

Table of Contents

INTRODUCTION	1
About This Book	1
Foolish Assumptions	2
Icons Used in This Book	3
Beyond the Book	3
Where to Go from Here	4
PART 1: INTRODUCING NONPROFIT BOARDS	7
CHAPTER 1: Defining Nonprofit Governance	9
Defining Governance	9
Doing right: Integrity	10
Doing well: Excellence	10
Thinking long-term: Sustainability	11
Being inclusive: Equity	11
Understanding What Defines a Nonprofit	11
Being formed as a corporation	11
Receiving a special tax status	12
Serving the public good	12
Identifying What a Board Is	13
Looking at who's qualified to serve	14
Getting a handle on how boards govern	14
Governing Differently as You Grow	14
Stage 1: The organizing board	15
Stage 2: Governing	20
Stage 3: Institutional	22
Reflecting on your growth	23
CHAPTER 2: Understanding Who's in Charge	25
Answering to Regulatory Bodies	26
Internal Revenue Service	26
Federal Election Commission	26
Federal Trade Commission	27
State Legislature	27
State Attorney General	27
Secretary of State	28
State Labor Department	28
Working with Funders	28
Governmental grant-making agencies	29
Grant-making foundations	29
Corporate giving	29
Individual donors	30

Responding to External Voices	30
Watchdogs and rating agencies	30
Mass media	31
Listening to Internal Voices	31
Governance members	32
Executive leadership	32
Affiliated entities	32
Accounting for the Interests of Other Stakeholders	33
Advisory groups	33
Program partners	33
Beneficiaries	33
Professional oversight organizations	34
PART 2: ORGANIZING AND ENERGIZING PEOPLE	35
CHAPTER 3: Breaking Down Your Legal Duties	37
Looking at the Legal and Ethical Responsibilities of Board Directors	38
Duty of care	38
Duty of loyalty	40
Duty of obedience	42
Breaching Your Fiduciary Duties	43
Knowing Your Rights	44
Your right to information	44
Your right to rely on experts	45
Your right to participate and vote	46
Your right to due process and protection	46
Your right to dissent or leave	46
CHAPTER 4: Considering Common Board Responsibilities	47
Laying the Foundation for Success	48
Knowing your values	48
Understanding your context	49
Adapting best practices (for you)	50
Getting to Work: Core Board Responsibilities	50
Setting and safeguarding the mission	51
Hiring, supporting, and evaluating an executive leader	51
Setting and monitoring the strategic direction	52
Overseeing program performance	53
Ensuring legal and ethical integrity	54
Securing resources for the organization	54
Enhancing the organization's public reputation	55
Anticipating risk and preparing for the unexpected	55
Setting DEI policy	57
Building and managing a competent board	58

CHAPTER 5:	Designing Effective Board Leadership	59
	Getting an Overview of Officer Roles	60
	Looking at Key Responsibilities of the Board Leadership Team	61
	Electing Officers for Your Board	62
	Examining the election process	62
	Tackling term limits and timing considerations	63
	Setting the stage for succession management	64
	Taking a Closer Look at the Officer Roles	65
	Perusing the board president's role	65
	Viewing the board vice president's duties	67
	Talking about the board treasurer's position	68
	Seeing what the board secretary's role entails	70
	Modeling a Culture of Leadership	71
CHAPTER 6:	Recruiting and Onboarding Board Directors	73
	Recruiting an Effective Board	74
	Stage 1: Assessing Your Board's Needs and Preparing to Recruit	76
	Compiling your wish list	76
	Preparing your materials	77
	Involving your entire board	79
	Stage 2: Actively Recruiting New Directors	81
	Spreading the word	81
	Mobilizing individual directors	81
	Reviewing applications	82
	Conducting interviews	82
	Involving the executive leader	85
	Opportunities to engage candidates	86
	Voting on the candidates	86
	Stage 3: Onboarding and Integrating New Directors	86
	Onboarding for retention	87
	Other touchpoints and onboarding ideas	89
	Thinking of Recruiting as a Year-Long Activity	89
CHAPTER 7:	Energizing and Engaging Your Board	91
	Breaking Down Motivations for Board Service	92
	Navigating the Engagement Spectrum	93
	Prioritizing Onboarding	94
	Providing quality written materials	95
	Setting expectations in recruitment	95
	Welcoming people with style	96
	Activating Your Meetings	96
	Planning	96
	Using breakout groups and discussion	97
	Retreating (the good kind!)	97
	Communicating between meetings	97
	Investigating an online board portal	98

Educating the Board	98
Creating Impactful Relationships	99
Establishing executive one-on-ones	99
Taking advantage of the board buddy system	99
Social events and informal gatherings	100
Addressing dysfunction	100
Fostering a Mission Connection	100
Surveying site visits and program tours	101
Providing volunteer opportunities	101
Reporting through storytelling and impact	101
Pushing for advocacy and ambassadorship	101
Strategically Leveraging Expertise	102
Encouraging committee participation	102
Pinpointing people for special projects	103
Keeping People Accountable	103
Implementing assessment	103
Board fundraising expectations	103
Instituting an attendance policy	104
Recognizing and Appreciating Service	104
PART 3: RUNNING YOUR BOARD	105
CHAPTER 8: Living with Your Bylaws	107
Understanding Why Bylaws Matter	108
Cracking Open the Core Components of Good Bylaws	108
Setting board size and adding/removing board directors	109
Specifying terms and term limits	110
Establishing meeting norms	111
Quantifying a quorum	112
Making decisions	112
Electing officers and running elections	113
Standing up committees and task forces	113
Identifying indemnification	114
Addressing administrative processes	114
Writing and Revising Your Bylaws	114
Starting from scratch versus inheriting bylaws	114
Amending bylaws	115
Consulting a lawyer	115
Putting Bylaws into Practice	116
Distinguishing between bylaws and policy	116
Acting when the bylaws are silent	116
Avoiding Common Bylaw Pitfalls	117
CHAPTER 9: Creating Your Board's Annual Plan	119
Planning Your Year Is Nonnegotiable	119
Looking at Who Owns the Planning Process	120

Board chair and executive	121
Board secretary	121
Committee chairs	121
Full board	121
Starting Your Workplan from Scratch.....	122
Mapping out the planning process.....	122
Covering the Core Elements of a Board Workplan.....	123
Meeting dates	123
Compliance, finance, and legal deadlines	124
Committee activities	125
Critical board maintenance work	125
Executive oversight responsibilities	126
Fundraising campaigns and events	126
Programming highlights.....	126
Keeping the Calendar Alive	127
CHAPTER 10: Running a Great Board Meeting	129
Defining What Makes a Great Board Meeting.....	130
Focusing on the highest priorities.....	130
Keeping directors engaged in the conversation	131
Maintaining confidentiality.....	131
Preparing for the Meeting	132
Deciding who should attend	132
Choosing the right format	133
Providing clear notice of the meeting.....	134
Putting together the board packet	135
Leveraging the board packet.....	135
Building an Engaging Agenda	136
Setting the agenda (and who owns it)	136
Structuring time around what matters	137
Including an executive session	137
Running an Effective Meeting	138
Setting the tone of the meeting.....	138
Using a consent agenda to save time.....	139
Facilitating balanced discussion	139
Keeping committee reports short.....	139
Voting and recording votes	140
Parking an issue in the parking lot	140
Following up after the meeting	140
Recording Good Minutes	140
Taking charge of the minutes	141
Knowing what to include or leave out	141
Making the job easier	143
Dealing with Common Boardroom Problems.....	144
Managing absenteeism and unpreparedness.....	144
Containing dominant personalities	145

Drawing out quiet directors.....	146
Reengaging a bored board.....	146
CHAPTER 11: Building and Managing Effective Committees	147
Picking the Right Structure.....	148
Standing committees	148
Ad-hoc committees and task forces	148
Setting Up Effective Committees.....	149
Seeing what you really need	149
Formally adding a committee	149
Writing a committee charter	149
Assigning members to committees	150
Reviewing your committees periodically	150
Managing Committee Work.....	151
Defining leadership roles from the get-go.....	151
Drawing up an annual workplan.....	152
Setting agendas and writing up the minutes.....	153
Scheduling and running meetings	153
Assigning action items after meetings	153
Tracking ongoing work	154
Submitting committee reports to the board.....	154
Partnering with staff	154
Rotating your membership	155
Examining the Executive Committee	155
Addressing the committee's authority and makeup	155
Avoiding falling into shadow	156
Figuring Out the Finance Committee	156
Planning your financial year.....	158
Finding finance committee resources	158
Getting the Skinny on the Governance Committee	159
Here are the common responsibilities and projects of this committee:	159
Planning your governance year.....	160
Finding resources for governance	161
Feeling Out the Fundraising Committee	161
Finding the right members for the fundraising committee	162
Steering clear of fundraising committee pitfalls.....	162
Considering Additional Committees.....	163
PART 4: FULFILLING YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES	165
CHAPTER 12: Strategic Planning: Finding Your North Star.....	167
Understanding Why Strategic Planning Matters.....	168
Setting Up the Logistics of Strategic Planning.....	169
Deciding who gets a say	169
Considering how long it will take	170

Determining who is running the show	170
Deciding how far to look ahead	171
Establishing the Keystones of Your Plan	171
Crafting a strong mission statement	171
Knowing your vision and how to achieve it	172
Outlining your values	172
Phase 1: Assessing the Organization's Current State	173
Doing a SWOT analysis	173
Conducting a comparative analysis	175
Debriefing everyone	175
Phase 2: Visioning for the Future	176
Phase 3: Identifying Strategic Goals	177
Narrowing down your goals	177
Recognizing common goals	178
Phase 4: Developing Tactics and Action Items	179
Phase 5: Adopting Your Plan	180
Keeping the Plan Alive	180
Recognizing Green Flags in the Process	181
Trusting and collaborating with staff and leadership	182
Listening to your community	182
Maintaining honesty about organizational capacity	182
Staying focused on your mission	183
Watching Out for Red Flags	183
Doing too much	183
Overstepping into operations	183
Forgetting the financials	184
Assuming the best without measuring success	184
Knowing When to Abandon Your Plan	184
CHAPTER 13: Fundraising for Your Mission	187
Looking at Various Types of Contributions	188
Donations	188
Grants	188
Restricted and unrestricted gifts	189
Exploring the Four Ways Boards Give	190
Time	190
Money	191
Expertise	192
Connections	193
Getting creative with your giving	194
Working Alongside Staff	194
Partnering with fundraising team members	195
Beyond the Dollars: Overseeing and Evaluating
Fundraising as a Board	196
Measuring success	197
Preparing the board for its oversight role	199
Encouraging full board engagement	200

CHAPTER 14: Advocacy and Lobbying	201
Comparing Advocacy with Lobbying	202
Looking at the Limitations on Lobbying	203
Avoiding the Bright Red Line	205
The Do's and Don'ts of Advocacy	207
Do get educated	208
Do adopt a written policy	208
Do keep it organized	208
Do make it easy	209
Do wear a board badge or nametag	209
Do engage with and thank your lawmakers	209
Do share your story and educate the public	210
Do partner with coalitions	210
Don't endorse a candidate	210
Don't coordinate with campaigns	211
Do be hopeful	211
CHAPTER 15: Governing Organizational Finances	213
Looking at How Nonprofit Finance Is Unique	214
Your nonprofit needs to make a profit	214
Not all revenue is created equal	214
Overhead isn't inherently bad	215
Your governance liability scales with the organization	215
Balancing the Three Essentials of Good Oversight	215
Creating a healthy culture	216
Finding expertise	217
Managing time	218
Understanding Common Financial Reports	218
Statement of financial position (balance sheet)	219
Statement of activities (income statement)	221
The Form 990	225
Considering other reports	226
Tackling Budgeting and Planning	228
Determining who leads the process	228
Preparing and approving the budget	229
Monitoring the budget	231
Changing course on the plan	232
CHAPTER 16: Protecting Your Mission with Good Policies and Legal Practices	233
Determining the policies you need	234
Knowing when to engage a lawyer	235
Getting clear on the logistics	235
Writing Essential Governance Policies	236
Conflict of interest policy	237
Whistleblower policy	239

Grievance/complaint policy	240
Document-retention policy	241
Confidentiality policy.	241
Expanding Your Policy Manual	242
Board compensation policy	243
Executive compensation policy	243
Gift acceptance policy	244
AI usage policy	245
Additional policies	245
Protecting Your Mission beyond Policy	246
Requiring insurance and indemnification	246
Protecting intellectual property.	246
Creating an HR handbook	247
Submitting regulatory filings	247
Overseeing contracts	248
Setting financial policies	249
Laying Your Ethical Foundation.	249
Creating a Culture of Compliance	250
Performing regular policy reviews	250
Accessing helpful resources.	251
CHAPTER 17: Managing Risk and Dealing with Crisis	253
Navigating the Six Categories of Risk	253
Ferreting out financial risks	254
Looking at legal and regulatory.	255
Keeping an eye out for operational risk.	257
Surveying strategic risk.	259
Repelling reputational risk.	260
Evading economic, environmental, and political risk.	260
Managing and Responding to Risks	261
Overseeing risk as a board.	261
Understanding liability	262
Tracing the risk management cycle	264
Recognizing Decline and Crisis	267
Watching for the red flags	267
Getting to the root causes	268
Finding a path forward in crisis	269
Identifying what can make things worse	270
Dealing with Dissolution.	270
Figuring out whether it's time to close down	271
Managing the dissolution process	272
CHAPTER 18: Measuring Board Performance	275
Understanding Why Board Assessment Matters	276
Deciding how often to assess your board	276
Looking at two levels of assessment	277

Detailing the Four Dimensions of Whole-Board Performance	278
Assessing the people	278
Considering the culture	279
Scrutinizing the work	279
Investigating your impact	279
Starting the Assessment Process	280
Communicating expectations and assuaging fears	280
Squaring away the logistics	281
Running the Assessment Process	283
Phase 1: Planning and preparing	283
Phase 2: Reviewing results	284
Phase 3: Acting on the results	285
Reaping the Rewards: Board Transformation	286

PART 5: PARTNERING WITH STAFF 287

CHAPTER 19: Navigating the Board-Executive Partnership 289

Hiring Your Executive Leader	290
Starting the process	290
Writing the position profile	291
Setting compensation	292
Interviewing candidates	292
Involving staff in the search	295
Considering internal candidates	295
Checking references	296
Approving the candidate	296
Making the offer and negotiating	296
Onboarding your executive	297
Working with Your Executive Leader	297
Understanding the four dimensions of your leader	297
Toeing the line between governance and management	299
Setting boardroom expectations	301
Designing the president-executive relationship	301
Understanding your relationship to the executive	302
Assessing performance and giving feedback	302
Giving your executive a break	305
Investing in your executive	306
Planning for inevitable succession	306

CHAPTER 20: Dealing with Trouble at the Top and Transition . . . 307

Planning for Succession and Absence	307
Looking at three succession scenarios	308
Sketching out what's in a succession plan	312
Considering short-term absences and sabbaticals	313
Establishing boundaries with founders	313
Taking in a few quick reminders for succession planning	314

Recognizing Signs of Trouble at the Top	315
General underperformance	315
Poor culture and people leadership	317
Strained relationship with the board	318
Strategic misalignment	319
Misconduct and integrity violations	320
Responding to Trouble before It Becomes a Crisis	321
Using performance management tools	321
Determining whether it's a temporary struggle or time to move on	323
Firing Your Executive Leader	327
Planning for termination	327
Informing the leader of the termination	331
Bridging the gap: Interim leadership and continuity planning	333
Choosing an interim leader	333
Outlining an interim leader's role	334
Partnering on a search	335
CHAPTER 21: Working with Staff	337
Respecting the Lines between Board-Staff	337
Ensuring that staff reports to the executive, not the board	338
Communicating thoughtfully	338
Respecting staff expertise	339
Educating Staff on the Role of the Board	340
Showing Up When Staff Need You	341
Understanding When Friendly Is Fine, Familiar Is Complicated	341
Celebrating and Appreciating the Staff	342
PART 6: THE PART OF TENS	345
CHAPTER 22: Ten Myths of Nonprofits and Their Boards	347
Nonprofits Are Not Allowed to Make a Profit	347
Nonprofits Are Easier to Run than a Small Business	348
The Board Is the Executive Leader's Boss	349
Overhead Is Bad	349
Nonprofit Employees Accept Low Salaries Because They Love Their Work	349
Volunteers Are Free	350
Board Directors Are "Just" Volunteers	351
Only Fundraising Staff Raise Money	351
You Must Be Wealthy to Serve on a Board	352
A Bigger Board Is a Better Board	352

CHAPTER 23: Ten Dysfunctions of a Nonprofit Board	353
Rubber-Stamping	353
Micromanaging	354
Disengaging	355
Breaching Confidentiality	355
Power Blocks	355
Power Tripping	356
Avoiding Conflict	357
Making It Personal	357
Remaining Stuck in What Works	357
Lacking Decisiveness	358
INDEX	359