

Subject Index

- “Acceptance/Tolerance” work, 8
- Accessing Evidence-Based Psychological Therapies (AccEPT), 6
- Active listening, 59–60
- Behavioral action interventions, 71–75
- communication, new forms, 73–74
  - culturegram, 74–75
  - enactments, 71–73
  - homework tasks, 73–74
- Behavioral couple treatment, depression, 5
- Behavioral-Systemic Couples Therapy, 8
- Behavioral therapy (BT), 16
- Blame reduction, 89–90
- Catholicism, 40
- “Causality” model, 89
- Children and Adolescent Mental Health Services (CAMHS), 10
- Circularities, 24–31, 49–57
- finding positives, 56–57
  - Fiona and Raja, 29–31
  - Helen and Rebecca, 25–29
  - IEM circularity, 49–55
  - interrupting circularities, 55–56
- Circular questions, 86–88
- types of, 86–87
- Clear and direct simple statements, 60–61
- Clinical Education Development And Research (CEDAR), 6
- Cognitive behavioral therapy (CBT), 4, 7, 13, 16, 20, 21, 24–31, 50
- Communication styles, 38–39
- Communication training, 59–69
- active listening, 59–60
  - clear and direct simple statements, 60–61
  - encouraging positives, 61–62
  - “I” statements, 62–63
  - negotiation, 67–68
  - problem-solving, 65–67
  - safe communication, context, 63–64
  - structuring, 64–65
- Conflicts, 36
- Coordinated Management of Meaning (CMM) model, 3, 21, 24
- Couplehood, 39–40
- Couple’s maintenance cycle, 9, 25
- Cultural differences, 107
- Cultural genogram, 12–13, 95, 106
- Culturally-based resonances, 103
- Culturegram, 13, 74–75, 106
- Depression, 40
- Discrimination, 35

- Emotionally Focused Couples Therapy, 7
- Empathic bridging maneuvers, 79–90
 blame reduction, 89–90
 circular questioning, 86–88 eliciting vulnerabilities, 81–82
 empathic questioning, 79–80
 interventions, 80–81 making links between vulnerabilities, 82–83 meaning, translating, 85–86 normalizing, 84–85
 safe space, creating, 83
 validation, 80–81
- Empathic questioning, 79–80
- Ethnic cultures, 38
- Euro-American culture, 38
- Evidence-based practice, 16
- Exeter Model (EM), 4, 36 evolution of, 5
 original EM, 5–10
- Expert Reference Groups (ERGs), 17, 18, 19, 43
- Family genograms, 93
- Family life cycle, 40–41
- Family script, 92
- Genograms, 12–13, 93–94
- Gold-standard, 6, 7, 8, 15, 16, 18
- Homework tasks, 73–74
- Hypersensitive, racism, 35
- IEM circularities, 49–55
 charting, 50–55
- Integrated Access to Psychological Therapy (IAPT), 10
- Integrative Behavioral Couples Therapy, 8
- Intercultural couples clinical practice, 33–41 depression, meaning and expression, 40
 family life cycle, 40–41
 language and communication styles, 38–39 love, intimacy, and couplehood, constructions, 39–40 meaning of home, 36–37
 overview, 34–36
 power and gender, 37–38 significant themes and processes, 36–41 work, therapist's experience, 103–107
- Intercultural Exeter Model (IEM). see also individual entries
 circularity, 24–31
 interventions of, 11–12 public debut of, 3
 therapists using, 13
 wider context of, 15–21
- Intercultural marriage satisfaction, 35
- Interracial sexual relationships, 35
- Intersectionality, 34
- Interventions, 43–45, 79, 80–81. see also individual entries
 Fiona and Raja, 43–45
 Helen and Rebecca, 45
- Intimacy, 39–40
 “I” statements, 62–63
- Language, 38–39
- Life-space explorations, 91–102
 attachment narratives, 98
 cultural genogram, 95
 genograms, 93–94
 internalized other, interviewing, 95–98 positives, reconceptualizing, 100–101
 scripts, 91–92
 shared formulations, central relationship themes, 98–100 shared positives, creating, 101–102
- Love, 39–40
- Marital satisfaction, 34, 35
- National Health Service (NHS), 6, 7, 15, 18
- National Institute for Clinical Excellence (NICE), 4, 7, 8, 9, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19

- Practice-based evidence, 16
- Problem-solving, 65–67
  - emotional regulation in, 68–69
- Psychological distress, 4
- Psychotherapy, 16

- Racism, 35, 106
- Randomly controlled research trials (RCTs), 6, 7, 16
- Righteousness of privilege, 37

- Scripts, 91–92
- Self-reflexivity, 104, 107
- Sense of helplessness, 20
- Special Marriage Act, 35
- Stereotyping, 106

- Systemic behavioral, 8, 9
- Systemic empathic, 8, 9
- Systemic intervention, 24–31
- Systemic theory, 40

- Thoughts–feelings–behavior feedback loop maintenance cycle, 9

- Vulnerabilities
  - eliciting, 81–82
  - making links between, 82–83

- White Fragility*, 106
- Why I'm No Longer Talking to White People about "Race,"* 106

