50–53, 179
 - as genre, 50–55
 - for infants, 157–158
 - interaction with, 203, 226
 - intermediate school years and, 224–226
 - legends, 54
 - literary elements in, 80–81
 - middle school years and, 257–259
 - myths, 53–54
 - in nineteenth century, 30–31
 - parables, 55
 - preschool years and, 179–180
 - subgenres of, 55
 - young adult readers and, 290
 - Transactional theory of reader response, 6–9, 90
 - Transformational tales, 51
 - Transitional books, 200–201
 - Translations, 31–33
 - Twentieth-century literature, 31–37
- U
- Uninhibited children, 194
 - Union Jack, The*, 28
 - Universality of literature, 31–33
 - U.S. Board of Books for Young People, 33
- V
- Verbal stimulation, preschool years and, 172–174
 - Violence
 - censorship and, 343–344
 - young adults and, 286
 - Vision, infants and, 151–152
 - Visual literacy, 105
 - Visualization and creativity, 316–317
 - Vygotsky, Lev, 14, 55, 128–130
- W
- Walden Media, 32
 - Walking on Water: Reflections on Faith and Art*, 93
 - Walt Disney Productions, 32
 - War, 36, 270
 - Web. See Internet
 - Web papers, 350
 - Women in space, books about, 324
 - Word spurt, 172–174
 - Wordless books, 48–49, 154, 174
 - Works cited, Internet use and, 351
 - Writers, biographies and autobiographies about, 272–273
 - Writing for children, 101–106
 - authors and illustrators and, 103–105
 - award winning authors and, 101–103
- Y
- Young adult literature awards, 299
 - Young adult relationships, 284–285
 - Young Money*, 34
 - Youth's Companion*, 28
- Z
- Zelinsky, Paul O., 105
 - Zone of proximal development, 130

