

Index

A

air bubbles, 24, 27, 77, 81, 120, 208
air-drying, 53, 178–180
 coil vase, 98
 drying time, 178–179
 firing too early, 180
 importance of, 178
 loosely wrapped method, 53
 pinch planter, 88
 in practice, 54
 slab mug, 109
 thick vs thin drying, 53–54
air pockets, 65, 76, 81, 101, 208, 225, 227
airtight storage, 52–53
Amazon, 166
aprons, 32, 47
attachments/marks, on planter, 86–88
 feet, 88
 maker's mark, 88
 small loop handles, 88 stamped texture, 88

B

bamboo skewer, 27
base coat, 168, 169
bat, 52, 60, 91, 98, 114, 227
batt boards, 56
beginner mistakes
 clay shrinkage, forgetfulness, 211–212

emotional attachment, 212–213
firing without testing, 215 not cleaning the vessel, 214–215
not cleaning up immediately, 215–216
not recording progress, 213–214
overwatering, 209–210
skipping the wedging steps, 208–209
wheel-throwing errors, 210–211
beginner potters, 48, 207
beginner projects, 79
 coil vase, 89–99
 pinch planter, 80–89
 slab mug, 99–110
bisque firing, 17, 88, 109, 181–184, 192–193, 228
 greenware, 182–183
 purpose of, 181–182
 reasons for, 192–193
 glaze application, 193
 organic burnout protection, 193
 quality checkpoint, 192
 shared studio logistics, 193
skipping, 183–184, 191–192
bisque-handling
 attrition rate, 192
 energy costs, 191–192
 kiln space costs, 191
 time costs, 191

bisqueware, 12, 17, 151, 154, 158, 161, 166, 167, 181, 183, 185, 192, 195, 214, 222, 225
blending, in coiling technique, 69–71 bone-dry, 11–12, 16, 46, 51, 54, 88, 109, 171, 180–183, 225
brand identity, 172–173
breakfast set, 112, 113
brush care, 154
brush-ons, 158, 183
bucket system, 48–50
 clean water bucket, 49–50
 end-of-session process, 50 primary rinse bucket, 49

C

canvas boards, 56
centering, 16, 119, 121, 130, 144, 210, 211, 220
ceramic objects, 8, 16, 170
The Ceramics Bible (Taylor), 231
ceramics setup, 10
ceramics studio, 14, 15, 217, 218
cheese test, 143
chisel-level scrape, 47
chopstick fingers, 124
clay, 10–12
 bisqueware, 12
 characteristics of, 22
 and creative mindfulness, 18–19
 dust, 13, 35, 36, 47, 214–216, 218

- clay (continued)
 - glaze-fired, 12
 - handling, 34
 - leather-hard, 11
 - life cycle of, 11
 - materials, 225–227
 - opening, 122
 - pad, 14
 - right conditions for, 34–35
 - selection of, 21, 22, 77
 - store in sealed bags, 37
 - waste management system, 49
 - water, 48
 - clay-caked tools, 47
 - clay safety, 35
 - avoid carpet, 37
 - avoid wash clay down in kitchen sink or bathroom pipes, 37
 - silica dust, 35–36
 - store clay in sealed bags, 37
 - sweeping and vacuuming, 36
 - take care with glaze, 38
 - use mask, 36–37
 - clay-splaining, 221
 - cleaner rinse, 37
 - clean up, 35
 - home workspace, 45
 - aprons, 47
 - bucket system, 48–50
 - clay-caked tools, 47
 - clean wet, 47
 - clothes, 47
 - don't let it get dusty, 46–47
 - laundry situation, 47
 - no clay down drain, 48
 - tools to, 140
 - clothes, 47
 - coding, 27, 157–158, 170–173
 - brand identity, 172–173
 - for studio firing, 171–172
 - coil(s), 26, 64, 67, 68, 79, 93, 225
 - coiling technique, 14, 67
 - blending, 71
 - decorative, 71–72
 - large-scale building, 72
 - leakproof (smooth), 69–71
 - rolling (snake), 68
 - score and slip (stack), 68–69
 - coil vase, 89–99
 - add coils, 94
 - air-dry and kiln fire, 98
 - attach handles, 97–98
 - compress and smooth, 91
 - glaze and glow up, 99
 - half-built of, 94–95
 - neck of, 96–97
 - rolling, 92
 - scoring and slipping, 93
 - shape flat circular base, 90–91
 - shape form, 95–96
 - wedging, 90
 - colors, 17, 38, 60, 153, 154, 157, 167, 169, 179, 212, 215
 - The Complete Potter* (Mattison), 231
 - compress, cylinder, 134–135
 - compression, 59, 85, 104, 135, 226
 - cones, 22–24, 98, 120, 184, 228
 - numbers, 22, 228
 - coning down, 120–121
 - coning up, 119–120
 - cracks, 18, 21, 35, 50, 51, 65, 76, 85, 91, 98, 104, 109, 134–135, 179, 182, 185–187
 - crafts, 7, 9, 17, 19, 45, 64, 220, 232
 - crawling, 158–161, 214–215, 228
 - creative coil patterns, 72
 - creative mindfulness, clay and, 18–19
 - the Crockd Universe
 - Instagram, 231, 232
 - online school, 230
 - studios, 230
 - TikTok, 231, 232
 - website, 232
 - YouTube, 230–232
 - Csikszentmihalyi, Mihaly, 19
 - cultural forces, 9
 - cut-away pottery templates, 110–112
 - cylinder, 16, 95, 125, 129–130, 143, 165, 219
 - compress, 134–135
 - drilling down, 130–132
 - opening up, 132–134
 - pulling up, 135–137
- ## D
- damp cloth, 33, 35, 47, 53, 95, 98
 - decoration, 17, 53–54, 167, 202, 231
 - decorative coiling, 71–72
 - creative coil patterns, 72
 - “internal only” blend, 71–72
 - design plan
 - coding, 170–173
 - layering, 167–170
 - sketches and stuff-ups, 166–167
 - diamond hands, 123
 - dinner plate, 73, 113, 114
 - dip glazes, 155, 195

ditch, slab building, 77
documentation process, 213–214
drilling down,
 cylinder, 130–132
 descent, 131
 stance, 131
 stopping point, 131–132
dry clay, sweeping and vacuuming, 36
drying process, 16, 51–54, 98, 104, 107, 109, 170
dry trimming, 140, 143
 flip piece, 144
 mark boundary, 146
 peel off lugs of clay, 147
 take shavings, 146–147
 using lugs of clay, 144–146
drywall trick, 56

E

earthenware, 22–24, 172, 226
 kiln firing range, 23
 temperature range, 23
elbow check, 121
environment, aware of, 34

F

fast drying, 54
fine and flat-head soft
 brushes, 152
finger test, 121
firing costs, 221
firing process
 air-drying, 178–180
 bisque firing, 17, 181–184
 glaze firing, 17–18, 184–187
 myths and taboos
 advanced potters, 190

 one approach and stick
 to it, 191
 single firing myths, 190–191
 weaker/lower quality, 190
firing programs, 42–43
 “explosion” protocol, 43
 frequency, 42
 hidden costs, 42
 schedule, 43
 versatility, 42
firing rules, 190
firing tab system, 221
flat-spot fix, 68
flip, slab building, 75
food-safe, 10, 12, 17, 24, 110, 111, 170, 186, 228
foot ring, 11, 41, 139, 143, 146, 147, 195, 196, 226
form control, pinch
 technique, 64–65
full-contact method, 68
functional pottery vessels, 8 furniture care, 202–203

G

glaze chemistry
 clay body, matching glaze
 to, 158–159
 troubleshooting, 159–164
 crawling, 159–161
 pinholes, 161–162
 the shelf melt, 164
 shivering, 162–163
 types of, 157–158
 brush-ons, 158
 overglazes and lusters, 158
 powders, 157
 underglazes, 158
glaze firing, 17–18, 184–187, 228

 to fix breakages, 186–187
 futureproofs, 185–186
 Japanese technique, 187
 purpose of, 184–185
glaze logbook application, 156
 brand/type, 156
 number of coats, 156
 result, 156
glazing, 17
 coil vase, 99
 pinch planter, 88–89
 slab mug, 110
 tools and application
 at-home hacks, 156
 pottery painting
 fools, 151–155
greenware, 11, 17, 178,
 181–183, 192,
 212, 213, 226
grog, 77, 183, 194, 226
guide sticks, 74, 100, 227

H

hand building, 14–15, 79
 clay, 65
 coiling, 14
 loop wire tool, 27–28
 needle tool, 26–27
 paddle tool, 28–29
 pinching, 14
 rib tool, 25–26
 slab building, 14
 sponge, 29–30
 techniques, 2, 79, 226, 230
 tools, 24–29
 wire tool, 24–25
hand-built clay baby, 209

- hand gestures, 122
 - chopstick fingers, 124
 - diamond hands, 123
 - hook and pull, 124
 - pistol hands, 125
 - prayer hands for coning up, 122
 - “rock on” hands, 123
- handle attachment, 109
 - on coil vase, 97–98
 - on slab mug, 106–107
- handmade pottery, 203–204
- high-fire stoneware, 200
- hiss test, 155
- home studio, 10, 31, 32, 158
 - be safe with clay and glaze, 35
 - clay, conditions for, 34–35
 - garage or spare room setup for, 38
 - make cleanup easy, 35
 - picking proper surface, 32–33
 - safety checklist, 39
 - water, close to source of, 33
- home workspace, keep safe and clean, 46
 - bucket system, 48–50
 - keep it clean, 46–47
 - no clay down drain, 48
- hook and pull, hand gesture, 124
- hot wax resist, 196

I

- IKEA effect
 - furniture care, 202–203
 - handmade pottery, 203–204
 - microwave-safe pottery, 201–202

- pottery cleaning, 200
- thermal shock, avoiding, 201
- industrialization, 9
- industrial revolution, 9
- Instagram, 40, 129, 231, 232
- “internal only” blend, 71–72

J

- Japanese technique, glaze firing, 187

K

- kidney tool. See rib tool
- kiln(s), 8–14, 16, 22, 24, 42, 50, 59, 65, 69, 125, 151, 156, 158–160, 162, 164, 166–168, 170, 172, 177–187, 227
 - in earthenware clay, 23
 - in stoneware clay, 23, 24
- kiln chaos
 - single firing, 190–194
 - benefits of bisque firing, 192–193
 - myths and taboos, 190–191
 - in shared studio, 193–194
 - skipping bisque firing, 191–192
- waxed bottom, 195–197
 - applying wax, 195–197
 - wax resist, 195
- kiln fire, 17, 23, 171
 - coil vase, 98
 - pinch planter, 88
 - slab mug, 109
 - stoneware clay, 23
- kiln-room behavior, 219, 222
- kitchen and garage tools
 - kitchen scale, 156

- lazy Susan, 156
- turkey baster, 156
- kitchen spatula, 29
- kitchen sponge, 30

L

- labels, 21, 44, 215, 222
- large-scale building, 72
- layering, 167–170, 193
 - base coat, 168
 - clear overglaze, 170
 - coloring, 169
 - design with pencil, 168–169
 - underglaze, 169
- Lazy Potter method, 140–143
- lazy Susan, 156
- leakproof (smooth), in coiling technique, 69–71
- leaning clay, 65
- leather-hard, 226
 - greenware, 182
 - stage, 11, 51, 76, 143, 171, 191
- loop/ribbon tool, 13, 27, 28, 96, 143, 146, 227
- loop wire tool, 27–28, 85, 86, 143
- loosely wrapped method, 53
- lugs, 144–147

M

- machine-made pottery, 9
- mask, 36–37, 216
- Mattison, Steve, 231
- mechanical pencil, 166, 168
- membership, pottery class, 39
- times and tutoring, 41
- guidance, 41

- protected space
vs chaos, 41
- tutor-to-member ratio, 41–42
- mesh rule, 155
- Mesopotamia, 8, 9
- metal shelving, 55, 56
- microfiber cloths, 47
- microwave-safe
pottery, 201–202
- cracks\damage, 202
- metallic glazes and lustres, 202
- thick, uneven pieces, 202
- mid-fire, 42, 226
- mixing whisks and sieves, 155
- moisture control, 59
- mopping traps, 218
- mud methods
 - hand building, 14–15
 - wheel throwing, 14–16

N

- neck-building stage, coil vase, 96–97
- needle tool, 12, 26–27, 227

O

- online school, 230, 232
- opening up, cylinder, 132–134
 - hook, 133
 - managing water, 134
 - pulling across, 133–134
- outward stretch, 68
- overglazes and lustres, 158
- overhandling, 34
- overwatering, 209–210
 - hand-built clay baby, 209
 - wheel-thrown clay
baby, 209–210

P

- paddle tool, 28–29, 86, 227
- painting
 - decorating, 17
 - drying, 16
 - glazing, 17
 - tools, 152–154
 - brushes, care of, 154
 - fine and flat-head soft
brushes, 152
 - pointed detail
brushes, 152–153
 - wide fan brush, 153–154
- pasta bowl and plate, 113–114
- pencil sketch, 166
- personalized stamps, 43
- piece tracking, 43–44
 - dated labels, 44
 - personalized stamps, 43
 - Pottery Profile system, 43
 - shelves, 44
 - ticketing systems, 44
- pinching, 14, 59–61, 67, 85, 89, 226
 - form control, 64–65
 - potting, 59–63
- pinch planter, 79, 80
 - air-dry and kiln fire, 88
 - attachments and marks, 86–88
 - compress base, 84–85
 - glaze and glow up, 88–89
 - make thumb hole, 82–83
 - pinching and pulling, 83–84
 - rim refinement, 85, 86
 - roll clay into ball, 81–82
 - shape the form, 85
 - smooth and compress, 86, 87
 - wedging, 80–81
- pinholes, 99, 161–162, 228
- pistol grip, 135
- pistol hands, hand
gesture, 125
- planter(s), 23, 67, 79, 90, 109.
See also pinch planter
- plastic\wet clay, 51, 226
- plastic wrap, 52, 53, 109
- plumbing protection, 48
- pointed detail
brushes, 152–153
- posture, wheel
throwing, 118, 227
 - anchor your elbows, 118
 - get close, 118
 - keep feet flat, 118
- pottery cleanup method, 48–50, 200
- pottery fools, 21, 69, 72, 74, 118
- pottery painting
fools, 151–155
 - dip glazes, 155
 - glaze tongs, 155
 - mixing whisks and sieves, 155
 - rubber gloves, 155
 - sponges, 155
- painting tools, 152–154
- Pottery Profile system, 43
- pottery resources
 - The Ceramics Bible*
(Taylor), 231
 - The Complete Potter*
(Mattison), 231
 - the Crockd
Universe, 229–231
 - one last thing, 232
 - studio membership, 231–232
- pottery studios, 21, 31, 32
 - clay-splaining, 221
 - ecosystem, 39, 40

pottery studios (continued)
filthy workspace, 219
firing costs, 221
firing programs, 42–43
glaze contamination, 222
ignoring the studio dog, 220
kiln-room behavior, 222
knowing your clay type, 219–220
membership, 39, 41–42
phallic jokes on the wheel, 219
piece tracking, 43–44
sweeping the dust, 218
tools and equipment, 40–41
unchained melody, 218
pottery towel, 47
potting, pinch
technique, 59–63
find center, 62, 63
pulling, 62, 63
symmetrical sphere, 61–62
powders, 37–39, 157
prayer hands for coning up,
hand gesture, 122
professional potters, 48
protected space vs chaos, 41 pulling stage, 16
pulling up, cylinder, 135, 210
lift, 136
slow finish, 136–137
vertical rise, 135–136

R

ram's head wedging, 208, 209
raw glazing, 182, 183. See also
single firing
ready-to-use stoneware
clay, 10
reclaim clay, 48, 226

reinforcement, wheel
throwing, 125–127
base compression, 125–126
hugging vessel, 127
rim compression, 126–127
ribbon tool. See loop wire tool
rib tool, 25–26, 227
“rock on” hands, hand
gesture, 123
rolling (snake), in coiling
technique, 68
flat-spot fix, 68
full-contact method, 68
outward stretch, 68
rolling pin, 73, 74, 102, 111, 227
rubber gloves, 155

S

safety, in home workspace, 35, 46
avoid carpet, 37
avoid wash clay down
in kitchen sink or bathroom pipes, 37
bucket system, 48–50
checklist, 39
keep it clean, 46–47
no clay down the drain, 48
silica dust, 35–36
store clay in sealed bags, 37
sweeping and vacuuming, 36
take care with glaze, 38
use mask, 36–37
score and slip (stack)
technique, 68–69, 226
aggressive scoring, 69
slip consistency, 69
twist and lock, 69
“S” crack, 125, 126

the shelf melt, 164, 220
shelf storage, 44, 54
drywall trick, 56
look for good pottery shelf, 54–55
metal shelving, 55
wood, choosing of, 55
shivering, 158, 162–163, 215, 228
shrinkage, 51, 134, 211, 212, 226
shrinking, 51–52, 160
silica dust, 35–36, 46, 226
silicosis, 36, 46, 216, 226
single firing, 182–184, 190–194, 228
bisque firing benefits, 192–193
glaze application, 193
organic burnout
protection, 193
quality checkpoint, 192
shared studio logistics, 193
myths and taboos, 190–191
advanced potters, 190
one approach and stick
to it, 191
single firing myths, 190–191
weaker\lower quality, 190
in shared studio, 193–194
skipping bisque firing, 191–192
bisque-handling
attrition rate, 192
energy costs, 191–192
kiln space costs, 191
time costs, 191
sketches and stuff-ups, 166–167
pencil sketch, 166
underglaze, 166
washing off, 167

slab building, 14, 73–74, 226
 air bubbles, identifying and correcting, 77
 clay selection, 77
 compressing, 76
 flip, 75
 rolling, 74–75
 sign to ditch, 77
 smoothing, 76
slab bumpers, 74, 100–102
slab mug, 99–100
 air-dry and kiln fire, 109
 attach wall to base, 105–106
 compress clay, 104
 cut rectangle wall shape, 104–105
 form refinement, 108
 glaze and glow up, 110
 handle and attach, 106–107
 place wall clay between slab bumpers, 101–102
 roll and cut out base shape, 102–103
 rolling, 102, 103
 wedging, 100–101
slab process, 111, 112
 bisque, 111
 compress with rib, 111
 cut with needle tool, 111
 dry, 111
 fire, 111
 glaze, 111
 guide, 111
 wedge and roll, 111
slam wedging, 208
slip technique, 68–69, 86, 226
slow air-drying, 53
 loosely wrapped method, 53

 in practice, 54
 thick vs thin drying, 53–54
social contract, 217, 219
space, 13–14, 31, 40. See also home studio; pottery studios speed check, 121
sponges, 13, 29–30, 155, 227
stoneware, 22–24, 80, 111, 200, 201, 227 storing work in progress, 45, 50
 create airtight, 52–53
 drying stages, 51
 shelf storage, 54
 drywall trick, 56
 look for good pottery shelf, 54–55
 metal shelving, 55
 wood, choosing of, 55
shrinking, 51–52
slowly air-drying, 53
 loosely wrapped method, 53
 in practice, 54
 thick vs thin drying, 53–54
 wrap a piece, 52–53
straight-sided planter form, 85
studio dog, 220
studio firing, 171–172
sweeping, 35, 36, 47, 218

T

tapered bases, 72, 85
Taylor, Louisa, 231
temptation, 209
terracotta, 23, 227
test tile, 18, 215, 228
thick vs thin drying, 53–54

ticketing systems, 44
TikTok, 231, 232
travel mug (or vino vessel), 113 trimmed pot vs untrimmed pot, 140
trimming, 11, 139–140
 dry trimming, 143–147
 slow air-drying for, 53–54
 tips, 148
 wet trimming, 140–143
troubleshooting, 159–164
 crawling, 159–161
 pinholes, 161–162
 the shelf melt, 164
 shivering, 162–163

U

unchained melody, 218
underglazes, 17, 158, 166–170, 228

V

vacuuming, dry clay, 36
ventilation, 38
virtual pottery sessions, 34
vitrification, 23, 184, 186, 227

W

wall consistency, 59
washing off, 167
waxed bottom, 195–197
wax resist, 195, 228
 electric melting pot, 196–197
 hot wax resist, 196
 water-based wax resist, 196

- wedging, 80–81, 227
 - coil vase, 90
 - pinch planter, 80–81
 - slab mug, 100–101
 - steps, 208–209
- wet clay, 12, 45, 46, 51, 211, 216
- wet trimming, tools
 - finger, 141, 142
 - needle tool, 140, 141
 - wooden rib, 140, 141
- wheels, 8, 15–16, 40, 51, 59, 71, 80, 130–132, 135, 137, 140–147
- wheel throwing, 14–16, 24–30, 117
 - centering, 119, 210–211
 - clay baby, 209–210
 - clay opening, 122
 - coning down, 120–121
 - coning up, 119–120
 - elbow check, 121
 - errors, 210–211
 - final check, 121
 - finger test, 121
 - hand gestures, 122–125
 - posture, 118
 - reinforcement, of piece, 125–127
 - speed check, 121
 - tools of, 24–29
 - wide and open planter form, 85
 - wide fan brush, 153–154
 - wire tool, 12, 24–25, 80, 85, 90, 227
 - wooden boards, on metal shelves, 56
 - wooden rib\kidney, 12
 - worktables, sturdy and spacious, 40
 - wrap, piece, 52–53

Y

YouTube, 41, 230–232