

Index

A

- abstracted resources
 - cloud computing strategy, 250
 - for PaaS, 136
 - workloads and, 169
- Accenture, 258
- access controls, 195, 218
- access methods, cloud storage, 178–181
- ad hoc groups, 60
- Adobe Create Cloud, 14
- agile development
 - managing, 139–141
 - transitioning to DevOps, 150
- AI (artificial intelligence), 56, 111, 205
- AIM (identity and access management), 209
- Airbnb, 28
- Alibaba Cloud, 118
- Amazon
 - affecting businesses, 21
 - big data analytics, 202
 - in public cloud, 45
 - as vendor, 258
- Amazon Elastic Container Service (Amazon ECS), 79
- Amazon Simple Storage Service (Amazon S3), 181
- Amazon Web Services (AWS)
 - creating workloads in, 174–175
 - overview, 118
 - public IaaS services, 109
 - running SaaS offerings in, 129
 - using serverless functions, 113
- analytic workloads, 167
- analytics strategy, 201–203
 - big data analytics, 202
 - other cloud analytics, 203
- anonymizing data, 218
- antivirus software, 133
- Apache Foundation (ASF), 257
- Apache Group, 60
- Apache Hadoop, 201
- Apache Mesos platform, 79
- Apache OpenWhisk platform, 64
- APIs (application programming interfaces), 24
 - access to IaaS, 108
 - block-based APIs, 179
 - communicating between services, 83–84
 - proliferation, 63
 - REST APIs
 - accessing cloud storage by, 181
 - defined, 173
 - Open Cloud Computing Interface (OCCI) using, 64
 - for web services, 178
 - role in DevOps, 162–164
 - workloads in, 173–175
- App Engine, 142
- application programming interfaces (APIs), 24
 - access to IaaS, 108
 - block-based APIs, 179
 - communicating between services, 83–84
 - proliferation, 63
 - REST APIs
 - accessing cloud storage by, 181
 - defined, 173
 - Open Cloud Computing Interface (OCCI) using, 64
 - for web services, 178
 - role in DevOps, 162–164
 - workloads in, 173–175
- applications
 - cloud native, 80–83
 - benefits of, 230
 - defined, 157–158
 - DevOps and, 151
 - differentiating, 82–83, 160–161
 - general discussion of, 75
 - importance of, 261–262
 - moving from virtual machines to, 81–82, 159
 - open source, 159–160
 - overview, 80–81
 - Software as a Service (SaaS), 126–127

- applications (continued)
 - cloud-enabled, 84–85
 - designing in failover capabilities, 58
 - developers of SaaS platform, 130–131
 - developing on vendor’s platform, 131–132
 - legacy, 22–23
 - massively scaled, 232–233
 - monitoring
 - improving management by, 54
 - logs, 55–56
 - security for, 209
 - service lifecycles and, 57–58
 - storing in cloud, 186
 - value of demand-driven, 152–153
- architecture of cloud computing, 33–42
 - applications not architected for cloud, 169
 - components of, 35–36
 - constituents, 34–35
 - deployment, 36–40
 - flexibility, 40
 - governance, 39
 - hybrid cloud, 39–40
 - latency, 37–38
 - security, 39
 - dynamic life cycle, 42
 - hybrid cloud, 41
 - optimizing workloads, 41–42
 - policies and business rules, 40–41
 - of public IaaS, 110–111
- archiving, 235
- artificial intelligence (AI), 56, 111, 205
- Ascaler, 67
- ASF (Apache Foundation), 257
- Association for Retail Technology Standards (ARTS), 70
- audit risks, 220
- authentication and authorization standard, 65
- automation
 - defined, 8
 - for workloads, 172
- AWS (Amazon Web Services)
 - creating workloads in, 174–175
 - overview, 118
 - public IaaS services, 109

- running SaaS offerings in, 129
 - using serverless functions, 113
- AWS Elastic Beanstalk, 142
- AWS Outpost, 233
- Azure, 113, 118, 142, 181

B

- back-end workloads, 167
- background checks, 211
- backups, 167, 182, 235
- bandwidth, 185, 235
- bare metal cloud services, 108
- batch workloads, 167
- Benioff, Marc, 124–125
- big data, 200–201
 - application integration, 103
 - characteristics of, 200–201
 - master data management (MDM), 200
 - workloads, 167
- Black Friday, 110
- block-based APIs, 179
- bottom line, SLAs affecting, 52
- Box file sharing, 44
- business model, 28–29
 - examining future, 244
 - re-examining, 28
 - transforming, 29

C

- caches, 181
- CADF (Cloud Auditing Data Federation Working Group), 67
- Calico standard, 63
- CAM (Cloud Access Management), 47
- capital expenditures (CapEX), 232
- CCM (Cloud Controls Matrix), 195
- CCSK (Cloud Computing Security Knowledge), 67
- CDMI (Cloud Data Management Interface), 64
- cellphone market, 175
- Certificate Revocation List (CRL), 65
- change management controls, 195
- cheat sheet, for this book, 3

- CIA (Confidentiality, Integrity, and Availability) Triad, 194
- CI/CD (continuous integration and continuous deployment)
 - adapting to user expectations with, 78
 - in agile development, 153–154
 - continuous delivery, 154
 - continuous deployment, 154
 - continuous integration, 153
 - continuous testing, 153
 - general discussion of, 150
- challenges of
 - adoption, 154–155
 - in cloud era, 156
- continuous delivery and importance of, 155–156
- opinionated continuous delivery, 154–155
- in SaaS applications, 123
- CIFS (Common Internet File System), 179
- CIO.gov website, 259
- Cisco, 81, 258
- Cloud Access Management (CAM), 47
- Cloud Auditing Data Federation Working Group (CADF), 67
- cloud computing, 7–20
 - advantages of, 29
 - architecture, 33–42
 - applications not architected for cloud, 169
 - components of, 35–36
 - constituents, 34–35
 - deployment, 36–40
 - dynamic life cycle, 42
 - hybrid cloud, 41
 - optimizing workloads, 41–42
 - policies and business rules, 40–41
 - of public IaaS, 110–111
- data centers, 17–20
 - cloud integration, 197
 - cloud storage versus, 182
 - differences between public PaaS and, 140
 - economics of, 234–236
 - optimizing, 266
 - physical, 18, 110–111
 - private cloud, 18, 20
 - public cloud, 19
 - storing auditable data in, 169
- data management, 191–205
 - analytics strategy, 201–203
 - big data, 200–201
 - importance of planning out, 262
 - integrating data across environments, 196–199
 - maintaining trustworthy data, 191–196
 - protection options, 217–218
 - talking to providers about, 203–204
- defined, 8
- DevOps, 149–164
 - changes in, 151–152
 - cloud native applications, 157–158
 - containers, 157, 162
 - defined, 138
 - encouraging use of containers, 157
 - external services, 57
 - general discussion of, 22–23
 - microservices, 157, 161, 162
 - overview, 27–28
 - role of APIs, 162–164
 - transitioning to, 149–151
 - value of demand-driven applications, 152–153
 - virtual machines (VMs), 158
- do's and don'ts, 261–266
- ecosystem of, 8
- elasticity, 15–16
 - cloud applications and, 164
 - of cloud storage, 182
 - public IaaS, 113–114
 - SaaS, 122, 166
- elements for, 11–15
 - cloud delivery models, 13–14
 - life cycle, 14–15
 - overview, 11–13
- environments, 89–106
 - continuum of services, 98–99
 - hybrid clouds, 10–11, 97–98
 - integration of, 101–106
 - multicloud, 10–11, 99–101
 - private clouds, 10, 95–97
 - public clouds, 9, 89–95
- IT organizations adopting
 - building for innovation, 24–25
 - business imperatives, 25–26

- cloud computing, 7–20 (continued)
 - business model, 28–29
 - DevOps, 27–28
 - optimizing existing business, 26–27
 - preparing, 23–24
- management services, 17
- multicloud computing and, 100–101
- overview, 8–11
- resources for, 255–259
 - CIO.gov, 259
 - Cloud Security Alliance (CSA), 258
 - Cloud Storage Initiative, 258
 - conferences, 258
 - consortiums, 256
 - councils, 256
 - Open Data Center Alliance (ODCA), 259
 - open source offerings, 257
 - standards organizations, 255–256
 - vendor sites, 258
- self-service provisioning
 - overview, 15–16
 - public IaaS, 114–115
- strategy, 241–251
 - abstracting complexity in the cloud, 250
 - assessing current IT strategy, 243–244
 - balancing costs and benefits, 250–251
 - creating hybrid cloud strategy plan, 245
 - experimenting with options, 244–245
 - future of business, 244
 - importance of planning out, 241–242
 - overview, 246–247
 - plan for implementation, 245–246
 - for providing services, 247–248
 - for successful customer experiences, 248–249
 - supporting dynamic life cycle, 249–250
- workloads, 165–176
 - defined, 16, 166–168
 - managing, 170–172
 - in multicloud environment, 172–175
 - not suited for cloud, 168–169
 - overview, 165–166
 - portability, 175–176
 - resource abstraction and, 169
- Cloud Computing Security Knowledge (CCSK), 67
- Cloud Controls Matrix (CCM), 195
- Cloud Data Management Interface (CDMI), 64
- cloud economics, 225–239
 - balancing costs with requirements, 225–226
 - data center, 234–236
 - hybrid cloud environments
 - balancing, 226–228
 - evaluating costs in, 236–239
 - reaping benefits of, 228–234
 - considering IaaS, 229–230
 - massively scaled application, 232–233
 - overview, 228–229
 - selecting SaaS, 231
- Cloud Foundry platform, 64
- Cloud in a Box, 97
- Cloud Management Working Group (CMWG), 67
- cloud native, 80–83
 - benefits of, 230
 - defined, 81, 157–158
 - DevOps and, 151
 - differentiating, 82–83, 160–161
 - general discussion of, 75
 - importance of, 261–262
 - moving from virtual machines to, 81–82, 159
 - open source, 159–160
 - overview, 80–81
 - Software as a Service (SaaS), 126–127
- Cloud Native Computing Foundation (CNCF), 81, 126–127, 158
- Cloud Platform, Google (GCP), 96, 113, 118, 129
- Cloud Portability and Interoperability Profiles (CPIP), 65
- Cloud Security Alliance (CSA)
 - addressing standards issues, 66–67
 - controls in cloud, 195
 - operational security risks, 208–209
 - overview, 258
 - visiting cloud providers, 214
- cloud security standards, 65–66
- cloud service consumer services, 247
- cloud service creation services, 248

- cloud service providers
 - changing, 99
 - choosing, 187
 - in cloud architecture, 34
 - costs, 117–118
 - CSA tests for, 67
 - data management issues, 203–204
 - developing on platform of, 131–132
 - importance of multiple, 264–265
 - importance of self-service, 49
 - lock-ins, 71, 175
 - offering specialized hardware, 111
 - online resources, 258
 - overview, 35–36
 - for PaaS services, 137
 - prominent, 118
 - role in ecosystem, 8
 - SaaS applications and, 46, 124
 - security risks
 - assessing, 213–216
 - overview, 210–211
 - sharing responsibility, 218–219
 - service level agreements (SLAs)
 - external cloud resources, 49–50
 - importance of, 266
 - internal cloud resources, 52
 - public IaaS, 115
 - SaaS applications and, 46
- cloud services, 73–85
 - advantages of, 262–263
 - application programming interfaces (APIs), 83–84
 - bare metal, 108
 - cloud native, 80–83
 - differentiating, 82–83
 - moving from virtual machines to, 81–82
 - overview, 80–81
 - cloud-enabled applications, 84–85
 - cycle for, 48
 - external services, 56–58
 - application and service lifecycles, 57–58
 - DevOps, 57
 - external system monitoring, 57
 - importance of, 74–75
 - internal services, 53–56
 - constructing dashboards, 56
 - monitoring internal and external systems, 53–56
 - supporting cloud customers, 53
 - microservices, 75–80
 - cataloging, 80
 - containers, 77–78
 - Kubernetes, 78–80
 - managing, 76
 - overview, 75–76
 - modularity, 74
 - purpose of, 250–251
- Cloud Standards Customer Council (CSCC)
 - addressing standards issues, 68–69
 - overview, 256
- cloud storage, 177–187
 - access methods, 178–181
 - benefits of, 182
 - delivery options for, 181–182
 - deploying hybrid, 183–186
 - amount of data, 185
 - billing, 184
 - business continuity, 184
 - interfaces, 183
 - latency, 184–185
 - management, 184
 - network speeds, 185–186
 - reliability, 184
 - security, 183
 - functions of, 182
 - overview, 177–178
 - planning for growth, 186–187
 - choosing providers, 187
 - growth strategy, 186–187
- Cloud Storage Initiative, 258
- Cloud Working Group (CWG), 256
- cloud-bursting, 230
- cloud-enabled applications, 84–85
- CMWG (Cloud Management Working Group), 67
- CNCF (Cloud Native Computing Foundation), 81, 126–127, 158
- code, malicious, 208
- Cognizant, 258

- cold data storage, 103
- collaborative applications, 132–133
- commercial private clouds, 97
- commercial public clouds, 90–92, 109
- common information model, 67
- Common Internet File System (CIFS), 179
- compliance
 - evaluating costs, 237–238
 - as service, 133
- comprehensive cloud provider services, 247
- Computer Associates, 68
- conferences, 258
- Confidentiality, Integrity, and Availability (CIA) Triad, 194
- consortiums
 - overview, 60
 - resources for, 256
- consumers
 - in cloud architecture, 34
 - role in ecosystem, 8
 - self-service for
 - external cloud resources, 49
 - internal cloud resources, 52
- containers, 76, 77–78
 - architectural goals for SaaS applications, 126–127
- DevOps
 - meeting challenges with, 157
 - value of, 162
- latency and, 38
- orchestration platforms, 78
- PaaS deployed in, 138
- virtualization, 77–78
- continuous delivery
 - defined, 150
 - role in CI/CD, 154
- continuous integration and continuous deployment (CI/CD)
 - adapting to user expectations with, 78
- in agile development, 153–154
 - continuous delivery, 154
 - continuous deployment, 154
 - continuous integration, 153
 - continuous testing, 153
 - general discussion of, 150
- challenges of
 - adoption, 154–155
 - in cloud era, 156
- continuous delivery and importance of, 155–156
- opinionated continuous delivery, 154–155
- in SaaS applications, 123
- continuous testing, 153
- continuum of services, 98–99
- corporate computing, 11
- costs
 - balancing cloud economics, 225–226
 - cloud computing strategy, 250–251
 - defining purpose of cloud services, 250–251
 - holistic approach, 251
 - of cloud storage, 182, 204
 - evaluation of on-premises data center, 235–236
 - hybrid cloud storage, 184
 - of IaaS, 144–145
 - increasing with uptime, 50
 - of public IaaS, 117–118
 - of SaaS applications, 127
- councils, 256
- CPIP (Cloud Portability and Interoperability Profiles), 65
- CRD (Custom Resource Definitions), 80
- Create Cloud, 14
- credit card transactions, 192, 202
- CRL (Certificate Revocation List), 65
- CRM (customer relationship management), 9
 - Salesforce, 14, 124–125
 - using SaaS as platform, 130
- CSA (Cloud Security Alliance)
 - addressing standards issues, 66–67
 - controls in cloud, 195
 - operational security risks, 208–209
 - overview, 258
 - visiting cloud providers, 214
- CSCC (Cloud Standards Customer Council)
 - addressing standards issues, 68–69
 - overview, 256
- CSS standard, 62
- Custom Resource Definitions (CRD), 80
- Customer 360 Platform, 124

- customer relationship management (CRM), 9
 - Salesforce, 14, 124–125
 - using SaaS as platform, 130
- customers
 - businesses adapting to expectations, 26–27
 - in cloud architecture, 34
 - combination of public and private cloud services, 119
 - data privacy, 192
 - internal services supporting, 53
 - latency and, 37
 - successful experiences for, 248–249
 - defining the optimal customer experience, 249
 - optimizing for workloads, 249
 - supporting innovation, 248
- CWG (Cloud Working Group), 256
- Cyber Monday, 110

D

- dangerous behaviors, 50–51
- DAS (direct attached storage), 179
- dashboards
 - constructing, 56
 - monitoring resources with, 55
- data breaches, 193
- data centers
 - changing to cloud, 17–20
 - private cloud, 18, 20
 - public cloud, 19
 - cloud integration, 197
 - cloud storage versus, 182
 - differences between public PaaS and, 140
 - economics of, 234–236
 - optimizing, 266
 - physical, 18, 110–111
 - storing auditable data in, 169
- data destruction controls, 195
- data management, 191–205
 - analytics strategy, 201–203
 - big data analytics, 202
 - other cloud analytics, 203
 - big data, 200–201

- characteristics of, 200–201
 - master data management (MDM), 200
- importance of planning out, 262
- integrating across environments, 196–199
 - choosing method for, 198
 - connectivity among clouds, 197–198
 - connectivity in clouds, 198
 - options for cloud data integration, 198–199
 - overview, 196
 - on-premises data center to cloud, 197
- maintaining trustworthy data, 191–196
 - assessing cloud data risks, 192–193
 - controlling customer data privacy, 192
 - overview, 191–192
 - securing data in the cloud, 193–196
- protection options, 217–218
- talking to providers about, 203–204
- data multitenancy, 193
- data sovereignty, 18, 144
- data storage in cloud, 177–187
 - access methods, 178–181
 - benefits of, 182
 - delivery options for, 181–182
 - deploying hybrid cloud storage, 183–186
 - amount of data, 185
 - billing, 184
 - business continuity, 184
 - interfaces, 183
 - latency, 184–185
 - management, 184
 - network speeds, 185–186
 - reliability, 184
 - security, 183
 - functions of, 182
 - overview, 177–178
 - planning for growth, 186–187
 - choosing providers, 187
 - growth strategy, 186–187
 - tiers of storage, 180
- Database as a Service (DBaaS), 133
- database workloads, 168
- de facto standards, 61, 79

- decoupling, 17
- deletion of data, 193
- delivery models, 13–14
 - Infrastructure as a Service (IaaS), 13, 107–120
 - multicloud, 120
 - overview, 107–109
 - private cloud, 119
 - prominent cloud providers, 118
 - public cloud, 109–118
 - Platform as a Service (PaaS), 13–14, 135–145
 - advantages of, 144–145
 - agile development environment, 139–141
 - business value of, 135–136
 - defined by NIST, 138
 - managing software development and deployment life cycle, 138–139
 - middleware services, 141
 - overview, 136–137
 - types of platforms, 141–144
 - Software as a Service (SaaS), 7, 14, 44–47, 121–133
 - cloud native, 126–127
 - economics of, 127–128
 - latency with, 37
 - managing, 44–45
 - multicloud environment and, 128–129
 - multitenancy, 123–124
 - optimizing, 46–47
 - overview, 121–123
 - Salesforce, 124–125
 - using as platform, 130–133
- delivery options for cloud storage, 181–182
- Dell, 67, 258
- Deloitte, 258
- deployment, 36–40
 - flexibility, 40
 - governance, 39
 - hybrid cloud, 39–40, 183–186
 - latency, 37–38
 - with PaaS, 14
 - PaaS managing life cycle of, 138–139
 - security, 39
- designers, role in ecosystem, 8
- development, agile
 - managing, 139–141
 - transitioning to DevOps, 150
- DevOps, 149–164
 - changes in clouds, 151–152
 - cloud native applications, 157–158
 - collaboration, 83
 - differentiating, 160–161
 - moving from VMs to, 159
 - open source, 159–160
 - containers
 - meeting challenges with, 157
 - value of, 162
 - continuous integration and continuous deployment (CI/CD)
 - in agile development, 153–154
 - challenges, 154–155, 156
 - continuous delivery and importance of, 155–156
 - opinionated continuous delivery, 154–155
 - defined, 138
 - external services, 57
 - general discussion of, 22–23
 - microservices, 157
 - foundation of, 161
 - managing, 162
 - overview, 27–28
 - role of APIs, 162–164
 - transitioning to, 149–151
 - importance of agile development, 150
 - transforming security, 150–151
 - value of demand-driven applications, 152–153
 - virtual machines (VMs), 158
- DevSecOps, 150–151, 156
- Digital Signature Standard (DSS), 66
- diplomats, 60
- direct attached storage (DAS), 179
- disaster recovery (DR) services, 104
- Distributed Management Task Force (DMTF), 65, 67
- Docker, 79, 81
- document collaboration, 132–133
- DocuSign, 8
- downtime, 50

DR (disaster recovery) services, 104
Dropbox, 44
DSS (Digital Signature Standard), 66

E

eBay, 202
Eclipse Foundation, 257 economics, cloud, 225–239
 balancing costs with requirements, 225–226
 data center, 234–236
 hybrid cloud environments
 balancing, 226–228
 evaluating costs in, 236–239
 reaping benefits of, 228–234
 considering IaaS, 229–230
 massively scaled application, 232–233
 overview, 228–229
 selecting SaaS, 127–128, 231
 SLAs affecting bottom line, 52 ecosystem of cloud, 8
Elastic Beanstalk, 142
elasticity
 cloud applications and, 164
 of cloud storage, 182
 defined, 15–16
 public IaaS, 113–114
 SaaS
 applications, 122
 workloads, 166
elements, cloud, 11–15
 cloud delivery models, 13–14
 computing resources lifecycle, 14–15
 overview, 11–13
email, 9, 132–133, 232–233, 234 employee sabotage, 208 employees business rules for, 114–115 non-vetted, 211 security risks
 avoiding, 51 creating awareness of, 216 training, 24
encapsulation, 77

encryption, 65–66, 196, 209 end users multitenancy benefits for, 124 open standards and, 59
 risks, 49, 212
enterprise resource planning (ERP), 128, 197 environments of cloud computing, 89–106 continuum of services, 98–99
 hybrid clouds, 10–11, 97–98
 integration of, 101–106
 at application level, 105–106 at data level, 104–105 responsibility for, 103
 at service level, 103–104
 types of, 102
 multicloud, 10–11, 99–101
 private clouds, 10, 95–97
 appliances based on public cloud offerings, 95
 commercial, 97
 private partner cloud, 95–96
 public clouds, 9, 89–95
 commercial, 90–92
 government clouds, 94–95
 open social community clouds, 92–94
 open technical community clouds, 94
ERP (enterprise resource planning), 128, 197 errors, as risks, 208
European Union (EU), 192 external cloud resources, 47–50
 self-service, 49
 service level agreements (SLAs), 49–50 visibility, 47–48
external services, 56–58
 application and service lifecycles, 57–58
 DevOps, 57
 external system monitoring, 57

F

Facebook, 78, 92, 160, 192
Federal CIO Council, 259 federation, 41
File Transfer Protocol (FTP), 179 file-based protocols, 178–179

- financial services, 202
- firewalls
 - complying with regulations, 176
 - identity management and, 216
 - public cloud using, 10
 - for VPNs, 196
- Fission serverless framework, 64
- flash storage, 103
- food court model, 131
- fraud, 208
- free models, 117
- FTP (File Transfer Protocol), 179
- full-stack developers, 141
- function as a service, 113
- furniture companies, 26–27

G

- G Suite, 14, 166
- gaming community, 197–198, 227
- GCP (Google Cloud Platform), 96, 113, 118, 129
- GitHub, 94
- Gmail, 9
- golden master, 129, 199
- Google, 45, 81, 192, 258
- Google App Engine, 142
- Google Cloud Platform (GCP), 96, 113, 118, 129
- Google G Suite, 14, 166
- Google Gmail, 9
- Google Maps, 84
- governance, 207–223
 - batch workloads and, 167
 - creating strategy for, 219–223
 - effective, 222
 - implementing, 221–222
 - measuring and monitoring, 222–223
 - risks, 220–221
 - deployment, 39
 - hybrid cloud environment, 212–219
 - assessing cloud provider, 213–216
 - assessing current state, 213
 - data protection options, 217–218
 - identity management, 216–217
 - sharing responsibility with cloud provider, 218–219
 - role-based access control (RBAC), 51
 - security risks, 208–212
 - cloud provider, 210–211
 - end user risks, 212
 - overview, 208–210
 - using CAM, 47
 - Governance, Risk Management, and Compliance (GRC), 67
 - government clouds, 94–95
 - Graphic Processing Units (GPUs), 9, 111, 166

H

- hackers, 123, 208
- Hannaford Supermarkets, 217
- Harbor registry, 159
- hard disk drives (HDDs), 113, 178
- hardware vendors, 96
- HBAs (Host Bus Adapters), 179
- HDDs (hard disk drives), 178
- Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), 101, 192, 237
- healthcare, 130
- Helm platform, 63, 159
- high performance workloads, 167
- HIPAA (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act), 101, 192, 237
- Host Bus Adapters (HBAs), 179
- HP, 258
- HTML standard, 62
- HTTP (Hypertext Transfer Protocol), 173, 179
- Huawei, 81
- Hurwitz & Associates, 3
- hybrid cloud environments
 - architectural approach to, 41
 - data storage in, 183–186
 - amount of data, 185
 - billing, 184
 - business continuity, 184
 - interfaces, 183
 - latency, 184–185
 - management, 184
 - network speeds, 185–186
 - reliability, 184
 - security, 183

- defined, 10–11
- deployment, 39–40
- economics
 - balancing, 226–228
 - evaluating costs in, 236–239
- managing, 43–58
 - dangerous behaviors, 50–51
 - external cloud resources, 47–50
 - external services, 56–58
 - future of, 58
 - internal cloud resources, 51–52
 - internal services, 53–56
 - overview, 43–44
 - SaaS applications, 44–47
- overview, 97–98
- security, 212–219
 - assessing cloud provider, 213–216
 - assessing current state, 213
 - data protection options, 217–218
 - identity management, 216–217
 - sharing responsibility with cloud provider, 218–219
- service management plans, 263
- Hypertext Transfer Protocol (HTTP), 173, 179

I

IaaS (Infrastructure as a Service), 13, 107–120

- APIs and, 83, 162
- differences between PaaS and, 136
- economic benefits of, 229–230
- multicloud, 120
- overview, 107–109
- private cloud, 119
- prominent cloud providers, 118
- public cloud, 109–118
 - costs, 117–118
 - elasticity, 113–114
 - hardware architecture of, 110–111
 - models for measuring, 115–117
 - overview, 109–110
 - self-service provisioning, 114–115
 - service level agreements (SLAs), 115
 - virtualization, 111–113

- IBM, 68, 81, 111, 258
- IBM Cloud, 118
- icons, used in this book, 2–3
- identity and access management (IAM), 209
- identity management
 - Cloud Access Management (CAM), 47
 - integration, 104
 - security and, 216–217
- incident handling, 209
- Independent Software Vendors (ISVs), 125, 130, 131
- industry consortiums, 60
- Information Systems Audit and Control Association (ISACA), 67
- Infrastructure as a Service (IaaS), 13, 107–120
 - APIs and, 83, 162
 - differences between PaaS and, 136
 - economic benefits of, 229–230
 - multicloud, 120
 - overview, 107–109
 - private cloud, 119
 - prominent cloud providers, 118
 - public cloud, 109–118
 - costs, 117–118
 - elasticity, 113–114
 - hardware architecture of, 110–111
 - models for measuring, 115–117
 - overview, 109–110
 - self-service provisioning, 114–115
 - service level agreements (SLAs), 115
 - virtualization, 111–113
- input validation controls, 194
- instant messaging, 132–133
- integration, cloud, 101–106
 - at application level, 102, 105–106
 - of data, 196–199
 - choosing method for, 198
 - connectivity among clouds, 197–198
 - connectivity in clouds, 198
 - options for cloud data integration, 198–199
 - overview, 102, 104–105, 196
 - on-premises data center to cloud, 197
- evaluating costs, 237
- responsibility for, 103
- at service level, 102, 103–104
- types of, 102

- Intel, 81
- intellectual property (IP), 46
- internal cloud resources, 51–52
 - role of internal SLAs, 52
 - self-service, 52
- internal services, 53–56
 - constructing dashboards, 56
 - monitoring internal and external systems, 53–56
 - supporting cloud customers, 53
- International Organization for Standards (ISO), 60
- Internet of Things (IoT), 186
- Internet SCSI (iSCSI), 179
- interoperability
 - defined, 62–64
 - risks with, 221
- IoT (Internet of Things), 186
- IP (intellectual property), 46
- ISACA (Information Systems Audit and Control Association), 67
- iSCSI (Internet SCSI), 179
- ISO (International Organization for Standards), 60
- Istio service mesh, 63, 79
- ISVs (Independent Software Vendors), 125, 130, 131
- IT organizations, 21–29
 - adopting cloud strategy, 22–29
 - building for innovation, 24–25
 - business imperatives, 25–26
 - business model, 28–29
 - DevOps, 27–28
 - optimizing existing business, 26–27
 - preparing, 23–24
 - assessing current strategy, 243–244
 - collaborating with businesses, 45
 - legacy applications, 22–23
 - preparing for outages, 46
 - transformation of, 22

K

- Kaavo, 68
- Kanban, 150
- Kaniko tool, 79
- Key Management Interoperability Protocol (KMIP), 66
- Key Performance Indicators (KPIs), 56

- keys, 65–66, 209
- Knative, 64
- Kubernetes, 159
 - CI/CD and, 157
 - development of standards and, 61
 - open source standards, 63
 - overview, 78–80

L

- latency
 - of cloud storage, 181, 184–185
 - considering with cost, 234
 - deployment, 37–38
 - storage access and, 104
 - workloads with low, 169
- lawsuits, 96, 97
- LDAP (Lightweight Directory Access Protocol), 104
- legacy applications, 22–23
- legacy workloads, 169
- licenses
 - model, 116
 - multiple business units, 47
 - over investing in, 265
- life cycle of cloud computing
 - applications and services, 57–58
 - overview, 14–15
 - supporting dynamic, 42, 249–250
- Lightweight Directory Access Protocol (LDAP), 104
- LinkedIn, 92, 98, 192
- Linux, 112, 144, 158
- Linux Foundation, 257
- load balancing, 171
- location
 - SaaS applications and, 129
 - security of data and, 193–194
- lock-ins, 71, 175
- logs, 55
- Lyft, 21

M

- machine learning (ML), 56, 111, 205
- malicious code, 208

- Malstone, 69
- MapReduce, 202
- Maps, 84
- Mass Open Cloud, 94
- master data management (MDM), 200
- mean time between failures (MTBF), 90, 115
- mean time to repair (MTTR), 90
- messaging, instant, 132–133
- microservices, 75–80
 - architectural goals for SaaS applications, 126–127
 - cataloging, 80
 - containers, 77–78
 - orchestration platforms, 78
 - virtualization, 77–78
 - DevOps, 157
 - benefits of, 161
 - managing, 162
 - Kubernetes, 78–80
 - latency and, 38
 - managing, 76
 - overview, 75–76
 - serverless computing and, 113
- Microsoft, 96, 258
- Microsoft Azure, 113, 118, 142, 181
- Microsoft Office 365, 8, 166
- Microsoft Windows, 112
- middleware services
 - Platform as a Service (PaaS), 141
 - workloads as, 166
- ML (machine learning), 56, 111, 205
- mobile app developers, 110
- modularity, 74
- monitoring as a service, 133
- Moore's Law, 118
- MTBF (mean time between failures), 90, 115
- MTTR (mean time to repair), 90
- multicloud computing, 100–101
- multicloud environments
 - choosing, reasons for, 99–101
 - defined, 10–11
 - managing, 43–58
 - dangerous behaviors, 50–51
 - external cloud resources, 47–50
 - external services, 56–58
 - future of, 58
 - internal cloud resources, 51–52
 - internal services, 53–56
 - overview, 43–44
 - SaaS applications, 44–47
 - service management plans, 263
 - Software as a Service (SaaS), 128–129
 - standards, 59–71
 - categories of cloud-related, 61–66
 - defined, 59–60
 - evolution of, 60–61
 - impact on multicloud, 70–71
 - organizations addressing issues of, 66–70
 - workloads in, 172–175
 - APIs, 173–175
 - general discussion of, 16
 - operationalized, 172–173
- multicloud IaaS, 120
- multinational bodies, 60
- multitenancy
 - bare metal IaaS and, 108
 - cloud provider risks, 210
 - data, 193
 - defined, 12
 - general discussion of, 9
 - SaaS
 - applications, 166
 - benefits of, 122, 123–124

N

- NAS (network addressable storage), 180
- NASA, 257
- National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST), 35
 - addressing standards issues, 68
 - Cloud Computing Standards Roadmap, 66
 - definition of PaaS, 138
 - interoperability standards, 64
 - levels of maturity, 61
 - overview, 255
 - security risk categories, 208

Netflix, 28, 78, 160

network

- monitoring, 17

- services, 235

- speeds

 - hybrid cloud storage, 185–186

 - workloads and, 169

network addressable storage (NAS), 180

Network File System (NFS), 179

NIST (National Institute of Standards and Technology), 35

- addressing standards issues, 68

- Cloud Computing Standards Roadmap, 66

- definition of PaaS, 138

- interoperability standards, 64

- levels of maturity, 61

- overview, 255

- security risk categories, 208

O

OASIS (Organization for the Advancement of Structured Information Standards), 60, 66, 256

Object Management Group (OMG), 68

OCC (Open Commons Consortium), 69

OCCI (Open Cloud Computing Interface), 64, 257

ODCA (Open Data Center Alliance), 259

Office 365, 8, 166

OMG (Object Management Group), 68

OMG Cloud Workin Group, 256

omissions, as risks, 208 online gaming community, 197–198, 227 online references

- Apache Hadoop, 201

- cheat sheet for this book, 3

- CIO.gov, 259

- Cloud Security Alliance (CSA), 66, 258

- cloud service providers, 258

- Cloud Standards Customer Council (CSCC), 68

- Cloud Storage Initiative, 258

- conferences, 258

- consortiums, 256

- councils, 256

- Distributed Management Task Force (DMTF), 67

Hurwitz & Associates, 3

NIST Cloud Computing Standards Roadmap, 66, 68

NIST Cloud Reference Model, 35

Object Management Group (OMG), 68

Open Commons Consortium (OCC), 69

Open Data Center Alliance (ODCA), 259

open source offerings, 257

PaaS defined, 138

standards organizations, 255–256

vertical industry groups, 70

Open Cloud Computing Interface (OCCI), 64, 257

Open Commons Consortium (OCC), 69

Open Data Center Alliance (ODCA), 259

Open Group

- addressing standards issues, 69

- general discussion of, 60

- overview, 256

open PaaS, 144

Open Services for Lifecycle Collaboration (OSLC), 64

open social community clouds, 92–94

open source offerings, 257

open standards, 59

open technical community clouds, 94

Open Tracing tool, 79

Open Virtualization Format (OVF), 65, 67

OpenShift platform, 64

OpenStack, 257

Operating expenses (OpEx), 232

operationalized workloads, 172–173

opinionated continuous delivery, 154–155

Oracle Cloud, 118, 258

orchestration platforms, 78

orchestration services, 76

Organization for the Advancement of Structured Information Standards (OASIS), 60, 66, 256

OSLC (Open Services for Lifecycle Collaboration), 64 output reconciliation controls, 195

OVF (Open Virtualization Format), 65, 67

P

PaaS (Platform as a Service), 13–14, 135–145

- advantages of, 144–145

- agile development, 139–141

- business value of, 135–136
- defined by NIST, 138
- environments, 140
- managing software development and deployment
 - life cycle, 138–139
- middleware services, 141
- overview, 136–137
- SaaS as platforms and, 130
- types of platforms, 141–144
 - open PaaS, 144
 - private PaaS, 143–144
 - public PaaS, 142–143
- passwords, 50
- pay-as-you-go models, 91, 107, 116, 144
 - cloud storage, 184
 - talking to providers about, 204
- Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard (PCI DSS), 67, 237
- PayPal, 91
- PGP, 67
- pharmaceutical companies, 131
- physical data centers, 18, 110–111
- PKI (Public Key Infrastructure), 65
- Platform as a Service (PaaS), 13–14, 135–145
 - advantages of, 144–145
 - agile development, 139–141
 - business value of, 135–136
 - defined by NIST, 138
 - environments, 140
 - managing software development and deployment
 - life cycle, 138–139
 - middleware services, 141
 - overview, 136–137
 - SaaS as platforms and, 130
 - types of platforms, 141–144
 - open PaaS, 144
 - private PaaS, 143–144
 - public PaaS, 142–143
- platforms
 - PaaS, 141–144
 - open PaaS, 144
 - private PaaS, 143–144
 - public PaaS, 142–143
 - using SaaS as, 130–133
 - application developers, 130–131
 - developing on vendor's platform, 131–132
 - examples of, 132–133
- policies and rules
 - architectural plan, 39
 - in hybrid cloud environment, 40–41
- portability
 - defined, 64–65
 - general discussion of, 142
 - multicloud computing and, 100
 - in PaaS environments, 140
 - planning for, 263
 - workload portability, 175–176
- private clouds, 95–97
 - appliances based on public cloud offerings, 95
 - choosing, reasons for, 20
 - commercial, 97
 - defined, 10
 - examples of using, 18
 - private partner cloud, 95–96
- private IaaS, 13, 119
- private PaaS, 143–144
- private partner clouds, 95–96
- processing controls, 195
- programmable APIs, 173
- project planning, 132–133
- Prometheus monitoring tool, 79
- providers
 - changing, 99
 - choosing, 187
 - in cloud architecture, 34
 - costs, 117–118
 - CSA tests for, 67
 - data management issues, 203–204
 - developing on platform of, 131–132
 - importance of multiple, 264–265
 - importance of self-service, 49
 - lock-ins, 71, 175
 - offering specialized hardware, 111
 - online resources, 258
 - overview, 35–36
 - for PaaS services, 137
 - prominent, 118

providers (continued)

- role in ecosystem, 8
- SaaS applications and, 46, 124
- security risks
 - assessing, 213–216
 - overview, 210–211
 - sharing responsibility, 218–219
- service level agreements (SLAs)
 - external cloud resources, 49–50
 - importance of, 266
 - internal cloud resources, 52
 - public IaaS, 115
 - SaaS applications and, 46
- public clouds, 89–95, 109–118
 - commercial, 90–92
 - costs, 117–118
 - defined, 9
 - elasticity, 113–114
 - examples of using, 19
 - expectations of, 57–58
 - government clouds, 94–95
 - hardware architecture of, 110–111
 - models for measuring, 115–117
 - free models, 117
 - licensing model, 116
 - pay-as-you-go models, 116
 - SaaS models, 116–117
 - subscription models, 117
 - monitoring resources imported from, 54–55
 - open social community clouds, 92–94
 - open technical community clouds, 94
 - overview, 109–110
 - self-service provisioning, 114–115
 - service level agreements (SLAs), 115
 - virtualization, 111–113
- public IaaS, 13
- Public Key Infrastructure (PKI), 65
- public PaaS, 140, 142–143

Q

- Quality of Service (QoS), 41
- QualSys, 67

R

- Rackspace, 68, 257
- RBAC (role-based access control), 51
- Red Hat Enterprise Linux, 112
- Red Hat OpenShift, 142
- reidentification controls, 195
- releases, 139
- reliability, of hybrid cloud storage, 184
- Representational State Transfer (REST) APIs
 - accessing cloud storage by, 181
 - defined, 173
 - Open Cloud Computing Interface (OCCI) using, 64
 - for web services, 178
- reserved pricing, 116
- resource pools, 12
- resources for cloud computing, 255–259
 - CIO.gov, 259
 - Cloud Security Alliance (CSA), 258
 - Cloud Storage Initiative, 258
 - conferences, 258
 - consortiums, 256
 - councils, 256
 - Open Data Center Alliance (ODCA), 259
 - open source offerings, 257
 - standards organizations, 255–256
 - vendor sites, 258
- REST (Representational State Transfer) APIs
 - accessing cloud storage by, 181
 - defined, 173
 - Open Cloud Computing Interface (OCCI) using, 64
 - for web services, 178
- retail, 110, 202
- risks
 - assessing cloud data, 192–193
 - of CI/CD adoption, 155
 - cloud storage, 186–187
 - security, 208–212
 - cloud provider, 210–211
 - end user risks, 212
 - overview, 208–210
 - social media, 51
 - role-based access control (RBAC), 51

- round-robin algorithm, 171
- rules and policies
 - architectural plan, 39
 - in hybrid cloud environment, 40–41

S

- SaaS (Software as a Service), 7, 14, 44–47, 121–133
 - APIs and, 83, 162
 - cloud native, 126–127
 - economic benefits of, 231
 - costs and fees, 127–128
 - overview, 229
 - latency with, 37
 - managing, 44–45
 - models, 116–117
 - multicloud environment and, 128–129
 - multitenancy, 123–124
 - optimizing, 46–47
 - overview, 121–123
 - Salesforce, 124–125
 - using as platform, 130–133
 - application developers, 130–131
 - developing on vendor's platform, 131–132
 - examples of, 132–133
 - workloads, 166
- SaaS business applications, 132
- SaaS collaborative applications, 132–133
- SaaS development services, 133
- Salesforce, 91, 258
 - operating from physical data centers, 129
 - as PaaS platform, 14
 - as Software as a Service (SaaS) pioneer, 124–125
- SAN (storage area network), 179
- Sarbanes–Oxley (SOX), 237
- SATA interface, 178
- Scrum, 150
- SDOs (Standards Developing Organizations), 62
- seats, 127
- Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), 180
- security, 207–223
 - Cloud Security Alliance (CSA), 66–67
 - cloud security standards, 65–66

- commercial public clouds, 90, 93
- creating strategy for, 219–223
 - effective governance, 222
 - governance risks, 220–221
 - implementing, 221–222
 - measuring and monitoring, 222–223
- of data in cloud, 193–196
 - control of data in the cloud, 194–195
 - location, 193–194
 - secure transport, 195–196
- deployment, 39
- DevSecOps, 150–151
- general discussion of, 18
- for hybrid cloud environment, 212–219
 - assessing cloud provider, 213–216
 - assessing current state, 213
 - cloud storage, 183
 - data protection options, 217–218
 - identity management, 216–217
 - sharing responsibility with cloud provider, 218–219
- importance of, 264
- public SaaS applications and, 46
- risks, 208–212
 - cloud provider, 210–211
 - end user risks, 212
 - overview, 208–210
- social media risks, 51
- standards for, 65–66
- Security, Trust & Assurance Registry (STAR), 67
- security as a service, 133
- self-service clouds
 - external cloud resources, 49
 - IaaS services, 108
 - internal cloud resources, 52
 - overview, 18
 - SaaS vendors supporting, 122
- self-service provisioning
 - defined, 15–16
 - public IaaS, 114–115
- semi-structured data, 201
- server costs, 235
- serverless computing, 113
- serverless frameworks, 64

- service level agreements (SLAs)
 - for commercial public clouds, 90–91
 - external cloud resources, 49–50
 - importance of, 266
 - internal cloud resources, 52
 - public IaaS, 115
 - SaaS applications and, 46
- Service Oriented Architecture (SOA), 75
- ServiceNow, 14, 258
- services, 247–248
 - cloud service consumer services, 247
 - cloud service creation services, 248
 - comprehensive cloud provider services, 247
 - SaaS development, 133
- SEWG (Software Entitlement Working Group), 67
- shadow IT, 45
- silos, 104
- Slack, 8, 166
- SLAs (service level agreements)
 - for commercial public clouds, 90–91
 - external cloud resources, 49–50
 - importance of, 266
 - internal cloud resources, 52
 - public IaaS, 115
 - SaaS applications and, 46
- SNIA (Storage Networking Industry Association)
 - addressing standards issues, 69–70
 - developing CDMI, 64
 - overview, 258
- SOA (Service Oriented Architecture), 75
- social networking, 51, 92, 192, 202, 233
- Software AG, 68
- Software as a Service (SaaS), 7, 14, 44–47, 121–133
 - APIs and, 83, 162
 - cloud native, 126–127
 - economic benefits of, 231
 - costs and fees, 127–128
 - overview, 229
 - latency with, 37
 - managing, 44–45
 - models, 116–117
 - multicloud environment and, 128–129
 - multitenancy, 123–124
 - optimizing, 46–47
 - overview, 121–123
 - Salesforce, 124–125
 - using as platform, 130–133
 - application developers, 130–131
 - developing on vendor’s platform, 131–132
 - examples of, 132–133
 - workloads, 166
- software development
 - cloud computing helping, 15
 - IaaS model, 230
 - importance of managing, 265
 - PaaS managing, 138–139
 - workloads updating, 170
- Software Entitlement Working Group (SEWG), 67
- software stack, 112
- solid state drives (SSDs), 113
- SOX (Sarbanes–Oxley), 237
- Spark Core, 201
- sprints, 139
- SSOs (Standards Setting Organizations), 62
- standardization, 8
- standards, 59–71
 - categories of cloud-related, 61–66
 - interoperability, 62–64
 - portability, 64–65
 - security, 65–66
 - defined, 59–60
 - evolution of, 60–61
 - impact on multicloud, 70–71
 - organizations addressing issues of, 66–70
 - Cloud Security Alliance (CSA), 66–67
 - Cloud Standards Customer Council (CSCC), 68–69
 - Distributed Management Task Force (DMTF), 67
 - National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST), 68
 - Open Group, 69
 - overview, 255–256
 - Storage Networking Industry Association (SNIA), 69–70
 - vertical industry groups, 70
- Standards Developing Organizations (SDOs), 62
- Standards Setting Organizations (SSOs), 62

STAR (Security, Trust & Assurance Registry), 67 stateless operation, 113, 173 storage elasticity and, 15–16
 as Infrastructure as a Service (IaaS), 13 storage service integration, 103–104 storage area network (SAN), 179
Storage Networking Industry Association (SNIA)
 addressing standards issues, 69–70
 developing CDMI, 64
 overview, 258
strategies analytics, 201–203
 big data analytics, 202
 other cloud analytics, 203
 cloud computing, 241–251
 abstracting complexity in the cloud, 250
 assessing current IT strategy, 243–244
 balancing costs and benefits, 250–251
 creating hybrid cloud strategy plan, 245
 experimenting with options, 244–245
 future of business, 244 importance of planning out, 241–242
 overview, 246–247
 plan for implementation, 245–246
 for providing services, 247–248
 for successful customer experiences, 248–249
 supporting dynamic life cycle, 249–250
 cloud growth, 186–187
 IT organizations adopting cloud, 22–29
 building for innovation, 24–25
 business imperatives, 25–26
 business model, 28–29
 DevOps, 27–28
 optimizing existing business, 26–27
 preparing, 23–24
 security, 219–223
 effective governance, 222
 governance risks, 220–221
 implementing, 221–222
 measuring and monitoring, 222–223 structured data, 200 subscription models, 117
SugarCRM, 129

SUSE operating system, 112
Swarm platform, 79

T

TCO (total cost of ownership), 238
TeleManagement Forum (TM Forum), 70 theft, 208
tiers of storage, 103, 180
tokenization, 218 total cost of ownership (TCO), 238 traditional security, 208–209 transactional workloads, 167 transferring data, 237 transparency, 24
transport, security of data in, 195–196
Twitter, 81, 92

U

Uber, 21, 28, 78, 160
Ubuntu operating system, 112
Univa, 81
unstructured data, 201 upgrading applications, 57, 124
uptime, 50, 204
USB storage devices, 179

V

Veeva Systems, 131 vendors changing, 99
 choosing, 187
 in cloud architecture, 34
 costs, 117–118
 CSA tests for, 67
 data management issues, 203–204
 developing on platform of, 131–132
 importance of multiple, 264–265
 importance of self-service, 49
 lock-ins, 71, 175
 offering specialized hardware, 111
 online resources, 258
 overview, 35–36

- vendors (continued)
 - for PaaS services, 137
 - prominent, 118
 - role in ecosystem, 8
 - SaaS applications and, 46, 124
 - security risks
 - assessing, 213–216
 - overview, 210–211
 - sharing responsibility, 218–219
 - service level agreements (SLAs)
 - external cloud resources, 49–50
 - importance of, 266
 - internal cloud resources, 52
 - public IaaS, 115
 - SaaS applications and, 46
- vertical industry groups, 70
- virtual machines (VMs)
 - to cloud native applications, 81–82, 158
 - containers and, 77–78
 - scaling greater storage on, 110–111
 - server costs versus, 232
 - workloads in, 169
- virtual private cloud (VPC), 143
- virtual private network (VPN), 196
- virtualization
 - containers and, 77–78
 - data virtualization solutions, 199
 - defined, 17
 - IT organizations unprepared for, 22
 - public IaaS, 111–113
 - security issues with, 194
 - storage challenges, 179
- visibility, external cloud resources, 47–48
- VMs (virtual machines)
 - to cloud native applications, 81–82, 158
 - containers and, 77–78
 - scaling greater storage on, 110–111
 - server costs versus, 232
 - workloads in, 169

- VMware, 81, 258
- VPC (virtual private cloud), 143
- VPN (virtual private network), 196

W

- W3C (World Wide Web Consortium), 60, 62
- Wayfair, 21
- web conferencing, 132–133
- Web-based Distribution Authoring and Versioning (WebDAV), 179, 181
- Windows, 112
- Wipro, 258
- wireless connectivity standard, 175
- Workday, 166
- workloads, 165–176
 - defined, 16, 166–168
 - economic benefit for, 228
 - managing, 170–172
 - with multicloud computing, 100
 - in multicloud environment, 172–175
 - APIs, 173–175
 - operationalized, 172–173
 - not suited for cloud, 168–169
 - optimizing, 41–42
 - optimizing for customers, 249
 - overview, 165–166
 - portability, 175–176
 - resource abstraction and, 169
- World Wide Web Consortium (W3C), 60, 62

X

- XML standard, 62, 173

Z

- Zendesk, 14
- z/OS operating system, 112