

Subject Index

- abbreviations 122, 125–126
- Abstract 4, 114–115
- active voice 25
- “although” 29
- “among” 29
- APA Style 4–5
- attrition 49–50
- average (mean) 57

- bar chart 62
- “because” 29
- “between” 29

- capitalization 122, 123
- charthunk 61, 63
- citations, creating in Word 102
- common problems 22–24
  - apostrophe use 22, 23
  - contractions 23
  - pronoun use 22, 24
- communicating statistics 55–64
- contractions 16, 23
- credible arguments 5–6

- Design section 53–54
  - common elements 54
  - “disability” 30

- Discussion section 4, 89–96
  - acknowledging limitations 95–96
  - comparison of results 93–94
  - implication of results 94–95
  - integrating results 91–92
  - nonsignificant results 92–93
  - summarizing results 90–91

- effective communication 8–9
- effective wording 17
- ethics 10–14, 47–48
  - confidentiality 47–48
  - paraphrasing 11–13
  - writing 10–14

- “female” 30
- figures 78–84
  - bar graph 79, 80, 81
  - connection with text 82–84
  - formatting 78–83
  - frequency histogram 83, 84
  - line graph 79
  - scatter diagram 82
- footnotes 117–118
- formatting 115–122
  - abbreviations 122, 125–126
  - capitalization 122, 123
  - italics 122, 124–125

- order of manuscript pages 122
- punctuation 130–133
- quotations 122, 128–130

- “gender” 29
- grammar 16
- Greek letters 72

- “handicap” 30
- hanging indent 102
- headings 118–121
  - levels of headings 119–121
  - section headings 120–121
- histogram 62
- hypotheses 38–40, 66–67

- inclusive language 19–21
- Institutional Review Board (IRB) 53
- internet publication 8, 159–166
  - advantages of publishing software 164–165
  - capabilities 160–161
  - creating internet files 165–166
  - inserting images 163–164
  - linking to internet source 162
  - linking to material in document 162–163
  - using Word to create internet files 161–164
- Introduction section 4, 30–40
  - clarifying terms 37–38
  - common occurrences 35
  - fictional scenario 33–34
  - generating a hypothesis 38–40
  - how to begin 32–36
    - actual event 33
    - introducing a topic 32–35
    - presenting a statistic 34
    - previous research 33
    - reviewing the literature 36–37
- italics 122, 124–125

- Likert-type scale 22

- “male” 30
- “man” 30
- Materials and Apparatus section 50–52
- mean (average) 56, 57

- median 56
- Method section 4, 41–54
- mode 56

- nonrestrictive clauses 29
- notes 117–118
- null hypothesis statistical testing (NHST) 69–70

- oral presentations 7, 149–158
  - adapting APA Style 153
  - graphics 155–156
  - guidelines 151–152, 154, 156–158
  - oral versus written English 149–150, 153
  - preparation 153–155, 156
- order of manuscript pages 122,

- participants 42–47
  - ethnicity 43–44, 45
  - human participants 42–47
  - nonhuman subjects 48–49
- passive voice 25
- p*-hacking 69
- plagiarism 10–14
- poster presentations 7–8, 135–148
  - creating 143–148
  - multiple-sheet poster 139, 145–148
  - reducing amount of information 136–137
  - single-sheet poster 138, 143–145
  - visual style 137–140
  - visual versus verbal communication 135–136
- poster session 140–142
  - attire 140–141
  - covering poster 141–142
- Procedure section 52–53
- professional writing 3–4
- punctuation 130–133

- quotations 34, 122, 128–130

- reference citations in text 98–101
  - citing multiple sources 101
  - more than two authors 100
  - one or two authors 99–100
  - personal communication 100–101

- reference formatting in reference list 102–112
- references, books 105, 109–110
  - author is publisher 105
  - chapter 105
  - editor credited on cover 105
  - encyclopedia entry 105
  - entire book 105
- references, illustrated
  - examples 108–112
  - books 109–110
    - author is publisher 110
    - chapter 110
    - edited book 110
    - entire book 109
  - journal articles 108–109
    - group authorship 109
    - internet-only journal article 109
    - journal article 108
    - more than 20 authors 109
    - special section/issue of journal 109
  - newsletters 110–111
    - article with discontinuous pages 111
    - article with named author 110
- references, journals 103–105, 108–112
  - group authorship 104
  - internet-only journal article 104
  - more than 20 authors 104
  - special issue of journal 105
  - three or more authors 104
  - two authors 103
- references list, ordering 101–102, 103
- references, online sources 105–106, 111–113
  - blog post 106
  - multiple page internet site 111
  - news outlet 106
  - news story with group
    - author 112
  - news story with named authors 111
  - online book 106
  - online encyclopedia 106
  - podcast episode 111
  - website with no author 106
- references, presentations 107–108, 112
  - canceled conference 108
  - conference session 107
  - invited presentation 107
  - participant idea exchange 107
  - poster presentation 107
  - symposium 107
  - webinar 108
- References section 4, 97–112
- reference to personal communication 108
- restrictive clauses 29
- results, presentation 59–64
  - abbreviations 72
  - Greek letters 72
  - symbols 72, 73
- Results section 65–87
  - connecting text with tables and figures 82–84
  - figures 78–84
  - hypotheses 66–67
  - marginal significance 70–71
  - significant and nonsignificant results 68–71
  - statistical symbols 72, 73
  - statistical tests 67, 68, 71
  - tables 74–78
- results versus interpretations 64, 84–85
- running head, creating in Word 117
- self-plagiarism 14
- “sex” 29
- “sexual orientation” 30
- “sexual preference” 30
- significance, statistical 60, 61, 68–71
  - marginal significance 70–71
  - nonsignificant results 92–93
- “since” 29
- specific word use 28–30
- spelling 26–28
  - plurals 26–28
  - Greek plurals 27
- standard deviation 57
- statistical tests 60
- statistics, using 56–58
  - comparing groups 57

- context 62, 64
- drawing inferences 57
- presenting 67–68, 86–87
  - 71, 72
- simplifying data 56–57
- subject mortality 49–50

- tables 74–78
  - connection with text 82–84
  - creating in Word 77–78
  - formatting 75, 76
- technical language 21–22
- terror management theory (TMT) 38–40
- “that” 29
- threshold skill 1
- title page 4, 116
- transitions 18–19
- Type 1 error 92–93

- types of communication 6–8

- verb forms 25

- “what” 29
- “which” 29
- “while” 29
- “who” 29
- “woman” 30
- writing habits 9–10
- writing, style 8–14, 22–24
  - bad-writing contest 9
  - common problems 22–24
  - effective 5–6, 8–9
  - ethical 10–14
  - good habits 9–10
  - professional 3–4
  - scientific 3–4
- written communication 6–7

