

Subject Index

A

Abrahamic faiths, 16–18
accidental values, 33
accounting standards, 99
achievement, 30–31, 113
 and CSR, 161
 as element of PERMA model, 30–31, 113
act utilitarians, 21
Adab, 18
addiction
 physiological, 174
 psychological, 174
 technology, 174–175
after-sales service, 97
ambiguous language or cloaked requests, 131
anomie
 and atomization, 173–174
 defined, 173
anonymous reporting, 61–63
anti-corruption and bribery policy, 135
Anti-Harassment Policy, of Major League
 Baseball, 110
Anti-Unfair Competition Law of the PRC, 134
appeal to higher loyalties, 75
Arab Spring uprisings, 169
Aristotelean Virtue, 167
artifacts, 81
aspirational values, 32
authenticity, and ethical leaders, 83 authority
 defined, 105
 and zone of difference, 105
autonomy, 185

B

bargaining costs, 181 Base of the economic pyramid, 160
basic beliefs, 32
B corporations, 50–51
Black's Law Dictionary, 128, 141
bonus compensation, 119
Brazil
 and Anti-Bribery Convention, 133 Clean Company Act, 134
bribery, 128–129
 legal frameworks for, 132–134
 more common in industries, 131
 PERMA and, 136
 7 deadly signs of, 130–131
 social and business conditions for, 130–131
 tools for individuals, 135–136
bribery laws
 China, 134
 in other countries, 133–134
 United Kingdom, 133–134
 United Nations, 133
bribes
 and gift giving, 129–131
 and social norms, 129–131
Buddhism, 19
Built to Last (Collins and Porras), 32
bullying

 defined, 106
 drivers of, 106
 and power, 105–106
 prevalence of office, 107 reporting systems for, 110
business conditions ripe for bribery, 130–131
 8-Question Framework for, 36–38
 ethical challenges in, 7–8 and ethical dilemmas, 8
 and ethical temptations, 7–8
 and ethics, 36–38
 U.S. Government Regulatory Agencies impacting, 58
 and values, 32–33
business definition, 33
business ethics
 approaches to, 8
 challenges, 7–8
 defined, 3
 ethical choice, 4–7
 importance of studying, 3
 overview, 2
 perspectives on, 8–9
business performance and CSR, 155–157
business stakeholder, 45
business values, 32

C

CAGE Model
 administrative differences, 93–94
 cultural influences, 92–93
 described, 92
 economic factors, 95–96
 geographic influences, 94–95
 and global ethics, 92–96
capacity building, 158, 160
categorical imperative, 20
caveat emptor, 96
chief compliance officer (CCO), 68
chief ethics and compliance officer (CECO), 68–69
chief legal officer (CLO), 68
China
 Anti-Unfair Competition Law of the PRC, 134
 Criminal Law of the PRC, 134
 Guanxi in, 130
 Mid-Autumn Festival in, 130
choice
 defined, 5
 under duress, 6
 and moral agency, 5–6
Christianity, 17, 18
Clean Company Act, 134
code of ethics, 3, 83
codes of conduct, 65–68, 121. See also
 compliance
commission, 119
communication
 and FSGO framework for compliance, 60
 and mission statements, 34
 values-based, 183
compliance. See also codes of conduct code, 67
 conduct training for effective, 63–64
 Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 57–59
 defined, 56
 and enforcement, 64–65
 vs. ethics, 56
 evolution of, 56–59
 FSGO framework for, 60–61
 and monitoring, 64
 overview, 56
 programs, 61–65
 standard, 64
compliance department
 formal structure, 68–69
 informal structure, 69–70
 structure, 68–70
confidential information, 119
confidentiality, 144
conflicts of interest
 arise of, 118–120
 conflicts of boards of directors and executive officers, 120
 defined, 117
 and divided loyalty, 119–120
 as ethical dilemmas, 117–118 framework for thinking about, 118
 mitigating, 120–123
 and PERMA, 124
 and personal benefit of employee, 119
 policy, 120
 resolution as individuals, 123–124 Confucian ethics, 22–23
consequences, 20
construction, 131
Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 57–59
core values, 32
corporate culture
 defined, 74
 and ethics, 74–76
 overview, 74
Corporate Opportunity Doctrine, 120 corporate social responsibility (CSR), 153–157 and activities of a firm, 153–154 and business performance, 155–157
 defined, 153
 initiates, 157
 and PERMA life, 160–161
 sustainability reporting frameworks, 156 corrupt economic actions and actors, 128 corruption, 128–129
 PERMA and, 136
 and social entrepreneurs, 160
 tools for individuals, 135–136
cost of lack of integrity, 140–141 COVID-19 pandemic, 21, 108, 144, 171
delinquency behavior of loans in forbearance during, 142
employee engagement/loyalty declines due to, 145
mortgage forbearance during, 142

- Criminal Law of the PRC, 134
 CSR reporting, 154–155
 cultural relativism, 91
 culture
 corporate (See corporate culture)
 defined, 74
 for enhancing ethics, 76–80
 of firm, 98
 and global ethics, 92–93
 role in ethics, 74–76
 unethical, 76
 customers
 and financial performance, 155
 instrumental stakeholder model, 46
 cynicism, 76
- D
 dangerous stakeholders, 49
 decision making
 duress in, 6
 8-Question Framework for, 36–38
 ethical, 4–5
 and ethics, 36–38
 demanding stakeholders, 49
 denial of injury, 75
 denial of responsibility, 75
 deontology, 20
 dependent stakeholders, 49
Desperate Housewives, 127
dharmā, 19
 digital divide
 and COVID-19 pandemic, 171
 and inequality, 170–171
 and knowledge inequality, 171
 digitization, 167
 dilemmas
 ethical, 8
 and fiduciary/employee duties, 8 direct stakeholders, 45 disclosure process, 122
 discretionary stakeholders, 48
 Dodd–Frank Act, 59
 dominant stakeholders, 48–49
 dormant stakeholders, 48 “drip pricing,” 97
 duress
 and choice, 6
 in decision making, 6
 duty of care, 7
 duty of loyalty, 7
- E
Earth Day, 57
 economic benefits and technology, 167 economic responsibility, 153 economic value of trust, 182–183
 education
 for avoidance of conflict of interest, 121
 democratization of, 169 improved access to, 169 8-Question Framework, 36–38 emotional well-being vs. eudemonia, 29 emotions
 and forgiveness, 147
 positive, 30–31, 112, 161, 172
 employees
 anonymous reporting for, 61–63 conduct training for, 63–64 financial performance and, 155
 perceiving loyalty in today’s world, 146 personal benefit, and conflicts of interest, 119 relationship with vendors, 119 reporting ethical violations, 62
 employment outcomes by educational level, 171 enforcement
 and compliance, 64–65
 defined, 64
 engagement, 30, 112
 and CSR, 161
 ethical behavior
 Ethical Behavioral Continuum, 75
 helps reducing transaction costs, 181–182 improving efficiency, 183
 ethical benefits
 and innovation, 185–186
 and market economies, 185–186
 ethical choice
 choice, 5–6
 dimensions of, 4–7
 ethical decision making, moral aspect of, 4–5 fiduciary responsibilities, 6–7 moral agency, 5–6
 ethical culture
 building, 80–81
 7S model for creating, 78–80
 substantive actions, 81
 symbolic actions, 81
 ethical decision making, 4–5 ethical dilemmas, 8, 117–118
 ethical harms
 and inequalities, 186–187
 and market economies, 186–187
 ethical leaders, 83–84
 ethical leadership, 83–84
 in global setting, 99–100
 ethical responsibility, 154 ethical temptations, 7–8
 ethical values, 32
 thick, 89–90
 thin, 89–90
 ethics
 business (See business ethics)
 and business, 36–38
 community enterprise solutions, 158
 vs. compliance, 56
 conduct training for effective program, 63–64 Confucian, 22–23
 culture for enhancing, 76–80
 culture role in, 74–76
 and decision making, 36–38
 defined, 3
 and economic value of trust, 182–183
 and forgiveness, 146–147, 184
 and integrity, 143–146
 Intel corporation, 132–133
 justice and fairness, 184 and mercy, 146–147
 mortgage forbearance during COVID 19, 142
 normative, 15
 of personal development, 184–185
 positive, 15
 professions, most honest and dishonest, 143
 and reconciliation, 184
 respect and subjectivity, 184
 and strong business communities, 183–184 virtue, 22
 ethics department
 formal structure, 68–69
 informal structure, 69–70
 structure, 68–70
ethos, 22
 Etsy, 167
 eudemonia, 22, 28
 defined, 29
 vs. emotional well-being, 29
 and PERMA, 29–31
 euphemistic language, 75–76
 evaluation and mission statements, 34–35 evil, 15
 extractive industries, 131
 extreme relativism, 91
- F
 fair outcomes, 21
 Federal Sentencing Guidelines for Organizations (FSGO), 59–61
 framework for compliance, 60–61
 rationale for, 59–60
 Federal Trade Commission, 57
 fiduciary boards of directors and executive officers, 120
 defined, 6
 responsibilities, 6–7
 fiduciary duty, 7
 firm
 CSR and activities of, 153–154
 social obligations, 153
 forbear, 142
 forbearance
 mercy as, 146–147
 mortgage, 142
 Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA), 57, 132–133
 forgive, 142
 forgiveness
 as emotional and cognitive act, 147
 and emotions, 147
 ethical challenges, 146–147
 is about the past, 147
 mercy as, 147
 proactive, 147
 and reconciliation, 147
 formal structure, of organizations, 68–69
 fraud, 128–129
Full House, 127
- G
 gift giving
 and bribes, 129–131
 legal frameworks for, 132–134
 and social norms, 129–131
 gifts, hospitality, and other perks, 135 global ethical norms and values challenges and value chain, 96–99 differences in, 89–92
 moral imperialism, 90–92
 moral relativism, 90–92
 thick and thin ethical values, 89–90
 understanding, 92–96
 The Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), 155
 graft, 128–129
 Great Recession of 2007–2009, 59
 greenwashing, 32
Guth v. Loft, Inc., 120
 Gutenberg printing press, 169

H

happiness
 defined, 28
 as index, 28–29
 measuring levels of, 29

harassment
 defined, 106
 sexual, 107–108

hard triangle, 77

hedonic adaptation, 29

hedonic treadmill, 29

hedonism, 15, 28–29
 defined, 28
 translation in economic terms, 29

hexis, 3

high-value activities and personal efficiency, 172

Hinduism, 18–19

honest, 142

honesty
 integrity as, 143–144
 and kindness, 144
 and multiple truths, 143
 and social rules, 143–144

hospitality, 135

hostile work environment, 108

human nature, 15
 and pain, 15
 and pleasure, 15

human resources, 98

Hurricane Katrina, 154
 Walmart donations following, 154

hybrid organization, 160

hypernorms, 90–91

hypocrisy, 32

I

impartiality, 21

income disparities
 having no moral basis, 187
 moral basis of, 187

incrementalism, 75

indirect stakeholders, 45

individuals and technology, 172–175

Industrial Revolution, 165–169, 173

inequalities
 and digital divide, 170–171
 and ethical harms, 186–187
 and market economies, 186–187

informal structure, of organizations, 69–70

information
 seeking from reliable sources, 170
 unreliable, 169–170

information technology (IT), 98–99 infrastructure, of firm, 98

innovation
 and ethical benefits, 185–186
 and market economies, 185–186
 social entrepreneurship and, 158–160

institutional change, 159

instrumental ends, 4, 5

instrumental stakeholder model, 44, 46

instrumental view of stakeholder management, 155 integrated approach, 8–9

integrity
 cost of lack of, 140–141
 ethical challenges of, 143–146
 as honesty, 143–144

 key definitions, 141–142
 as promise-keeping and loyalty, 144–146

intentions, 20

Inter-American Convention Against Corruption (IACAC), 133

International Accounting Standards Board (IASB), 99

“Internet of things,” 167

intrinsic ends, 4, 5

intrinsic stakeholder model, 44, 47

intrinsic value, 16

intrinsic view of stakeholder obligations, 155

investing and finance, 131

investors
 external, 99
 and financial performance, 155

Islam, 18

J

Jesus Christ, 18

Joint Enterprise Defense Infrastructure (JEDI), 116–117

Judaism, 16

justice, 21
 Rawlsian, 167

K

Kantian Rights, 167, 169

kindness, and honesty, 144

L

layoffs, 8

leadership
 accountability, 61
 ethical, 83–84, 99–100

legal frameworks for bribery and gift giving, 132–134

legal responsibility, 154

legitimacy, of stakeholders’ claims, 48

Leviathan (Hobbes), 15

life satisfaction, 30

logistics, 96

Los Angeles Times, 141

Low-Profit Limited Liability Company (L3C), 50

loyalty, 117, 145
 in belief, 146
 in concern, 145
 divided, 119–120
 duty of, 7
 employees perceiving loyalty in today’s world, 146
 in identification, 146
 integrity as, 144–146
 in ritual, 145

M

managing by values, 32–33

Man’s Search for Meaning (Frankl), 30

manufacturing, 96–97

market economies
 and ethical benefits, 185–186
 and ethical harms, 186–187
 ethics of personal development, 184–185
 and inequalities, 186–187
 and innovation, 185–186

meaning
 and CSR, 161
 described, 30, 112
 finding, 31
 and suffering, 30

mercy, 142
 ethical challenges, 146–147
 as forbearance, 146–147
 as forgiveness, 147
 key definitions, 141–142

#MeToo, 6

Middle Ages, 167

mission statements
 developing, 35–36
 drafting, 35
 elements of, 33–34
 implanting, 36
 overview, 33
 purpose of, 34–35
 revising, 36

monitoring
 and compliance, 64
 defined, 64

moral actions and outcome
 defined, 16
 and moral goods, 16
 philosophical perspectives of, 20–23 religious teachings of, 16–19

moral component
 defined, 4
 of ethical challenge, 4–5

moral courage, 7, 109, 117

moral creativity, 7–8

moral development, 23

moral free space, 90

moral goods
 intrinsic value, 16
 and moral actions, 16
 and scientific perspectives, 23–24

moral imagination, 118

moral imperialism, 90–92

moral reasoning, 23
 feminist response to, 23–24

moral relativism, 90–92

morals, 16

moral sense theorists, 21

moral temptations, 117

mortgage forbearance during COVID 19, 142

moska, 18

motivation
 and entrepreneurship, 187
 and executive management, 187
 and mission statements, 34

multiple truths, 143

N

nepotism, 119

noble passions, 21

normative ethics, 15

norms, 90

O

OECD’s Anti-Bribery Convention, 133

operations, 96–97

Operation Varsity Blues, 128

organizational culture, 63
 and 7S model, 76–77

Organization of American States, 133

organizations
 alternative, and stakeholder management, 49–51
 B corporations, 50–51
 Federal Sentencing Guidelines for Organizations (FSGO), 59–61
 formal structure, 68–69

informal structure, 69–70
 Low-Profit Limited Liability Company (L3C), 50
 philanthropic enterprises, 51
 and society, 167–171
 and technology, 167–171

P

pain
 avoidance of, 15
 and human nature, 15
 Pareto Optimality, 186
 Partnership for a Drug-Free America, 159
 PERMA Model, 30–31, 112–113, 141
 and bribery/corruption, 136
 and conflicts of interest, 124
 and corporate social responsibility, 160–161 permission-to-play values, 32–33 personal development, ethics of, 184–185 personal efficiency and high-value activities, 172
 philanthropic enterprises, 51
 philanthropic responsibility, 154 philanthropy, 154
 philosophical perspectives
 comparison of, 20
 Confucian ethics, 22–23
 deontology, 20
 justice, 21
 of moral actions and outcome, 20–23
 moral sense theorists, 21
 utilitarianism, 20–21
 virtue ethics, 22
 physiological addiction, 174 pleasure and human nature, 15 policing and enforcement costs, 181 policy/ies
 compliance, 64–66
 conflicts of interest, 120
 positive emotion, 30–31, 112, 161, 172 positive ethics, 15
 post-training disclosure, 121
 power
 abuse of, 104–105
 acquiring, 111–112
 bases of, 105–106
 and bullying, 105–106
 characteristics associated with, 111–112
 defined, 105
 preventing and controlling abuses of, 108–110
 of stakeholders, 48
 using wisely, 112–113
 power abuses
 formal mechanisms, 110–111
 informal mechanism, 109
 preventing and controlling of, 108–110
 principled trust, 183
 products and services, 158, 159
 promise, 142
 promise-keeping, integrity as, 144–146 psychological addiction, 174

Q

quid pro quo, 129
 Quid pro quo sexual harassment, 107–108

R

Rawlsian Justice, 167, 169
 reciprocity, 129
 tips, gifts, and bribes, 129–130

reconciliation, 147
 relationships, 30, 112, 182
 and CSR, 161
 fulfilling, 172–173
 technology, 172–173
 at work, 120
 relativism
 cultural, 91
 extreme, 91
 moral, 90–92
 religious freedom, 17
 religious teachings
 Buddhism, 19
 Christianity, 18
 “ethics of reciprocity,” 19
 Hinduism, 18–19
 Islam, 18
 Judaism, 16
 of moral actions, 16–19
 reporting systems
 anonymous, 61–63
 for bullying, 109
 for sexual harassments, 110
 research and development, 98–99 “reservation price,” 144 respect, 16
 rule utilitarians, 21

S

Sarbanes-Oxley Act (SOX), 58–59
 scientific perspectives of morally good, 23–24
 of morally right, 23–24
 search and information costs, 181
 second job, 119
 Securities Acts (1933 and 1934), 57
 semi-strong form trust, 183
 7 deadly signs of bribery, 130–131
 7S model
 for creating ethical culture, 78–80 and organizational culture, 76–77 sexual harassment, 6, 107–108
 hostile work environment, 108
 Quid pro quo, 107–108
 reporting systems for, 110
 shared values, 34, 77, 79 shareholder primacy model, 43–45
 shareholders
 vs. stakeholders, 43–47
 theory, 43
 Sherman Antitrust Act, 56, 57
 Singapore’s Prevention of Corruption Act, 134
 skills
 mastering, 172
 7S model, 78
 of social entrepreneurs, 159–160
 smartphone compulsion test, 175 social benefits and technology, 167–169
 social bricoleur, 159
 social cocoon, 76
 social conditions ripe for bribery, 130–131
 social constructionists, 159
 social engineers, 159
 social entrepreneurs, 159
 challenges for, 160
 skills of, 159–160
 social entrepreneurship

capacity building, 159
 and innovation, 157–160
 institutional change, 159
 products/services, 159
 types of, 159
 social media, 119, 169, 173–174
 social norms
 and bribes, 129–131
 and gift giving, 129–131
 social rules and honesty, 143–144 society and technology, 167–171
 soft square, 77
 Southern Utah Wilderness Alliance (SUWA), 49
 special purpose entity (SPE), 58
 staffing, 78
 stakeholder model, 43, 44, 45–47
 instrumental, 44, 46
 intrinsic, 44, 47
 stakeholders
 characteristics and importance, 48–49
 defined, 45
 direct, 45
 indirect, 45
 management and alternative organizational forms, 49–51
 vs. shareholders, 43–47
 theory, 43
 types of, 48–49
 start-up company, 120
 strategy, 78
 strong business communities, 183–184
 strong-form, or hard-core, trust, 183
 structure, 78
 substantive actions, 81
 suffering and meaning, 30
 superordinate goals, 33–34
 suppliers
 and CSR, 155
 and financial performance, 155
 symbolic actions, 81
 symbols, 81
 sympathy, 21
 systems, 78

T

technology
 addiction, 174–175
 anomie and atomization, 173–174
 economic benefits, 167
 fulfilling relationships, 172–173
 and individuals, 172–175
 inequality and the digital divide, 170–171
 and organizations, 167–171
 personal efficiency and high-value activities, 172
 social benefits, 167–169
 and society, 167–171
 unreliable information, 169–170
 Ten Commandments, 16, 18
 thick values, 89–90
 thin values, 89–90
 third domain, 3
 tips, gifts, and bribes, 129–130
 tone at the top, 82–83
 training
 for avoidance of conflict of interest, 121
 ethical for employees, 63–64

transaction costs, 181
 and ethical behavior, 181–182 transportation and storage, 131 trust
 defined, 182
 economic value of, 182–183
 types of, 182

U

UK Bribery Act of 2010 (UKBA), 133–134
 ultimate ends, 4
 UN Convention on Corruption, 128
 unethical actions, 15
 unethical culture, 76
 United Kingdom (UK)
 GDP per capita in, 168
 income growth over the centuries, 168
 UK Bribery Act of 2010 (UKBA), 133–134
 United Nations Convention Against Corruption (UNCAC), 133
 United States
 Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA), 132–133
 OECD's Anti-Bribery Convention, 133
 regulatory agencies of, 58
 United States Sentencing Commission, 60 unreliable information and technology, 169–170

UN Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 17, 90, 91
 unwelcome conduct, 108
 urgency, of stakeholders' claims, 48
 use of equipment, 119
 utilitarianism, 20–21
 utilitarians
 act, 21
 rule, 21
 utility, 20

V

value chain accounting and finance, 99
 after-sales service and warranty, 97 and ethical challenges, 96–99 firm infrastructure and culture, 98
 human resources, 98
 information technology, 98–99
 logistics, 96
 manufacturing/operations, 96–97
 marketing, 97
 research and development, 98–99
 values and business, 32–33
 categories of, 32

intrinsic, 16
 leading by, 32–33
 managing by, 32–33
 shared, 77, 79
Vedas, 18
 Vedic traditions, 18–19
 vendors, 119
 virtue ethics, 22, 169
 Volcker Rule, 59

W

Wall Street Journal, 140
 warranty, 97
 weak form trust, 182
The Wealth of Nations
 (Smith), 21
 well-being emotional, 29
 and healthy life, 30
 women empowerment, 5
 World War II, 30, 167

X

Xiào, 22

Z

zone of difference, 105

