

Subject Index

Note, Tables are indicated by a bold page numbers; Figures are indicated by italicized page numbers

- academic/intellectual protocol, 204–205
- accountability
  - advocating for, 293
  - white accountability groups, 329
  - for white allies, 155–156, 170, 170
- ACTION model, 254
- active ignorance, 58
- active racists, 20–22
- affective barriers to racial awareness.
  - see* emotional barriers to racial awareness
- affirmative action, 44
- African Americans. see Black American(s)
- aging population, 6
- Alien Land Law, 77
- allies. see white allies
- “all lives matter,” 255, 258
- altruism, 113–114
- AMENA (American Arab, Middle Eastern, and North African) groups
  - discrimination against, 83–85
  - lived reality, 84–85
  - as POC, 83
  - stereotypes of, 73, 84
- American cultural narratives, 200
- American Psychological Association, 108, 346
- anger, of white allies, 158–159
- anonymity of bystanders, 117
- anti-bias action(s). see also microintervention(s)
  - consistency of, 196
  - costs of, 22–25
  - definition, 326
  - determining, 135

Breaking the Deadly Dance of Racism: Perpetrators, Targets, Bystanders, and Allies, First Edition. Derald Wing Sue and Lisa Beth Spanierman.

© 2026 John Wiley & Sons, Inc. All rights reserved, including rights for text and data mining and training of artificial intelligence technologies or similar technologies. Published 2026 by John Wiley & Sons, Inc.

- anti-bias action(s). see also microintervention(s) (Cont'd)
 public displays of, 196
 strategies, 326
 validation as, 341–342
- anti-bias education/training, 296–297
- anticipation, for antiracist socialization, 327, 335–337
- anti-racist education, 233, 324
- anti-racist identity benefits of, 29 challenges to, 22
 conveyor belt analogy and, 20–22 fear of punitive consequences of, 22–23
 inaction overcome with, 27 non-racist identity compared to, 19–20
 response uncertainty/paralysis and, 23–24
- anti-racist organizations, 230–234
- antiracist socialization. see also racial socialization anticipation and preparation for, 327, 335–337
 bias strategies for, 325–326, 326
 breaking silence for, 327, 330–331 race lessons instigation for, 327, 337–338
 race talk normalization for, 327, 331–333 recovering from mistakes for, 328, 339–340 role-play for race talk fluency and,
327, 333–335
 self-reflexivity for, 326, 327, 328–330 validation and reinforcement for, 328, 340–342
- anti-Semitism, 3, 283
- apathy, 27
 active ignorance and, 58 color-blind racial ideology and, 57 as emotional barrier to racial awareness, 57–58
 Genovese murder and, 109 toward racism, 4
 white racial indifference and, 57–58
- apologies, perpetrator, 63, 65–66
- Asian American(s)
 Chinese Exclusion Act and, 88, 222, 305 communication and intervention styles for, 191–192
 discrimination against, 77–79
 hate against, 285 historical and intergenerational trauma of, 91
 Japanese American internment, 77–78, 88, 305
 lived reality, 78–79
 model minority myth and, 78 stereotypes, 46–47, 73, 78
- authority bystanders and forces of, 127 obedience and conformity to, 116, 119–121
- aversive racism theory, 131–132
- “backtalk,” 198
- behavioral barriers to racial awareness, 58–60
- benefits, microintervention explaining, 271–272, 297
- bias, 3. see also anti-bias action(s) antiracist socialization strategies for, 325–326, 326
 checks, 325, 326, 330–331, 333–334 cleanse, 326, 326, 340 contagion, 186–189

- criminal justice, 222
- disarming, 28
- educational, 221
- employment, 221, 225–226
- healthcare, 222
- homeownership, 221
- immigration policies and, 223
- implicit, 137, 233, 285–286
- police and racial, 124–125
- political, 222
- prevention, 325, 326, 332, 334, 337–338
- race talk normalization preventing, 332–333
- rise of, 186
- speed of, 24
- standardized testing, 88
- unconscious, 131
- Bias at the Bedside* (Faller), 346
- bigotry, 3
- Black American(s)
  - communication and intervention styles for, 192
  - discrimination against, 75–77
  - DWB and, 90, 252
  - freedom struggle and spirituality of, 60
  - historical and intergenerational trauma of, 91
  - internalized racism, self-esteem, and racial identity of, 92–93
  - irrational fear of, 51–52
  - lived reality, 76–77
  - microprotections of, 252
  - movie portrayals, 51
  - Nigrescence model on, 12
  - police violence against, 222
  - scientific racism and, 75–76
  - slavery and, 75–76, 88, 91, 125
  - stereotypes, 45–46, 51, 73, 76, 124–125
- Black Lives Matter (BLM)
  - “all lives matter” response to, 255, 258
  - backlash against, 128
  - Floyd’s murder and, 255
  - marketing using, 147
  - Portland, Oregon protests, 155–156
  - violent action and, 298
  - white fear and, 54–55
- Black Lives Matter Plaza, 285
- Blackout Tuesday, 147–148
- Black Reconstruction in America* (Du Bois), 49
- Blake, James, 51–52
- blaming dance of racism, 47
- The Blind Side*, 148
- BLM. see Black Lives Matter
- book banning, 41, 128, 291
- Brooklyn Children’s Museum’s Anti-Racist Family Day, 345
- Brown, Charles, Jr., 285
- Brown v. Board of Education*, 55, 306
- buddy systems, for microinterventions, 275
- Bullock, Sandra, 148
- burnout, 23, 98, 288
- bystander(s)
  - activation steps, 132–136, 182
  - anonymity of, 117
  - aversive racism theory and, 131–132
  - civilians as, 121–123
  - cost-reward explanation of, 113–114, 116
  - in dance of racism, 26, 27
  - definition, 4, 107
  - “diffusion of responsibility” and, 110–111, 116, 117
  - “effect,” 28, 109–110, 117–118, 130, 136–137
  - ethnocentric loyalty, allegiance and, 126

- bystander(s) (Cont'd)
- evaluation apprehension and, 112–113, 116
  - false consensus effect and, 184–185
  - five D's to intervention, 135
  - Floyd's murder and societal forces on, 125–128
  - Genovese murder and, 109–110, 114
  - inaction/action forces, 108–118
  - microaggressions and, 128–129
  - norms, police culture and, 123–124
  - obedience and conformity to
    - authority of, 116, 119–121
  - perpetrators compared to, 107–108
  - police officers as, 120–121
  - power and authority forces on, 127
  - psychological costs of racism, 5
  - race and action of, 130–136
  - racialization of interactions, 118–136
  - retaliation fear, 136
  - segregation and isolation forces on, 126
  - silence and secrecy forces on, 127–128
  - similarities and relationships of
    - victims and, 114–115
  - social contagion and, 116, 120–121
  - social influence theory and, 110, 116, 185
  - social proof and, 111–112, 116, 117
  - symbiotic interactions, 27–28
  - training programs, 136–137
  - as upstanders, 108
- California Gold Rush, 80
- Calley, William, 120
- casual (everyday) racism, 128–129
- censorship, self-, 59–60
- centering POC voices, 330
- centering whiteness, 162, 163
- character attacks, anti-racist identity and, 23
- Chauvin, Derek, 118–123, 128
- Chinese Exclusion Act, 88, 222, 305
- Christie, Chris, 189–190
- civil courage, 135, 286–288
- civil disobedience, 300–301
- civilians, as bystanders, 121–123
- Civil Rights Act of 1964, 248, 305, 306
- Civil Rights Movement, 236, 285, 301
- clarification strategy, 261
- Clinton, Bill, 287
- cognitive barriers to racial awareness
  - color-blind racial ideology, 41–43
  - distorted self-perception, 47–50
  - distorted sense of reality, 41–44
  - distorted view of POC, 44–47
  - double social and psychological consciousness, 49–50
  - dysconscious racism, 40, 41
  - racial self-awareness, 47–48
  - self-superiority, entitlement, 48–49
  - stereotypes, 44–47
  - WRS and, 41–42
- collective action, 235, 303
- collusion, 132
- color-blind racial ideology, 39
  - apathy and, 57
  - as cognitive barrier to racial awareness, 41–43
  - color evasion and, 206–207, 218–219
  - cultural racism and, 218–219
  - definition, 205, 218
  - power evasion and, 206–207, 218–219
  - race-related ground rules and, 205–207
  - racial socialization and myth of, 319–320
  - “strategic colorblindness,” 206, 218–219
  - white racial identity development and, 193
  - WRS and, 42, 323

- color evasion, 41–42, 206–207, 218–219
- Columbia University, 283, 284, 301
- Columbus Day, 201
- commonalities, pointing out, 270–271
- communication and intervention styles,
in dance of racism, 191–193
- community microintervention support from, 275–276
microintervention support through, 307–308
for racial socialization, 345 white community work of white allies, 166–167
- complacency, non-racist identity and, 20
- complicity, 64–65
- conflict, 236
- conformity to authority, 116, 119–121
- confronting prejudiced response model, 100
- congressional action, 305
- consciousness raising, 94–95
- consistency, of white allies, 196
- conveyor belt analogy, 20–22
- Cooper, Amy, 52
- Cooper, Christian, 52
- coping, target, 93–100
- costliness of allyship, 196
- cost-reward explanation, 113–114, 116
- Counseling the Culturally Different* (Sue), 153
- counter narratives, 15, 198
- COVID-19 pandemic, 77, 150
- credibility of white allies, 195–197
- criminal justice bias, 222
- critical consciousness, 10–11, 95 concept, 12
master narratives and, 15 microinterventions raising, 295–296
- POC attaining, 12–13 racial socialization for, 13
white Americans attaining, 13–16
- critical incidents, for white allies, 153–154
- critical race theory, 41
- cross-racial friendships, 167–168
- cultural genocide, 82
- cultural narratives American, 200
Columbus Day and, 201 counter narratives, 15, 198
definition, 198
in history textbooks, 200–201 master narratives, 14–15, 198, 200
meritocracy myth and, 224–225
microaggressions and, 199–202
proverbs and, 199 racial scripts and, 198–202 sincere fictions and, 200 society and, 199
- cultural oppression, 9
- cultural racism, 9, 28 collective action for dismantling, 235 color-blind racial ideology and, 218–219
conflict and struggle in dismantling, 236
definition, 7
intentional culture change for dismantling, 234–237 intergenerational spread, 216 interlocking relationships of, 226–288, 227 monopolies of power as barriers to dismantling, 235–236
perpetrators and, 41 personally mediated, 215–216
power to impose and, 217–218 racial socialization for dismantling, 237

- cultural racism (Cont'd) societal spread, 216–217
 studies on, 216
 whiteness/white racial superiority
 and, 217–219
 white supremacy and, 216–219
- dance of racism, 25. see also bystander(s); perpetrator(s); target(s); white allies blaming, 47 bystander activation steps for breaking, 132–136, 182
 communication and intervention styles in, 191–193
 concept, 26–27
 false consensus effect and, 184–185 individual challenges to breaking, 27 intentional culture change for breaking, 207, 228
 interlocking relationships in, 226–288, 227
 participants in, 181–183 performance stage of, 197–198 perpetrator strategies for breaking, 63–66, 181
 race-related ground rules protecting, 202–207
 racist jokes and, 245–246 role relationships in, 189–197 roles, 26, 27 social/bias contagion and, 186–189 symbiotic challenges to breaking, 27–28
 systemic challenges to breaking, 28 white ally strategies for breaking, 165–169, 182
- Dances with Wolves*, 148
- data, countering stereotypes, 269–270
- Davis, Angela, 19
- “Dear White People” (Patton and Haynes), 156
- decentering whiteness, 168
- defensiveness of perpetrators, 62
- DEI. see diversity, equity, and inclusion
- demographic shifts
 POC, 5–6
 racial status threat tied to, 53–54 white American, 5–6 white rage from, 55–56
 zero-sum myth and, 54, 66
- depersonalizing, 263
- DeSantis, Ron, 189
- description microinterventions, 265–266
- desegregation, 55
- “diffusion of responsibility,” 110–111, 116, 117
- disagreement microintervention, 264–265
- disarm microaggression strategic goal, 256, 264–268
- discrimination against AMENA groups, 83–85 against Asian Americans, 77–79 against Black Americans, 75–77 against Indigenous Americans, 81–83
 against Latinx Americans, 79–81 unintentional, 14 against white Americans, 38
- disengagement, for microinterventions, 268
- disintegration status, 41
- diversification of America, 5–6
- diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI)
 backlash against, 128
 empowering leadership, 232 racial socialization in schools and, 343–344
 Trump executive orders against, 4, 283–284

- documenting, for microinterventions, 292–293
- double social and psychological consciousness, 49–50
- “Drapetomania,” 76
- driving while Black (DWB), 90, 252
- Dying of Whiteness* (Metzl), 54
- “Dysaesthesia Ethiopica,” 76, 125
- dysconscious racism, 40, 41
- education. see also training anti-bias, 296–297
anti-racist, 233, 324 bias in, 221
desegregation, 55
macroaggressions challenged through, 290, 294–297
microintervention, 24, 254
perpetrator, 257, 268–273 race understanding in, 318–319 racial socialization in, 343–344 racism in, 13
self-, 64
self-segregation in, 58–59 standardized testing bias in, 88
for white allies, 165–166
WRS in, 41–42
- Einstein, Albert, 3, 4
- elementary-aged children, race understanding of, 319
- EmBARK (Empowering Behaviors to Address Race with Kids), 344
- emotional barriers to racial awareness, 50
white apathy, 57–58 white fear, 51–55
white rage, 55–57
- emotional labor, of allyship, 158–160
- empathy developing, 65 promoting, 271 trust-building with white allies for, 155
- employment bias, 221, 225–226
- Empowering Behaviors to Address
Race with Kids (EmBARK), 344
- empowerment for action, 98–100
- entitlement, 48–49, 56
- ERASE model, 254
- ethnocentric loyalty, 126
- ethnocentric monoculturalism, 126
- eugenics, 55
- evaluation advocating for, 293
apprehension, 112–113, 116
- everyday (casual) racism, 128–129
- exclamatory utterances, 266
- executive branch action, 305
- exposure myth, 320
- expressed humility, 197
- false consensus effect, 184–185
- family separation policy, 88
- fear bystander retaliation, 136
as emotional barrier to racial awareness, 51–55
of punitive consequences, 22–23, 161–162
racial status threat, 53–54
of slave uprisings, 54
- five D’s to bystander intervention, 135
- Floyd, George, 152, 285
BLM movement and murder of, 255 civilian bystanders in murder of, 121–123
murder of, 13, 27–28, 118–119 police culture and murder of, 123–124 police officer bystanders in murder of, 120–121

- Floyd, George (Cont'd) racial bias of police and murder of, 124–125
 racism and murder of, 128 societal forces on bystanders in murder of, 125–128
- Freedom Writers*, 148
- freeze effect, 99
- Gates, Henry Louis, Jr., 52
- “Gaza Solidarity Encampment,” 301
- Genovese, Kitty, 109–110, 114, 119
- gerrymandering, 88
- government action, initiating, 305–307
- Great Depression, 80
- great replacement theory, 55
- ground rules. see race-related ground rules
- groupthink, 185
- guilt, of white allies, 159
- Haley, Nikki, 189–190
- HBCUs (Historically Black Colleges and Universities), 49, 50
- Healing the Soul Wound* (Duran), 91
- healthcare bias, 222
- Hispanic Americans. see Latinx American(s)
- Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs), 49, 50
- historical trauma, 90–92
- history textbooks, 41, 200–201
- Holocaust, 121, 152
- homeownership bias, 221
- How to Be an Antiracist*
 (Kendi), 19
- human rights organizations, 304
- humility, expressed, 197
- hygiene metaphor, 65
- ICE (Immigration and Customs Enforcement), 284
- Identity Project, 344
- immigrants bias against, 223 deportation threats against, 284
 irrational fear of, 52–53
 Trump’s claims against, 80 white Americans as, 60–61
 in workforce, 6
- Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), 284
- impact, intent compared to, 269
- implicit bias, 137, 233, 285–286
- implicit racism, 286
- inaction anti-racist identity for overcoming, 27 hazards of, 4
 unintended consequences of, 183–189
- Indian Removal Act, 81–82
- Indigenous American(s)
 cultural genocide, 82
 discrimination against, 81–83
 historical and intergenerational trauma of, 91
 lived reality, 82–83
 stereotypes, 46, 82
- individual racism, 38. see also microaggression(s)
 definition, 9
 interlocking relationships of,
 226–228, 227
- infants, race understanding of, 318
- inferiority, internalized, 11–13
- innuendo, naming, 259
- institutional racism. see also
 macroaggression(s) anti-racist organizations for disarming, 230–234
 definition, 9, 220

- general guidelines for disarming, 229–230
  - meritocracy myth and, 224–225
  - studies on, 216
- intellectual/academic protocol, 204–205
- intent, impact compared to, 269
- intentional culture change, 207, 228, 234–237
- intergenerational trauma, 90–92
- internalized racism, 92–93
- interruption, for microinterventions, 267
- intervention and communication styles,
  - in dance of racism, 191–193
- IRANT model, 254
- irrational fear, 51–55
- Islamophobia, 84
- isolation
  - fears and anti-racist identity, 22
  - in society, 126
- Japanese American internment, 77–78, 88, 305
- Jewish people, 51, 121, 152
- Jim Crow laws, 88, 222, 305
- John Hopkins University, 283
- jokes. see racist jokes
- Jordon, Vernon E., Jr., 287
- joy, celebrating, 333
- judicial branch action, 306
- Keller, Helen, 28
- King, Martin Luther, Jr., 3, 4, 301
- Latinx American(s)
  - communication and intervention styles for, 192
  - discrimination against, 79–81
  - lived reality, 80–81
  - stereotypes, 46, 73, 80
- leadership, alerting, 276
- Lee, Shayne, 51–52
- legislative branch action, 305
- Lies My Teacher Told Me* (Loewen), 13, 41, 200–201
- LIFT model, 254
- limits, setting, 265
- loyalty, ethnocentric, 126
- macroaggression(s)
  - challenging and disarming, 290–291, 297–303
  - combatting, 85–86
  - definition, 74, 85, 220
  - education challenging, 290, 294–297
  - harm to POCs, 87–88, 181–182
  - making “invisible” visible, 289, 290, 291–294
  - meritocracy myth and, 224–225
  - microaggressions compared to, 223–224
  - microinterventions for dismantling, 281–282
  - seeking support for fighting, 291, 303–308
  - SOPs and, 225–226
  - strategies and tactics to combat, 288–308, 289–290
  - systemic racism and, 220, 223, 283–286
- macrointervention(s), 247–248, 282
- MAGA (Make America Great Again), 3–4, 8, 282–283. see also Trump, Donald
- Maher, Bill, 39
- Make America Great Again (MAGA), 3–4, 8, 282–283. see also Trump, Donald
- making “invisible” visible strategic goal
  - for macroaggressions, 289, 290, 291–294
  - for microaggressions, 255, 256, 258–263

- manifest destiny ideology, 81
- marketing, BLM in, 147
- master narratives, 14–15, 198, 200
- media. see also social media curating antiracist, 338 for race talk normalization, 333 racial socialization and, 345–346
   racism in, 3
   status quo challenged via, 301–303
   traditional, 302
- mentorship, 233, 275
- meritocracy myth, 224–225
- meta-communication, 259–260
- metaphors, 338
- Mexican Americans, 79–80. see also Latinx American(s)
- microaffirmations, 249–250, 264
- microaggression(s)
   bystanders and, 128–129
   combating, 85–86
   critics challenging, 86 cultural narratives and, 199–202
   definition, 74, 85
   disarming, 28
   disarm microaggression strategic goal, 256, 264–268
   examples, 129
   harm to POCs, 86–87, 97, 181–182
   invisibility of, 258–259
   macroaggressions compared to, 223–224 making “invisible” visible strategic goal for, 255, 256, 258–263
   meritocracy myth and, 224–225
   meta-communication and, 259–260 mimic/reverse, 262–263
   as “oversensitive,” 62 perpetrators, 129
   process model, 94, 100
   racist jokes and, 129
   seeking support strategic goal for,
     257, 273–276
   social contagion and, 187–188
   SOPs and, 225–226
- microchallenges, 251–252
- microcompliments, 250
- microintervention(s), 168–169 alerting leadership for, 276 anti-bias education/training for, 296–297
   benefits explained for, 271–272, 297 broadening stereotypes, 260–261 buddy systems for, 275 challenging and disarming macroaggressions for, 290–291, 297–303 challenging stereotypes, 260 civil disobedience for, 300–301 clarification strategy for, 261 collective action enhanced for, 303 commonalities pointed out for, 270–271
   community support for, 275–276, 307–308
   critical consciousness raised for, 295–296
   data countering stereotypes for, 269–270
   definition, 247–248
   depersonalizing for, 263 descriptions for, 265–266 disagreement for, 264–265 for disarm microaggression strategic goal, 256, 264–268
   disengagement for, 268
   for educate perpetrator strategic goal, 257, 268–273 education challenging macroaggressions for, 290, 294–297 empathy promoted for, 271 evaluation/accountability for, 293

- exclamatory utterances for, 266
- goals, 248
- government action initiated for, 305–307
- human rights organizations and, 304
- intent compared to impact for, 269
- interruption/redirection for, 267
- leveraging personal power/privileged identities for, 293–294
- limits set for, 265
- macroaggressions dismantled with, 281–282
- macrointerventions compared to, 247–248
- for making “invisible” visible
  - strategic goal, 255, 256, 258–263, 289, 290, 291–294
- mentors for processing, 275
- meta-communication and, 259–260
- microaffirmations, 249–250, 264
- microchallenges, 251–252
- microprotections, 252–253
- mimic/reverse microaggressions for, 262–263
- models, 254
- monitoring/documenting for, 292–293
- moral principle appeals for, 270
- naming innuendo for, 259
- nonverbal expression for, 266–267
- nonviolent/violent protest and, 298–303
- overlapping, 253
- perspicacity for, 258–259
- power differentials in, 274
- psychological services for, 276
- for racist jokes, 246
- reframing for, 272–273
- religion supporting, 275–276
- rephrasing for, 261–262
- reporting incidents for, 276
- revisiting incidents at later time for, 273
- rule reinforcement for, 267–268
- safety for, 274
- secondary benefits of, 248–249
- seeking support strategic goal for, 257, 273–276, 291, 303–308
- spirituality supporting, 275–276
- status quo challenged via media for, 301–303
- support groups for, 275
- for systemic racism, 289
- targets, 99
- training, 24, 254
- values stated for, 265
- microprotections, 13, 252–253, 317.
  - see also* antiracist socialization
- Middle Eastern groups. see AMENA groups
- Milwaukee, 51
- mimic microaggressions, 262–263
- model minority myth, 78
- monitoring, for microinterventions, 292–293
- monopolies of power, 235–236
- moral outrage, of white allies, 159
- moral principle appeals, 270
- Moran, Jorge (Dixon White), 64, 145–146
- Morton, Samuel George, 47
- movies, stereotypes in, 51
- Multicultural Teaching Competency Scale, 344
- Muslims, 83–84
- Muslim travel ban, 88
- My Lai massacre, 120
- naming innuendo, 259
- National Football League, 285
- Native Americans. see Indigenous American(s)

- Nazi Germany, 51
- neighborhoods, self-segregation in, 58
- Nigrescence model, 12
- non-racist identity, 19–22
- nonverbal expression, for microinterventions, 266–267
- nonviolent protest, 298–303
- norms, police culture and, 123–124
- North African groups. see AMENA groups
- n-word, 45
- Obama, Barack, 305
- obedience and conformity to authority, 116, 119–121
- overidentifying with POC, 149–150, 163
- OWTFD model, 254
- pain, 74
- paradox of power, 196
- pardons, Trump's, 285
- passive racists, 20–22, 184
- paternalism, 148–149, 163
- Pedagogy of the Oppressed* (Freire), 12–13, 97
- peer networks, racial socialization and, 346–347
- People of Color (POC). see also specific groups
- AMENA groups as, 83
- amplifying voices of, 168
- centering voices of, 330
- civil courage of, 287–288
- counter narratives and, 15
- critical consciousness attained by, 12–13
- demographic shifts, 5–6
- distorted view of, 44–47
- historical and intergenerational trauma of, 90–92
- internalized inferiority and, 11–13
- irrational fear of, 51–55
- macroaggression harm to, 87–88, 181–182
- microaggression examples against, 129
- microaggression harm to, 86–87, 97, 181–182
- microaggression process model and, 94–95
- microprotections of, 252–253, 317
- overcoming racism, 10
- proverbs antagonizing, 199
- psychological costs of racism, 5
- race-related stress and, 89–90
- racial battle fatigue and, 89–90
- racial socialization and survival of, 95
- racial status threat by, 53–54
- racial trauma consequences for, 89–92
- racism's impact on, 85–93
- self-care coping and, 95–97
- self-reckoning for, 18–19
- societal power of, 18
- stereotypes and, 44–47, 51, 73
- as targets, 4, 74–85
- white allies and meaningful relationships with, 167–168
- white allies in coalitions led by, 146
- white allies overidentifying with, 149–150, 163
- white ally perspectives of, 151, 154–156
- white Americans as perpetrators to, 38
- as white supremacy victims, 11
- in workforce, 6
- performative/superficial ally behavior, 147–148, 150–151, 154, 163
- perpetrator(s)
- acknowledging racism, 64
- apologies, 63, 65–66

- behavioral barriers to racial awareness, 58–60
- breaking dance of racism, strategies for, 63–66, 181
- bystanders compared to, 107–108
- calling out, 61–63
- cognitive barriers to racial awareness, 40–50
- color-blind racial ideology, 39, 41–43
- color evasion and, 41–42
- complicity, 64–65
- cultural racism and, 41
- in dance of racism, 26, 27
- defensiveness, 62
- definition, 4, 38
- dysconscious racism and, 41
- educate, 257, 268–273
- emotional barriers to racial awareness, 50–58
- empathy development, 65
- false consensus effect and, 184–185
- of microaggressions, 129
- power evasion, 43
- psychological costs of racism, 5
- racial privilege, 48, 65
- racial socialization and, 39, 41–42, 63–64
- reverse racism perceptions of, 49, 56
- spiritual barriers to racial awareness, 60–61
- symbiotic interactions, 27–28
- types, 37
- white Americans as, 38
- zero-sum myth and, 54, 66
- personally mediated racism, 215–216
- perspicacity, 258–259
- physical harm, anti-racist identity and, 23
- POC. see People of Color
- police
  - Black Americans and violence from, 222
- culture, 123–124, 126
  - Floyd’s murder and societal forces on, 125–128
  - loyalty and, 126
  - officers as bystanders, 120–121
  - power and authority of, 127
  - racial bias and, 124–125
  - silence and secrecy of, 127–128
- politeness protocol, 202–204
- political bias, 222
- politics
  - bias contagion and, 188
  - irrational fear of POC in, 52–53
  - MAGA and, 3–4, 8, 282–283
  - sexism and, 189–190
- Portland, Oregon, 155–156
- power
  - bystanders and forces of, 127
  - evasion, 43, 206–207, 218–219
  - fears and anti-racist identity, 22–23
  - to impose, 217–218
  - leveraging personal, 293–294
  - microinterventions and differentials in, 274
  - monopolies of, 235–236
  - paradox of, 196
- preparation, for antiracist socialization, 327, 335–337
- preschoolers, race understanding of, 318
- preteens, race understanding of, 319
- privileged identities, leveraging, 293–294
- pro-Palestinian protests, 301
- protest actions, 298–303
- proverbs, 199
- psychological services, 276
- psychological suffering, 74
- public displays, of white allies, 196

- punitive consequences fear anti-racist identity and, 22–23
 white allies and, 161–162
- race. see also specific races bystander action and, 130–136 conversations myth, 320 developmental pathways for understanding, 318–319
 race-related stress, 89–90 “race card,” 203 race lessons, instigating, 327, 337–338 race-related ground rules academic/intellectual protocol, 204–205
 color-blind protocol, 205–207 dance of racism protected by, 202–207 politeness protocol, 202–204 racism protected by, 202 race talk. see also silence absence of, 323–324 avoiding, 330
 breaking silence for, 327, 330–331 ground rules for, 202–207 instigating, 327, 337–338 normalization of, 327, 331–333 role-play for fluency with, 327, 333–335
 stifling, 202
 as taboo, 203 racial awareness behavioral barriers, 58–60 cognitive barriers, 40–50 consciousness raising and, 94–95 emotional barriers, 50–58 self-awareness and, 47–48 spiritual barriers, 60–61
 understanding, 40
 racial battle fatigue, 23, 89–90, 96, 97, 273–274, 288
 racial identity, 92–93 racial learning, 326, 327, 328–330 racial literacy, 95 racial privilege, 48, 65, 144–145, 293–294
 racial profiling, 222 racial scripts, cultural narratives and, 198–202
 racial socialization. see also antiracist socialization; white racial socialization
 acknowledging, 63–64
 color-blind racial ideology myth and, 319–320
 community for, 345 for critical consciousness, 13 cultural racism dismantled with, 237
 definition, 321
 developmental pathways of, 318–319
 in education, 343–344
 exposure myth and, 320 future of, 347 lifelong process of, 315–316 media, technology and, 345–346 microprotections in, 252, 317 peer networks/youth spaces and,
 346–347
 POC survival and, 95 race conversations myth and, 320 science of, 321–325
 stereotypes and, 44
 youth of color, 322–323
 racial status threat, 53–54
 racial stereotypes. see stereotypes racial trauma, 89–92 racism. see also cultural racism; dance of racism; institutional racism; microaggression(s); systemic racism
 acknowledging, 64

- addressing, 9–10, 29 apathy toward, 4
 aversive racism theory, 131–132
 awareness, 15–16, 27
 calling out, 135–136, 277
 confronting, 237–238 cycle of, 20–22 denial, 17
 dysconscious, 40, 41
 in education, 13
 everyday (casual), 128–129
 Floyd’s murder and, 128 hygiene metaphor for, 65
 implicit, 286
 individual, 9, 38, 226–228, 227 internalized, 92–93 in media, 3 personally mediated, 215–216
 psychosocial costs, 5 reverse, 49, 56 rise of overt, 282–283 scientific, 75–76 secondary oppression and, 16
 Trump administration emboldening, 37–38 racist jokes, 25, 108
   calling out, 183–184
   dance of racism and, 245–246
   false consensus effect and, 184–185
   microaggressions and, 129
   microinterventions for, 246 racial self-reckoning and, 17 recognizing, 135 rage, white, 55–57
 Ramaswamy, Vivek, 189
 “Rascality,” 76
Reading and RES Guide, 346 reality, distorted sense of, 41–44
Real Time, 39 REAP (Routes to Effective Anti-racist Parenting) model, 336, 341, 345 recovering from mistakes, for antiracist
   socialization, 328, 339–340
 redirection, for microinterventions, 267 reframing, 272–273
 reinforcement, for antiracist socialization, 328, 340–342 reintegration, 41 religion, 275–276 repair harm, 65–66
 rephrasing, 261–262 reporting incidents, 276 Republican National Convention, 2024, 51 resistance celebrating, 333
   civil courage and, 286–288 to dismantling cultural racism, 236 performative, 26
   white allies facing, 146–147
 response uncertainty/paralysis
   anti-racist identity and, 23–24
   white ally barriers and, 160–161 retaliation fear, bystanders and, 136 reverse microaggressions, 262–263 reverse racism, 49, 56 revisiting incidents at later time, 273
 Rice, Tamir, 125
 Robinson, Jackie, 291 role-play, for race talk fluency, 327, 333–335
 Roosevelt, Franklin D., 305
 Routes to Effective Anti-racist Parenting (REAP) model, 336, 341, 345 rule reinforcement, 267–268 safety, for microinterventions, 274 SB 1070, 52–53

 scientific racism, 75–76

- secondary oppression, 14, 16
- secrecy, bystanders and, 127–128
- seeking support strategic goal for macroaggressions, 291, 303–308
for microaggressions, 257, 273–276
- segregation, in society, 126
- self-awareness racial awareness and, 47–48 of white allies, 155
- self-care coping, 95–97 persistence strategies, 169
- self-censorship, 59–60
- self-education, 64
- self-esteem, 92–93
- self-perception, distorted, 47–50
- self-reckoning, racial concept, 16–17
POC, 18–19
white Americans, 17–18
- self-reflection for antiracist socialization, 326, 327, 328–330
of white allies, 145, 166
- self-segregation, of white Americans, 44, 58–59
- self-superiority, 48–49
- sexism, 189–190
- silence antiracist socialization by breaking, 327, 330–331
bystanders and, 127–128
unintended consequences of, 183–189
WRS and, 323–324
- sincere fictions, 200
- slavery, 75–76, 88, 91, 125
- slave uprisings, 54
- social change, civil courage and, 286–288
- social cognitive career theory, 158
- social contagion
bystanders and, 116, 120–121
dance of racism, bias and, 186–189
definition, 186
explanations for, 188–189 intergroup hostility and, 187
microaggressions and, 187–188
- social influence theory, 110, 116, 185
- social media
racial socialization and, 345–346
status quo challenged via, 302–303 superficial/performative ally behavior on, 147–148
- social proof, 111–112, 116, 117
- society collective action for change in, 235 conflict and struggle in changing, 236
cultural narratives and, 199
cultural racism spread through, 216–217 Floyd's murder, bystanders and forces of, 125–128 monopolies of power as barriers to changing, 235–236
norms, police culture and, 123–124
psychological costs of racism, 5 racial socialization for changing, 237 segregation and isolation in, 126
Supreme Court impact on, 306
- SOPs (standard operating procedures), 87–88, 220, 225–226
- The Souls of White Folks* (Segrest), 40
- spiritual barriers to racial awareness, 60–61
- spirituality, 275–276
- standardized testing, 88
- standard operating procedures (SOPs), 87–88, 220, 225–226
- status quo challenged via media, 301–303

- stereotypes
- AMENA groups and, 73, 84
  - Asian American, 46–47, 73, 78
  - Black American, 45–46, 51, 73, 76, 124–125
  - broadening, 260–261
  - challenging, 260
  - as cognitive barriers to racial awareness, 44–47
  - data countering, 269–270
  - Indigenous American, 46
  - Latinx American, 46, 73, 80
  - in movies, 51
  - racial socialization and, 44
  - “strategic colorblindness,” 206, 218–219
- strategies, tactics compared to, 255
- stress
- anti-racist identity and, 23
  - burnout and, 23, 98, 288
  - race-related, 89–90
- structural racism. see also
- macroaggression(s)
    - definition, 220
    - disrupting, 146
    - examples, 221–223
    - interlocking relationships of, 226–288, 227
    - white allies and understanding of, 144–145
- struggle, 236
- The Sum of Us* (McGhee), 54
- superficial/performative ally behavior, 147–148, 150–151, 154, 163
- support groups, for microinterventions, 275
- Supreme Court
- color-blind racial ideology and, 44
  - on desegregation, 55
  - societal impact of, 306
- systemic racism. see also
- macroaggression(s)
    - challenges of combatting, 230
    - definition, 219–220
    - examples, 221–223
    - interlocking relationships of, 226–288, 227
    - macroaggressions and, 220, 223, 283–286
    - microinterventions for, 289
    - power to impose and, 217–218
- tactics, strategies compared to, 255
- target(s)
- ally intervention desirability and, 190
  - civil courage for, 287
  - in dance of racism, 26, 27
  - definition, 4, 73
  - empowerment for action, 98–100
  - false consensus effect and, 185
  - historical and intergenerational trauma of, 90–92
  - internalized racism, self-esteem, and racial identity of, 92–93
  - macroaggression harm to, 87–88, 181–182
  - microaggression examples against, 129
  - microaggression harm to, 86–87, 97, 181–182
  - microaggression process model and, 94–95
  - microinterventions and, 99
  - POCs as, 4, 74–85
  - racial trauma consequences for, 89–92
  - racism’s impact on, 85–93
  - self-care coping, 95–97
  - survival and coping, 93–100
  - sybiotic interactions, 27–28
  - on white ally motivations, 193–194

- Taylor, Breonna, 13
- technology, racial socialization and, 345–346
- teens, race understanding of, 319
- toddlers, race understanding of, 318
- traditional media, 302
- training. see also education
- anti-bias, 296–297
  - bystander, 136–137
  - implicit bias, 233
  - microintervention, 24, 254
- transgender people, in military, 88
- trauma, racial, 89–92
- “troublemaker” labels, 274
- Trump, Donald, 186
- anti-DEI executive orders of, 4, 283–284
  - bias contagion and election of, 188
  - concealed agenda of, 291
  - on COVID-19 pandemic, 77
  - deportation threats of, 284
  - pardons of, 285
  - re-election impact, 282–283
  - university-based research threats of, 283–284
  - white American appeal, 54
  - white fear amplified by, 51
  - xenophobic rhetoric of, 52–53
- trust-building, with white allies, 155, 195
- turning points, for white allies, 153–154
- Tutu, Desmond, 185
- Two-Faced Racism* (Picca and Feagin), 59
- uncertainty of tactic, 160–161
- unconscious bias, 131
- unintentional discrimination, 14
- university-based research, Trump’s threats against, 283–284
- University of California, 284
- upstanders, 108
- validation, for antiracist socialization, 328, 340–342
- values, stating, 265
- Vietnam War, 120, 301
- violent protest, 298–303
- violent threats, anti-racist identity and, 23
- VITALS model, 254
- voter ID laws, 222
- Wages of Whiteness* (Roediger), 54n1
- “wages of whiteness,” 49
- “weaponizing whiteness,” 52
- “We Built This Culture (So We Can Change It)” (Hamedani), 234
- What This Comedian Said Will Shock You* (Maher), 39
- White, Dixon (Jorge Moran), 64, 145–146
- white accountability groups, 329
- white allies
- accountability for, 155–156, 170, 170
  - actions taken by, 146
  - amplifying voices of POC, 168
  - anger of, 158–159
  - aspirational characteristics, 143–147
  - backlash and resistance faced by, 146–147
  - centering whiteness and, 162, 163
  - childhood/family background of, 152
  - civil courage for, 287
  - communication and intervention styles of, 191–192
  - consistency of, 196
  - costliness of allyship and, 196
  - credibility of, 195–197

- critical incidents/turning points for, 153–154
- in dance of racism, 26, 27
- definition, 4, 143
- desirability of interventions from, 190
- education for, 165–166
- emotional labor of, 158–160
- expressed humility of, 197
- false consensus effect and, 185
- fear of punitive consequences and, 161–162
- guilt of, 159
- hazards of, 147–151, 162, 163–164, 164
- from intention to action, 168–169
- moral outrage of, 159
- motivations of, 151–154, 193–194
- overidentifying with POC, 149–150, 163
- paradox of power and, 196
- paralysis of, 160–162, 164
- paternalistic behavior of, 148–149, 163
- in POC-led coalitions, 146
- POC meaningful relationships with, 167–168
- POC perspectives of, 151, 154–156
- psychological costs of racism, 5
- public displays of, 196
- response uncertainty/paralysis barriers to, 160–161
- responsibilities of, 145–146, 194–195
- self-awareness of, 155
- self-care persistence strategies of, 169
- self-reflection of, 145, 166
- strategies for effective, 165–169, 182
- structural barriers to, 156–158
- structural racism, white privilege understanding of, 144–145
- superficial/performative behavior of, 147–148, 150–151, 154, 163
- sustainability for, 170, 170
- sympiotic interactions, 27–28
- transparency for, 154
- trust-building with, 155, 195
- white community work of, 166–167
- white saviorism and, 148, 162, 163
- WRS and, 156–158
- white American(s)
- active ignorance, 58
- aging population, 6
- apathy, 57–58
- complicity, 64–65
- critical consciousness attained by, 13–16
- demographic shifts, 5–6
- discrimination against, 38
- double social and psychological
consciousness, 49–50
- fear, 51–55
- immigrant roots, 60–61
- microaggression examples from, 129
- overcoming racism, 10
- as perpetrators, 38
- psychology costs of racism, 5
- racial privilege, 48, 65, 144–145, 293–294
- racial self-awareness, 47–48
- racial status threat, 53–54
- rage, 55–57
- secondary oppression by, 14, 16
- self-reckoning, 17–18
- self-segregation, 44, 58–59
- self-superiority and entitlement, 48–49
- societal power, 18
- “strategic colorblindness” and, 206, 218–219
- Trump’s appeal to, 54
- white allies working in communities of, 166–167
- white supremacy separated from, 10
- as white supremacy victims, 11

- white fragility, 59, 164
- whiteness, 217–219
- white racial identity development, 40
 color-blind racial ideology and, 193 disintegration status in, 41 reintegration in, 41
 WRS shaping, 39
- white racial indifference, 57–58
- White Racial Responsibility* video, 64, 145–146
- white racial socialization (WRS). see also antiracist socialization; racial socialization cognitive barriers to racial awareness
 and, 41–42
 color-blind racial ideology and, 42, 323
 definition, 316
 in education, 41–42
 invisibility of, 157
 silence and, 323–324
 studies on, 323–324 urgency of intentional, 325–326
 white allies and, 156–158
 white racial identity development shaped through, 39
- white racial superiority, 217–219
- White Rage* (Anderson, C.), 57
- white relativism effect, 50
- White Rural Rage* (Schaller and Waldman), 55
- white saviorism, 148, 162, 163
- white silence, 39
- white supremacy cultural racism and, 216–219
 doctrine, 7–8
 MAGA and, 8
 manifest destiny ideology and, 81
 POC as victims of, 11
 rebirth and rise, 6–8 white Americans as victims of, 11 white Americans separated from, 10
 “white talk,” 198
- Wiesel, Elie, 286
- Williams, Serena, 45–46
- Worked to the Bone* (Buck), 54n1
- World War II, 121
- WRS. see white racial socialization
- xenophobia, 52–53
- youth of color racial socialization, 322–323
- youth spaces, racial socialization and, 346–347
- zero-sum myth, 54, 66