Index

Numerics

2-2-3 schedule, 112–113
2-2-5-5 schedule, 114–115
3-4-4-3 schedule, 113–114
7-7 schedule, 116

A

abuse
  alcohol, 110
  child, 110
  emotional, safety concerns, 180–181 physical, safety concerns, 180 sexual, safety concerns, 181–182 abuser, 226
acceptance, C.A.R.E., 15, 52
  coordinating safety concerns, 186
  as guide for dating, 89–90
ACEs. See adverse childhood experiences (ACEs) ADHD, children with, 205 adverse childhood experiences (ACEs), 18
The Adverse Childhood Experience Study (Felitti & Anda), 18 age-appropriate supervision, 175 age of the children, 120 alcohol abuse, 110
alimony. See spousal support alternating weeks (7-7 schedule), 116 anger
  C.A.R.E. approach, 145
  and frustration, management, 226–227 managing, 145
anniversaries and personal milestones, 259 announcements
  coping with C.A.R.E., 266–268 and invitations, 270–272 reaching out for support in unexpected places, 268–269 telling your adult children, 269
    children, 266–268
    co-parent, 265–266
    young children, 266
  testing the waters, 268
  timing of, 278
anxiety, 230–231
anxious attachment, 133
Aspire News app, 229
attachment
  anxious, 133
  avoidant, 133
  disorganized, 133
  secure, 133
  styles, 133
Attachment and Loss (Bowlby), 133 attitudes, "I don't care", 206
avoidant attachment, 133

B

back-and-forth cadence of co-parenting, 245–246 back-and-forth lifestyle, 75–76 accepting your new life, 76–77
  non-negotiables, 77–81
    clear expectations, 78
    encourage the love of both parents, 81
    keep the schedule predictable, 80
    keep unified standards for health and safety, 81
    maintain autonomy in each home, 80
    maintain consistency between homes, 78 respect for parent's role, 78
    transparency, not control, 78–80

COPYRIGHTED MATERIAL

baptisms, 255
Bar and Bas Mitzvas, 256–257
Bar/Bat Mitzvah, 256
Bar Mitzva, 257
bed-sharing, 224
behavior
  collaborative co-parenting, 34
  passive-aggressive, 41
  regressed, 132
best parent trap, 42
biological parent, 278
birthdays
  children, 127–128
  parents, 127–128
  parties, 257
body-based calming, 234
BONUS (Brief Only Necessary Useful Statements), 64 bonus mom, 160
bonus parents, 295
Bowlby, John, 133
box breathing, 209
breakup, grieving after, 202–207 stress shows up in children, 203–207 infants and toddlers, 203–204
    preschool-age children, 204
    preteens, 206–207
    school-age children, 204–206
    teenagers, 207
breakup, through your child's eyes, 202 breathing, 233
  practice, 208–209
bridal showers, 272–274
Bright Sky app, 229
bSafe app, 229

C

C.A.R.E.
  coordinating safety concerns using, 185
  co-parenting with, 14–16
    acceptance, 15
    communication, 14
    empathy, 15–16
    respect, 15
  before courtroom checklist, 52–53 deciding when to introduce children, 98–99
  as guide for dating, 89–91
    acceptance, 89–90
    communication, 89
    empathy, 90–91
    respect, 90
  to guide holiday negotiations, 246 model, negative chain reaction, 63 raising healthy kids with, 16–17
Catch-22, 221
CBT. See cognitive behavioral therapy (CBT) celebration
  public vs private, 279
  school, 257–258
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), 225
ceremony
  children in, 276–280
    navigating challenges, 278–279
  commitment, 276
  finding the place in, 279–280
  planning, 291–296
  wedding, 276
certified medical examiners (CMEs), 182
"check your mindset", 31–33
  looking for shift, 32–33
  thoughts become action, 32
child-centered focus, 16 childhood injuries vs warning signs, 193–195 child protective services (CPS), 180, 196–197
children
  with ADHD, 205
  age of, 120
  birthdays, 127–128
  in ceremony, 276–280
    navigating challenges, 278–279
  closing roles, 279
  cognitive behavioral therapy (CBT) for, 209–210 in documenting separations, 132

in engagement, 273–274
fighting in front of, 28–29 future, long-term vision, 16 opening roles, 279
parenting plan, flexibility, 124 perceive your dating life, 91–93 as ready to be left alone, 191–192 in reception, 282–283
sense of security and predictability, 198 separation anxiety in, 131–135
sleeping, 224–225
spiritual needs, addressing, 211–212 support roles, 279
taking it slow when your date, 100–101 understand separation, 132
witnessing roles, 279
children, deciding when to introduce, 95–100 addressing a difference in morals, 97–98
compromise, 98
identify the problem, 97
negotiate, 98
suggest a child-focused solution, 98
answering your children's big questions, 100
avoiding social media pitfalls, 96
C.A.R.E. approach, 98–99
sexual boundaries without hypocrisy, 96–97
child support, 47
arbitrary monetary amount calculate, 140–141 consequences for nonpayment, 142
court get involve, 141
parent fails to pay, 145–146 parents think of, 140
payments, 142
purpose of, 140–142
Christenings, 255
Christmas, holiday management, 253
CMEs. See certified medical examiners (CMEs) cognitive behavioral therapy (CBT), for kids, 209–210
collaborative co-parenting, 99
behavior, 34 coming-of-age celebrations, 256 commitment ceremony, 276 for domestic partnership, 264
communication
agree on the method of, 39 breakdown, 56–57
C.A.R.E., 14, 52, 89
between co-parents, 39–42 empathy in action, 71
as foundation, 72
impact of texting on co-parenting, 63–67 active listening, 65–67
editorializing, 63–65
words make a difference, 66–67
improving, 55–58, 122
builds trust, 62
communicates respect, 62 encourages reciprocity, 62 invites collaboration, 62
in-person, 65
mindful, 16
resolution built on collaboration, 57–58 tact and timing, 70
tone, 70–71
triggers, 67–68
breaking the pattern, 67 different response, 68
and rituals, 67
with your co-parent about dating, 93–95
co-parent refuses to collaborate, 93–94 co-parent starts dating, 94–95 communication tool, curiosity as, 68–69 confidant, making your child your, 223–224 conversations, emotions run high pause or reschedule, 42 cooperation and unity, 16
coordinating safety concerns
dealing with home comparisons, 188–189
putting C.A.R.E. into practice, 188
using C.A.R.E., 185
acceptance, 186
communication, 185–186
empathy, 187–188
respect, 187

co-parenting, 11–12
with C.A.R.E., 14–16
acceptance, 15
communication, 14
empathy, 15–16
respect, 15
interaction, groundwork for better, 22–23 logistics, setting up, 46 mantra, 12
"put the children first", 12
role, balancing new commitments, 284 shifting from combative to collaborative, 22 as so important, 13–14
truths in, 29–31
only one co-parent as invested, 31
stepping up with respect and kindness, 30
co-parenting communication, 70–72 impact of texting on, 63–67
active listening, 65–67
editorializing, 63–65
words make a difference, 66–67
co-parenting plan, designing, 45–51 anticipating conflict, 47–51 checking in and evaluating the plan, 51 decision-making protocols, 46–47 determining financial responsibility, 47 public appearances and expectations, 47 schedules, 46
setting up co-parenting logistics, 46 tracking progress and celebrating wins, 51 co-parenting team, 152–154 address problems immediately, 153 adjusting when another breakup occurs, 168–170 celebrate wins, 154
choose how you'll communicate, 152–153 creating boundaries to protect the team, 155–156 define your mission: "the children come first", 152 develop consistency across households, 154 family balance extend, 156–157 identify your niche, 152 management for long run, 155–161
new partners
adding, 159–160
healthy boundaries for, 161 new team members, adding, 159 nurturing team trust and transparency, 166–167 rebuild trust, 153
responding when children test allegiances, 158–159 situations management, 162–166 conducting the meeting, 165–166 dealing with extended family overstepping, 164 making repairs after team breakdowns, 164–165 rebalancing the team, 163–164 two-against-one dynamic, 162–163 supporting your co-parent, 157–158 team's mission statement, 160 use C.A.R.E. to communicate effectively, 153 co-parent vows, 280–282
choosing partnership over control, 281
continuity for children, 281
grounded partnership, 281
quiet strength, 282
respecting all bonds, 281
core co-parenting goals, identifying, 36–45 child's emotional, psychological, and physical well-being, 36–38 avoid badmouthing, 37
ensure your child feels heard, validated, and loved, 38 maintain consistent routines, 38 protect your children from adult conflicts, 37 encouraging positive relationships with both parents, 45 fostering healthy communication between co-parents, 39–42 agree to respond respectfully and promptly, 41 agree to share information, 42 make it your business, 39 make it your business checklist, 39–40 make it your business exercise, 40–41 pause or reschedule conversations, 42 maintaining stability and predictability, 43–45 keep parenting schedules consistent, 43 respect each other's time and household rules, 44–45 set clear boundaries around new relationships, 43–44 co-sleeping, 224–225

countless co-parents, 23 court-ordered custody agreements, flexibility in, 122 court-ordered parenting plans, 122 courtroom checklist, C.A.R.E. before, 52–53
CPS. See child protective services (CPS) curiosity, as communication tool, 68–69 custody equal, 108
joint, professionals' advice regarding, 121 legal, 108
joint, 108
sole, 108
parenting plans, joint, 13 physical, 108
shared, 108
custody decisions, impact on, 110 abusing drugs or alcohol, 110 existence of an abusive past, 110 existence of past child abuse, 110

D

dating
after a breakup, 103
C.A.R.E. as guide for, 89–91
acceptance, 89–90
communication, 89
empathy, 90–91
respect, 90
communication with your co-parent about, 93–95
co-parent refuses to collaborate, 93–94
co-parent starts, 94–95 dealing with breakups after introductions, 103–104
mindful, 86–87, 101
self-check, 105
primary rule of, 99
on your own time, 91
dating life
children perceive your, 91–93 with your co-parent, 88–91
deadbeat, 145
decision fatigue, 221–222
decision-making protocols, 46–47
deep breathing, 233
depression
situational and chronic, 232 symptoms of, 231–232
developmental safety, safe environment, 176 discipline, inappropriate, 222–223 disorganized attachment, 133 domestic partnership, 264 commitment ceremonies for, 264 domestic violence, 225–226 stress and, 225–228
drug, past, 110

E

eBodyGuard app, 229
Eid, holiday management, 253–254 emotional abuse, safety concerns, 180–181 emotional entanglement, 224 emotionally preparation in both homes, marriage, 286–287 emotional overload, parenting, and co-parenting, 221–225 emotional predictability development, 210–211 emotional safety, safe environment, 175 emotional strings, handling financial contributions without, 287–288 emotional support, support groups for, 121 emotions
dealing with unexpected, 276 managed, 16
naming, 208
run high, pause or reschedule conversations, 42 unacknowledged or unaddressed, 276
empathy, 246
in action, 71
C.A.R.E., 15–16, 52, 90–91
encouragement, 27

engagement, children in, 273–274 equal custody, 108
  parenting schedules, 112–118
    2-2-3 schedule, 112–113
    2-2-5-5 schedule, 114–115
    3-4-4-3 schedule, 113–114
    7-7 schedule, 116
    parallel parenting, 116–117
  vs shared custody, 108–109 expectations, for family and friends, 270 extracurricular milestones, 257–258

F

family and friends, setting expectations for, 270 family court, returning to, 51–53 family-oriented shower, 273 family's anxiety, coping with whole, 134 Father's day, 129
  holiday management, 254–255
fighting, in front of kids, 28–29 financial contributions, without emotional strings, 287–288 financial responsibility, determination, 47 flexibility
  children's parenting plan, 124 in court-ordered custody agreements, 122 forgotten holidays, 127–128
Four-Step Problem-Solving Model, 48–51, 97 come to the table with a solution, 49
  compromise, 50
  identify the problem, 49
  negotiate, 49–50
front of kids, fighting in, 28–29 functional utilities, 175
funerals, 258–259

G

gift-giving, 247–250
  co-parent asks you to take the lead, 249 with extended family, 249–250 presents for co-parents, 248 presents for the children, 247 presents from the children, 248–249 when children live far away, 248 goodbye without the guilt, 245 good ex etiquette, 1–2
  ten rules of, 299–304
    ask each other for help if you need it, 300–301
    be honest and straightforward, 303
    biological parents make the rules, 301–302
    compromise whenever possible, 304
    don't be spiteful or hold grudges, 302
    don't hold grudges, 302
    no badmouthing, 300
    put the children first, 300
    respect each other's turf, 303–304
    use empathy when problem-solving, 302–303
graduations, 258
grief, stages of, 202–203 guest lists, creating, 274–275 guided meditation, 234
guilt, goodbye without, 245

H

Halloween, holiday management, 252
Hanukkah, holiday management, 252–253 hazard prevention, 175
healthy communication, between co-parents, 39–42 holiday
  celebrations, reasonable expectations, 240–243 celebrating separately or together, 243 children and the extended family, 241 keeping a family feel for all occasions, 241–242 taking sides, 242
  forgotten, 127–128
  ground rules, 246
  management, 252–255
    Christmas, 253
    Eid, 253–254
    Halloween, 252
    Hanukkah, 252–253

Mother's Day and Father's Day, 254–255
Thanksgiving, 252
Valentine's Day, 254
Monday, 129–130
negotiations, C.A.R.E. to guide, 246
photographs, taking, 251 religious, 128, 255
schedule, 126–128
and school breaks schedules, adding, 126–130 secular, 128
Hollie Guard app, 229
homes
emotionally preparation in both, 286–287 loyalty conflicts between, 278 safe, creating, 184–190 housing
myths about, 190
safety concerns, recognizing true, 189
secure, 174
hypocrisy, sexual boundaries without, 96–97

I

"I don't care" attitudes, 206
IEP. See Individual Education Program (IEP)
inappropriate discipline, 222–223 Individual Education Program (IEP), 120 infants and toddlers, stress, 203–204 infidelity, 110
in-person communication, 65 intentional breathing, 233 internal alarm system, 229–230 introduce children, deciding when to, 95–100
addressing a difference in morals, 97–98
compromise, 98
identify the problem, 97
negotiate, 98
suggest a child-focused solution, 98
answering your children's big questions, 100
avoiding social media pitfalls, 96
C.A.R.E. approach, 98–99
sexual boundaries without hypocrisy, 96–97
"I" statements, 60–61

J

joint custody
legal, 108
parenting plans, 13
professionals' advice regarding, 121

L

leaving children alone, proper supervision and readiness, 190–193 legal custody, 108
joint, 108
sole, 108
lifestyle, back-and-forth, 75–76
accepting your new life, 76–77
non-negotiables, 77–81
clear expectations, 78
encourage the love of both parents, 81
keep the schedule predictable, 80
keep unified standards for health and safety, 81
maintain autonomy in each home, 80
maintain consistency between homes, 78
respect for parent's role, 78
transparency, not control, 78–80
litmus test, 240
Little League game, 28 living space, sanitary, 175 love, rediscovering, 86–88
falling into old patterns, 87–88
mindful dating, 86–87
loyalties, seating without divided, 290–291

M

maid of honor, choosing your children, 278 mantra, co-parenting, 12 marriage, 285
addressing parents bringing new partners, 289–290 considering alternatives to, 263–264 emotionally preparation in both homes, 286–287 interferences from the extended family, 288–289 marriage (continued)

planning the ceremony, 291–296 choosing readings, rituals, and vows, 295–296 considering the groom's side, 294–295 finding a role for the bonus parent, 295 restoring calm when parents refuse to cooperate, 293–294 supporting same-sex weddings, 293 walking the bride down the aisle, 292 seating without divided loyalties, 290–291 meditation, 234
memorabilia, 283
mental health
concerns, 111–112
protecting, 230–233
anxiety, 230–231
depression, 231–232
post-traumatic stress, 232–233
mindful communication, 16
mindful dating, 86–87, 101
self-check, 105
mindfulness, 234
mindset, 31–33
looking for shift, 32–33
team
developing, 148–152
importance of, 148–149
thoughts become action, 32
mirror neurons, 29
modeling love and respect, 104–105
Monday holidays, 129–130
Mother's day, 129
holiday management, 254–255
muscle release, progressive, 234
myPlan app, 229

N

National Domestic Violence Hotline at 1-800-799-SAFE, 228 National Intimate Partner and Sexual Violence Survey (NISVS), 225 need for a change, parents recognizing, 23–29 allowing your co-parent to improve, 26–28
children needs, 29
fighting in front of the kids, 28–29
leaving the past in the past, 25–26 negative chain reaction, 58–72 apply the C.A.R.E. model, 63
debrief afterward, 63
pause before reacting, 59 recognize that trigger awareness as essential, 59–60 reframe your thoughts, 60 respond; don't react, 60–62 asking your co-parent's opinion, 62 using "I" statements, 60–61 negative/triggering phrase, 69 neutral territory, 39
new partner
addressing parents bringing, 289–290 doesn't respect your co-parent, 101–102 extended family, 278 making adjustments when introducing, 259–260 struggles with ongoing communication, 102–105

O

old rituals, revisiting, 279
On Death and Dying (Kübler), 202

P

panic attacks, 230–231
"panic hangover", 231
parallel intentions, 149–151
parallel parenting, 116–117
parental separation, 18 parental stress, coping with, 233 parent fails, to pay child support, 145–146 parenting, parallel, 116–117
parenting plans, 107
children as adjusting to life changes, 136–137 court-ordered, 122
determining who gets custody and why, 108–112 custody terminology, 108

evaluating how well co-parents get along, 111 looking at parental history, 109–111 mental health concerns exist, 111–112 shared custody vs equal custody, 108–109 honest assessment of your current, 135–137 for special situations, adjusting, 123–126 considering a step plan, 125–126 nesting approach, 125
physical health issues affect parenting, 123–124 tailoring a plan to your specific lifestyle, 124–125 taking unique factors, 118–122 accommodating a child, 120–122 age of your children, 120 distance each parent must travel, 119
work schedules, 119–120
understanding "time", 136 parenting schedules, equal custody, 112–118
2-2-3 schedule, 112–113
2-2-5-5 schedule, 114–115
3-4-4-3 schedule, 113–114
7-7 schedule, 116
parallel parenting, 116–117
parents
backgrounds shape perceptions, 191
birthdays, 127–128
dating, 91–93
recognizing the need for a change, 23–29
allowing your co-parent to improve, 26–28
children needs, 29
fighting in front of the kids, 28–29
leaving the past in the past, 25–26
think of child support, 140 work hours, 119–120
passive-aggressive behavior, 41 past drug, 110
photographs, 283
physical abuse, safety concerns, 180 physical custody, 108 physical safety, safe environment, 174–175 positive neutral alternative, 69
post-traumatic stress, 232–233
preschool-age children, stress, 204 preteens, stress, 206–207 problem-solving, with co-parent, 39–40 progressive muscle release, 234 protocols, decision-making, 46–47 public celebration vs private celebration, 279
"put the children first", 12

Q

questionable incidents, asking your child about, 195

R

reception, children in, 282–283 rediscovering love, 86–88
falling into old patterns, 87–88
mindful dating, 86–87
regressed behavior, 132
relational safety, safe environment, 175–176 relaxation techniques, 233–234 religious holidays, 128, 255 religious milestones, observing, 255–259 religious obligations, 256 religious training and worship, supporting, 82–83 reminiscing and "remember whens", 260 resets, ten practical, 305–308
ask questions instead of making accusations, 306–307
assume good intent, 306
change "you" to "we", 306
focus on the child, not the conflict, 306
keep messages brief and clear, 307
keep your child out of adult conflict, 308
pause before you respond, 305
remember to C.A.R.E., 308
respect differences between homes, 307
stay in the present, 307
respect
C.A.R.E., 15, 52, 90
modeling love and, 104–105
new partner doesn't respect your co-parent, 101–102 returning to family court, 51–53 ripple effect, 221

S

SAD. See separation anxiety disorder (SAD) safe environment
  defining, 174–176
  developmental safety, 176 emotional safety, 175 physical safety, 174–175 relational safety, 175–176 safe homes, creating, 184–190 safe sleep arrangements, 175
SafeTrek app, 229
safety apps, 229
safety concerns
  categories, 179
  determining real, 179–184 developmental risks, 179 emotional instability, 179 hygiene and health, 179 neglect, 182–183
  physical abuse, 180
  physical hazards, 179
  recognizing true housing, 189
  seeking help, 195–196, 199
  sexual abuse, 181–182
  substance use as co-parenting, 197–199 supervision issues, 179 watching for patterns, 183–184
  with your co-parent, 177–179
    learning to observe objectively, 177 responding properly, 178–179 responding to a difference, 178 responding to a safety concern, 177–178 responding to a trigger, 178 safety concerns, coordinating dealing with home comparisons, 188–189
  putting C.A.R.E. into practice, 188
  using C.A.R.E., 185
    acceptance, 186
    communication, 185–186
    empathy, 187–188
    respect, 187
same-sex weddings, supporting, 293 sanitary living space, 175
schedules
  holiday, 126–128
  parenting, equal custody, 112–118
    2-2-3 schedule, 112–113
    2-2-5-5 schedule, 114–115
    3-4-4-3 schedule, 113–114
    7-7 schedule, 116
    parallel parenting, 116–117
  work, 119–120
school-age children, stress, 204–206 school and extracurriculars, handling, 81–82 school celebrations, 257–258 seating
  for inclusion, 275–276
  for weddings, 275
secular holidays, 128
secure attachment, 133
secure housing, 174
security and predictability, child's sense of, 198
seeking help, 195–196
  deciding when to, 199
seeking therapy
  stress, 235
  for your child, stress, 215 separation anxiety disorder (SAD), 132 separation anxiety in children, 131–135 attachment styles, 133 coping with the whole family's anxiety, 134 helping your child understand separation, 132 proactively dealing with separation anxiety, 134–135 separation anxiety disorder (SAD), 132
sexual abuse
  investigating, 182
  possibility of, 181
  safety concerns, 181–182
  suspect, 182
sexual boundaries, without hypocrisy, 96–97

shared custody, 108
  vs equal custody, 108–109 shared vision, 16
showers, 272
  bridal, 272–274
  considering couples, 272 family-oriented, 273
  preparations, 273–274
siblings, 278
  to supervise, allowing, 192–193 situational depression vs chronic depression, 232
sleeping
  allowing your child to sleep with you, 224–225
  children, 224–225
  safe sleep arrangements, 175
sole legal custody, 108 spousal support
  consequences for nonpayment, 143
  court get involve, 143
  courts determine, factors, 142–143
  purpose of, 142–144
state age guidelines, 192
stepmom, 160
streamlining exchanges, 130–131
stress
  and anxiety
    addressing your children's spiritual needs, 211–212
    emotional predictability development, 210–211
    incorporating predictability and structure, 210 staying in sync with your children, 211 teaching your children to cope with, 207–212 post-traumatic, 232–233 reacting when stress becomes toxic, 212–216 adjusting without overreacting, 214–215 helping kids thrive after a breakup, 216 increasing the support, 213–214 moving toward healing, 213–216 reaching out for help, 214 reducing conflict, 213 seeking therapy for your child, 215
  seeking therapy, 235
  shows up in children, 203–207
    infants and toddlers, 203–204
    preschool-age children, 204
    preteens, 206–207
    school-age children, 204–206
    teenagers, 207
  workable tools for dealing with, 233–235 relaxation techniques, 233–234
    support groups, 234–235
stress and domestic violence, 225–228 parent at risk of becoming perpetrator, 225–227
    victim, 227–229
stressed-based anxiety, 230 stress of redefining yourself, 218–220 coping with the fallout, 220 examining the trauma, 219 exploring the impact of ongoing conflict, 219–220 substance related risk, recognizing the signs of, 198 substance use, as co-parenting safety concern, 197–199 supervision, age-appropriate, 175
support groups, 234–235
  for emotional support, 121
suspicious injuries, recognizing, 193–197

T

tact, communication, 70
teaching, children to cope with stress and anxiety, 207–212 team mindset
  developing, 148–152
  importance of, 148–149
team's philosophy, 151–152 teamwork, 147
  bridge from rivalry to, 149–151 teenagers, stress, 207
ten practical resets, 305–308
  ask questions instead of making accusations, 306–307

ten practical resets (continued)
assume good intent, 306
change "you" to "we", 306
focus on the child, not the conflict, 306
keep messages brief and clear, 307
keep your child out of adult conflict, 308
pause before you respond, 305
remember to C.A.R.E., 308
respect differences between homes, 307
stay in the present, 307
ten rules of good ex etiquette, 299–304
ask each other for help if you need it, 300–301
be honest and straightforward, 303
biological parents make the rules, 301–302
compromise whenever possible, 304
don't be spiteful or hold grudges, 302
don't hold grudges, 302
no badmouthing, 300
put the children first, 300
respect each other's turf, 303–304
use empathy when problem-solving, 302–303
Thanksgiving, holiday management, 252 timeframes, 132
timing, communication, 70
tone, 70–71
traditional labels, 2
traditions and family rituals, adjusting, 243–245 modify traditions, 244
remembering the child's experience, 244–245 start new traditions, 244 tradition vs ritual, 244 transitions, creating smooth for children during milestones, 245–246 trauma, 219
and danger, connection between, 229–235 Tribune Content, 2
true safety concern, 189 truths in co-parenting, 29–31
only one co-parent as invested, 31
stepping up with respect and kindness, 30

U

unacknowledged emotions, 276 unaddressed emotions, 276 unexpected emotions, dealing with, 276
US, Monday holidays in, 130

V

Valentine's Day, holiday management, 254 violence, stress and domestic, 225–228 visualization, 234
vows, writing, 280–282
choosing partnership over control, 281
continuity for children, 281
grounded partnership, 281
quiet strength, 282
respecting all bonds, 281

W

warning signs vs childhood injuries, 193–195
wedding
ceremony, 276
planning, 286
seating for, 275
Working Mother Magazine, 160
work schedules, 119–120